Bp. Grandisson's Memorandum at the beginning of Bp. Bronescombe's Register.

PREFACE.

The Registers of the Diocese of Exeter begin with that of Bishop Walter Bronescombe, who succeeded Bishop Blondy in 1257-8. It is comprised in Volume I of the Series, which contains, also, the Register of Bishop Quivil, his Successor, and many miscellaneous Deeds and Documents belonging, for the most part, to the same period. The Deeds were, formerly, fifty-one in number; but no fewer than twenty-nine of them have fallen victims to the cupidity of dishonest collectors.[1] I have printed in extenso all that survive, and their contents, at any rate, are now safe against possible future depredators.

Bronescombe's Register is a small folio Book,[2] consisting of 103 vellum leaves, in excellent preservation throughout. The writing is good, and, with trifling exceptions, the ink has worn well. Its early history is quite a little Romance. Bishop Stapledon must have taken it to London; and, after his murder, 15th Oct., 1326, when his House was sacked by the Citizens and his goods dispersed, it was lost or stolen.[3] Someone bought it, whose name is unknown; but Bishop Grandisson (who seems to have been instrumental in its recovery) denounces the purchaser's unworthy treatment of the precious

1 One, at least must have been abstracted quite recently! When Dr. Oliver wrote his History of Exeter (published in 1861—after his death), he found "preserved in Bp. Bronescombe's Register, fol. 45, a Deed of Bp. Henry Marshal's," of which nothing but the "stump," so to speak, now remains. He tells us little as to its purport; but he refers, elsewhere, to Blondy's Confirmation of Marshal's mandate, and states that the Chapels in Exeter and its suburbs were then sixteen in number, viz., Trinity, St. James, St. Michael-in-the-Deanery, St. Mary-major, St. Mary-minor, St. Petrock, St. Simon and St. Jude, St. Martin, Christ Church, St. Kerian, St. Cuthbert, All-Hallows-on-the-Walls, All Hallows in Goldsmith Street, St. Clement, St. David, and St. Sidwell's (Lives of the Bishops, p. 37). Some of these disappeared soon afterwards (see p. 451).

2 He is said to have been the first English Bishop to discard the familiar Roll, in favour of the Book-form. John de Pontissara was, probably, the first Bishop of Winchester to adopt this form (1282), with which—coming from Exeter—he would be familiar. Oliver Sutton, Bp. of Lincoln (1280—1300), adopted it in the 11th year of his Episcopate, viz., from 19 May, 1290, and Abp. Peckham, whose Register begins the Lambeth Series (1279), evidently did the same thing. [F. J. Baigent.]

3 In writing to the Abp. of Canterbury, 26 Nov., 1326, our Chapter state that they had delivered to their Co-Canon, Adam Murimuthe, whom the Abp. had appointed Guardian of the Spiritualities of the Vacant See, the Seals of the Officials of the Spiritual Jurisdiction, but the Registers and other Episcopal Acts they had not been able to deliver to him, because they were all in London, in the Hospice of their deceased Lord, and had been seized (occupata) with his other things,—"ad quorum Registrorum recuperacionem reputaremus opus misericordie laborare, quoniam necessaria forent Ecclesie Exoniensi, nec alicui alteri afferre possunt commodum detenti."—Regist. of Abp. Reynolds, fol. 150. [F.J.B.]

MS. in the following interesting Memorandum, written with his own hand, on a fly-leaf at the beginning,—"Quoddam Registrum primi Walteri, Episcopi Exoniensis, de Anno Domini M°. CC°. L°. vij°. Et sciendum quod cancellaciones[1] hic facte, vel per nigrum tracte, ab aliquo ignorante, vel non pertinente, fiebant, qui Registrum, post necem secundi Walteri, emit et retinuit multum diu."[2] It is evident that Grandisson took great interest in the Book; for he annotated it in many places, and numbered the folios throughout, beginning with the fly-leaf on which he had written his "Memorandum."[3]

The page selected for the facsimile fairly represents the Register.[4] But the earlier folios are much more closely written, and in smaller characters, while the writing of the later folios is bolder and more widely spaced.

1 They are numerous, and obviously "impertinent," as the Bishop says. Fol. 40, for instance, containing the "Deposicio" of John Chubbe, Abbot of Tavistock, is cancelled on both sides, and Grandisson has written "male trahi" on the upper margin.

2 See the facsimile. The words Et sciendum &c.," were added subsequently.

3 The MS. has been disfigured by numerous marginal references, written, apparently, in the Sixteenth Century, and, many of them, mere repetitions of the original references, which are far easier to read. And the latter were carefully and accurately made; whereas the intruding scribe was guilty of blunders which have more than once misled the student. Bp. Woolton's Registrar, William Germyne, was more usefully employed in filling up some blank spaces with copies of antient documents, chiefly from the Cartulary of St. Nicholas' Priory. These last have been collated with the original MS. in the British Museum (see pp. 2—7; 369).—It will be seen that the contents of this volume are of a very varied character; and someone—I think Germyne himself—has written on the margin of fol. 35b—"in hoc libello scribuntur multe Composiciones." Some rude attempt at an Index of Contents will be found on the fly-leaves; but they are of no value, though partly written by Grandisson. On a fly-leaf at the end is the following memorandum,—"In the Exchequer.- Between William Walter, Clerk, Complainant, and John Holman, George Hole, Robert Squance, Thomas Holman, Richard Steer, and William Watkins, Defendants: 17th August, 1814.—At the Execution of a Commission for the Examination of Witnesses in this Cause, this Book was shewn to William Robert Davey, a witness, sworn, and examined, and by him deposed unto at the time of his Examination, on the Complainant's behalf, before us, —R. J. MARKER, JOHN WILLIAMS, JOHN PIDSLEY, and JOHN TOLLER."—See p. 204, note 1.

4 The word "Budoci," which will be observed in the margin, is one of Grandisson's References. It is of some interest, because it seems to shew that, while the Cornish "Saint" was always so described in formal Documents, the prefix was, then as now, often dropped in common parlance. The "Sancti Budoci" of the Entry becomes (as we should say) "Budock" in the Note. And the like occurs elsewhere. For instance, for "Sancti Pyrani" (fol. 41) Grandisson writes "Pyrani" in the margin, and for "Sancti Maderni" (fol. 74) "Maddern." And another—a contemporaneous—annotator writes the "Berian" of our own day against the "Sancte Beriane" of the Text. As in duty bound I have represented the Registers as they stand; and I have, therefore, retained the "Saint" of the MS., throughout. Of course, I have extended all contractions, according to general (and, I think, reasonable) use. And I have taken only one liberty with my MS. I have retained, for instance, the antient "c" for "t," in such words as "proteccio," and I have not followed the modern practice of changing the medieval "e" into the diphthongs "æ" or "œ"; but the word "litera," which is of very frequent occurrence, is sometimes written with one "t," sometimes with two, and I have used the form "litera" throughout.

WALTER BRONESCOMBE was the Twelfth Bishop of Exeter. His Predecessor, Richard Blondy, died at the Palace on the Feast of St. Stephen (26 Dec.), 1257; and on the Tuesday after the Epiphany (8 Jan.), the Canons met in their Chapter-House, to choose his Successor.[1] The Election, however, did not take place till the Morrow of the Feast of St. Peter's Chair (23 Feb.), when Bronescombe was unanimously chosen.[2] It was reported to the King, at Westminster, on Mid-Lent Sunday (3 March); and, on the same day, he signified his Assent thereto,[3] and issued his Letters-Patent, directed to Archbishop Boniface, for its Confirmation. The Letters and the formal announcement of the Election were presented—also, on the same day—to the Primate; but he was too busy to attend to the matter himself—"Reipublice et propriis negociis occupato,"—and commissioned Eustace de Lenne, Pontius, Rector of Lambeth, Roger de Cantuaria, and Michael de Bristolle, to examine the Documents, at Lambeth, and report to him thereon, in writing. On the following day the Archbishop announced his intention of proceeding to the Confirmation on March the 6th, in the Parish-Church of Bexley. There were present on the occasion, Ralph, Archbishop of Tarantaise, and many other Witnesses whose names are not recorded. Before the day closed the Bishop-Elect appeared before the King, at Westminster, and, having taken the Oath of Fealty, he had restitution of the Temporalities of his See.[4] He was in Deacon's Orders at the time; and on the Saturday called Sitientes (9 March) he was ordained Priest by the Archbishop, at Canterbury, together with the Bishops-Elect of Norwich and Coventry. On the day following, being Passion-Sunday, he was consecrated by the Primate, in Canterbury Cathedral, in the presence of the Bishops of Bath and Salisbury and many other Witnesses.[1] And on the Feast of St Tiburcius and St. Valerian, being the Third Sunday after Easter (14 April), he was solemnly enthroned in his Cathedral Church.

2 He was Archd. of Surrey Oliver says, "for nearly the last six years."—But, as Archdn., he witnessed a Charter of Bp. Wm. de Raleghe, at Clifwar near Windsor (Clewer), 16 April, 1246. And he occurs, 15 Feb., 1247-8, and 27 June, 1254, as "Archidiaconus Surrie et Domini Pape Capellanus," in some Entries on a fly-leaf at the commencement of the Register of John de Pontissara, Bp. of Winchester.

Probably, therefore, Walter de Lodeswelle (see p. 12) was Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop soon found that his Predecessor had left him a sad legacy of debts and difficulties; and, as new Creditors were constantly coming forward to prove their claims, threatening Sequestration of the goods of the deceased Prelate, he was obliged to warn Dean Stanweye, and the other Executors of Blondy's Will, to do nothing without his approval and consent. And his Register shews that, for years, he was short of money, and driven to contract loan after loan, chiefly with Florentine and other foreign Merchants. He was, also, within a year of his Enthronization, called upon to deal with certain grave charges which had been brought against John Fitz-Robert and other leading men in the Diocese. They were accused of surrounding the dying Bishop's bed, when he was unconscious, if not actually dead; where they were joined by Chancellor Lodeswelle and Richard de Tottonia, a Notary-Publick (whom they had sent for), and proceeded, after binding themselves to secrecy, to forge Letters by wholesale, in the Bishop's name, disposing of his property, and conferring Benefices on whom they would! Bronescombe held an Inquisition in the Chapter-House of Buckfast Abbey, 19 March, 1258-9, the Abbot being present and, also, William Poundstock, one of the Monks, John Noble, and Bartholomew de Lardario. Lodeswelle and the Notary appeared before him and made a full confession. They gave up the names of the conspirators (see p. 12), and acknowledged that many of the Letters were written and signed after it was known that the Bishop had breathed his last. Bronescombe appears to have been satisfied with their professions of penitence, for they were publickly absolved, in the Palace-Chapel, on the 1 Magister Walterus, Archidiaconus Surreiensis, electus est ad Episcopatum Exoniensem. Mirabile, quidem, de dicto Waltero accidit, cum infra quindenam sue Eleccionis a Rege est admissus, ab Archiepiscopo confirmatus, ad ordinem Sacerdotis est promotus, et ad Episcopalem Dignitatem est consecratus; quod apud nos usque in presens est inauditum in tam brevi tempore" (MS. Lambeth, No. 497,—quoted in Hardy's Le Neve, i, 370). Like his Predecessor, Blondy, and his Successor, Quivil, he was a native of Exeter.

Easter-Monday following; and some, at all events, of the others must, also, have been restored to favour, for Gervase de Criditone, Thomas de Mollonde, and Henry de Cristinestowe were, not long afterwards, collated to Prebends, or other Benefices, in the Bishop's gift.

His Register, as Oliver justly observes (Lives of the Bishops, p. 40), is, indeed, a valuable Record, supplying abundant evidence of his unwearied attention to his Ministerial Duties, his unsullied integrity of character, and his promptitude in asserting the Rights and Privileges of his See against both Ecclesiasticks and powerful Laymen.[1]

How great was his energy in the administration of his Diocese may be gathered from his "Itinerary." He was enthroned, as we have seen, 14 April, 1258; and immediately afterwards, he proceeded to inspect the principal Manors pertaining to the See, visiting Crediton on the 18th, Bishopsnympton on the 19th, Chudleigh on the 24th, and Paignton on the 26th; and on the 9th of May we find him at his distant Manor of Poltone, in the Parish of St. Breoke, on the North Coast of Cornwall. Returning to Exeter on, or about, the 17th, he proceeded to London (which appears to have been his head-quarters till the end of the year), visiting his Manors of Horseley, in Surrey, and Chidham, in Sussex, in June and September, and spending July in Paris. After Christmas he returned to his Diocese and remained there till the end of April, 1259, when we find him again in London, where he remained till the middle of August, when he went westward, and commenced his first Visitation at Honiton, on the 23rd. After resting, for a few days, in his Palace, he plunged vigorously into his work, moving from place to place, day after day, with scarcely an interval, till the close of the year. Those only who are acquainted with the character of the country which he had to traverse will be able to appreciate fully the toil and travail of his way. Let us follow him for a few days in September and October.

Leaving Lawhitton, by Tamar-side, on the 18th or 19th of the former month, he reached Bodmin on the 20th, and on the same day journeyed to Poltone, where he remained till the 26th, when we find him at St. Newlyn, some miles to the south-west, and the following day at Kenwyn. The 28th and 29th were spent in Truro; and from thence he made his way to Tregony, which he reached on the 30th. There he abode two days; setting out on the 3rd of October for the

1 Witness his long struggle with Edmund, Earl of Cornwall, many interesting details of which will be found in these pages; the Record closing with an 'Amicable Composition" between the contending parties, the terms of which were settled at Lambeth, 14 March, 1274–5 (see p. 56.

South Coast, and visiting, in rapid succession, a large number of places, some of which are not altogether easy of access even now, and must have been much less so over such roads as the good Bishop and his retinue had to encounter more than six hundred years ago. He visited St. Anthony-in-Roseland on the 3rd; St. Michael-Carhayes and Tregeare (his Manor in St. Gerrans) on the 5th; Mevagissey, and Bodrigan (in St. Goran) on the 8th; St. Austell on the 9th; and Looe, many miles over the hills, eastward, on the 11th. That night he reached St. German's Priory, and spent the next day there; proceeding to Shevioke on the 13th, Antony on the 14th, the remote Parish of Rame on the 15th, Pillaton (miles away, to the North, and by a very circuitous route) on the 16th, St. Mellion on the 17th, Botusfleming on the 18th, St. Dominick on the 20th, North Petherwin (far away, in North Cornwall, beyond Launceston), on the 22nd, St. Clether on the 23rd, Kelly (across the Tamar) on the 24th, and St. Stephen's-by-Launceston on the 25th! It will be well worth anyone's while to follow the indefatigable Bishop's route on the Map. Its recital might well be regarded as almost incredible, but for the fact that his Register records the work done at every place, and thereby increases our wonder. For in the course of some thirty days he dedicated no fewer than twenty-one Churches, in addition to attending to much Diocesan work of other kinds. Weary and worn, we may well believe, he retired to his quiet Home at Chudleigh for a week's rest, having crossed the great Moor. And even here work awaited him, for on November 6th he dedicated the Parish Church; and on the 8th he set out again, visiting sixteen widely scattered Parishes within a month, and dedicating no less than thirteen Churches!

It is evident that a great wave of zeal for the Houses of God had swept over the whole Diocese, for we find that, between September, 1259, and the end of 1268, the Bishop was called upon to dedicate eighty-eight re-built or enlarged Churches. Of these Dedications forty occurred in a single year. Many of the old Sanctuaries, erected in Saxon or in Norman days, had, probably, become decayed, or, perhaps, even ruinous, and demanded the Restorer's hand. And it is interesting to be able to trace in many instances, even now, the work that was done then. The beautiful little Church of St. Anthony-in-Roseland, cruciform, with a central tower, alone comes down to us quite unchanged since the day on which Bronescombe dedicated it; and it tells its own tale clearly. Its builders spared the grand old south doorway of the Norman Church, and all besides is their own work. I have visited most of the Churches on the list (see pp. 65-68); and, though nearly the whole of them have been all but completely transformed by the Builders and Restorers of a later time, there are few in which I failed to find, at least, traces of what must have been the outward expression, at any rate, of a general revival of the Work of the Lord in the Far West during the latter half of the Thirteenth Century.

The Bishop spent the greater part of the year 1260 in London, occasionally visiting his Manors in Surrey, Hants, and Sussex. But August and September were devoted to his Diocese; and in the course of 1261 he again visited every part of the two Counties, dedicating sixteen Churches, and almost rivalling the wonderful progress of 1259.

There is no direct reference in his Register to the contests which raged between the King and the Barons during the early years of his Episcopate. But, as his Biographer points out, the fact that, when the power of the latter had been broken by the decisive Battle of Evesham, 4 August, 1265, his name stood first of the Commissioners—the twelve Bishops and Barons who were appointed to arrange and settle differences—proves that he was distinguished amongst his Fellows for circumspection and integrity of conduct.[1]

In 1268, our Bishop, in conjunction with the Chapter, undertook the revision and amendment of the Statutes of his Cathedral. The bare fact is recorded in his Register (fol. 39[b]), and Grandisson has written on the margin the words "Nota Statuta Ecclesie Exoniensis." The Entry gives the date, simply, as "Mense Maii," and under the year 1269 (see p. 76). It is, however, certain that it was misplaced, and that the work was begun at the end of April and completed in May, 1268. For the new Statutes are set forth, at large, in MS. No. 3625, in the Archives of the Dean and Chapter, and are thus described at the beginning:—

"In Dei Nomine, Amen.—Anno Domini Millesimo CC. lxviij, Idus Maii [15 May], presentibus Nobis, Magistro Willelmo[2] Decano Exoniensi, et ejusdem Loci Capitulo, convocatis universis qui voluerunt, potuerunt, et debuerunt comode interesse, ad dictum diem convocatis, placuit Nobis, Decano, et Capitulo, ut Consuetudines antique et approbate Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, que in Admissione cujuslibet Canonici observande jurantur, cum deliberacione convenienti et honesta, ad memoriam futurorum et honestatem Ecclesie, ac Divini Cultus augmentum, in Puplicam Scripturam redigantur, et imposterum a Nobis et Successoribus nostris firmiter imperpetuum inviolabiliter observentur."

At the end of this Document is the following Memorandum,—

"Super aliis, autem, Capitulis, prefatis Decano et Capitulo expositis et exponendis, utilitatem et honestatem ipsius Ecclesie tangentibus, reformacionem et declaracionem ad instar aliarum Cathedralium Ecclesiarum Cantuariensis Provincie, Nobis, cum pleniori deliberacione tractaturis tempore oportuno, reservamus. 1 We can, however, trace our Bishop's progress to Coventry, where the "Dictum de Kenilworth" was drawn up (15 Oct., 1266). Leaving his Manor House of Faringdon near Alton (Hants), about the middle of September, he reached Dorchester (Oxon) on the 23rd, and Islip on the 24th. On the 14th of Oct., he was at Brightwell, and on the 27th at Northampton; returning, soon afterwards, to London, where we find him on November the 23rd.

2 William Stanwey, who died in December, 1268.

The work of Revision was, accordingly, resumed in 1275.[1] And thus the record begins,—

"A memoria nostra non excidit id quod vos novimus non latere, quod, ad instanciam vestram, antiquas et approbatas Consuetudines Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, que vagari videbantur ut incerte, examinari et ad eternam rei geste memoriam in Publicam Formam redigi, vobisque tradi, olim fecimus perpetualiter observandas ; quedam Statuta, Juri consona et salubria, insuper annectendo, et eorum declaracionem Nobis reservando. But Bronescombe was not even yet content with his work. He again visited the Chapter—"ne in vanum laborasse videamur,"—20 Jan., 1276-7.[2] And on the 11th February[3] his task was completed.[4]

The Fabrick of the Cathedral is only incidentally mentioned in this Register. And, indeed, it is certain that very little was done to it during Bronescombe's Episcopate. The late Archdeacon Freeman has shewn, in his Architectural History of the Cathedral, that the Transition-Norman Church, having "taken about 90 years to build, from 1112 to c. 1200, was left alone for about 90 more, viz., from c. 1200 to 1280, when the great work of re-construction was begun by Bishop Quivil. Bronescombe, however, rebuilt (or, perhaps, only remodelled), the Chapels on either side of the Lady-Chapel, St. Mary Magdalene's on the North, and St. Gabriel's on the South. He mentions the latter in his Deed of Appropriation of the Church of Buckerell to the Dean and Chapter, executed 20 July, 1280, just before his death. Referring to the "Capella fere de novo constructa, juxta Capellam Beate Marie . . . ex parte Australi," he states that he had chosen it to be his last resting-place, that at its Altar two Chaplains might Celebrate, for ever, for the repose of his soul, for his Benefactors, and for all the Faithful Departed (see p. 38). St. Gabriel was his Patron-Saint; in whose honour he had instituted a special Feast—not any fixed Day, but a "movable Feast"—the first Monday in the month of September in every year;[1] and for the due celebration thereof, and of his own Obit on the following day, he had already appropriated the Rectory of St. Breward, in Cornwall, 5 Sept., 1278.

In 1272 King Henry III died, on the 16th of November. Prince Edward was "beyond the Sea, warring against the enemies of Christ." On his return-journey, in the Spring of 1273, to take the Kingdom, many Prelates and Barons were deputed to meet him in Burgundy, and Bronescombe was of the number. He left England in May, starting from London between the 4th of that month and the 7th, when we find him at Canterbury, where he remained till the 11th. On the 10th of August, after his return from France, we find him again at Canterbury, which appears to have been his head-quarters till the end of September. But he was in Paris on September the 17th. From 11 Oct. till 9 Dec. all the Entries[2] are dated at Bayonne. On 27 Dec. he was at Bordeaux. And every subsequent Entry is dated either at Paris or Vitry till 7 April, 1274. The Entries for May and June, only four in number, are all dated at Lyons. He attended the General Council held in that City in May, June, and July. The Council rose, 17 July; on the 22nd our Bishop was at la Charité, on the 29th in Paris, and in August we find him at home again, at Horseley, having been absent from England nearly a year. While he was at Bayonne, Queen Eleanor gave birth to a son, on St. Clement's Day (23 Nov.), and the Royal Child was baptized by Bronescombe on the 24th, and was called Alfonso, after the King of Spain, his Godfather.[3]

There can be no doubt, as I have already shown, that

1 See p. 243.—This 5 Sept. fell on the first Monday in 1278. And the new Festival was long celebrated in the Chapel of the Archangel with great solemnity—"in luminaribus et aliis que in Die Natalis Domini, vel Pasche, fieri consuevit." It is necessary that the Student should bear this fact in mind; for St. Gabriel's Day frequently occurs as a date in our Registers, meaning, always, the First Monday in Sept., and not 26 March or 13 July.

2 They were made irregularly, and, evidently, not at the time of the several occurrences. There is, consequently, some little confusion of dates, here. [In the "Itinerary" (p. 300), under "fol. 53," the entry "Oct. 18," which properly belongs to the next page in the MS., and at Bayonne, has been accidentally repeated, as at Canterbury. I must ask the Reader to strike the former out.

3 He died about four months after the birth of Edward of Carnarvon, on the Feast of St. Magnus (14 Aug.), 1284, and was buried, in Westminster Abbey, on the Vigil of the Decollation of St. John Baptist (28 Aug.) Oliver says that this Prince was born in 1275, but in error.

our Bishop was a man of extraordinary energy and activity, full of good works, and ever intent on promoting both the spiritual and the worldly interests of his Flock.[1] Oliver tells us that, in 1270, he obtained from the Crown a Market and Fair for Bishopsteignton, and that, on the 8th of May in that year, he procured the Confirmation of the Royal Charters which had been granted to the See during the past two hundred and seventy-six years (See Appendix III). William of Worcester, he adds, styled our Bishop "Walter le Goode," and he merited the title by the excellence of his character and his many munificent deeds. The Registrar of Newenham extols his numerous acts of bounty to that Abbey—his donation of six hundred marks towards the building of the Conventual Church, and his gift of six Altars thereto, viz., St. Gabriel's, St. Thomas,' and St. Katherine's on the north side, and St. John's, St. Anne's, and St. Nicholas,' on the south. The Grey Friars of Bodmin venerated him as their special Benefactor. At Clyst he rebuilt the Manor-House, which became the favourite residence of his Successors, its gateway bearing the appropriate motto—"Janua patet: Cor magis;" and he amply endowed its Chapel of St. Gabriel. He did much to restore the Collegiate Church of Crediton to its antient splendour, and—moved thereto by a Dream, as the Epitaph on his Tomb tells us—he founded another College (which he dedicated to St. Thomas-the-Martyr) at Glasney, near Penryn. His Biographer repudiates, as well he might, "the senseless calumny broached by Hoker, Godwin, and Izacke, to depreciate his memory," in the matter of his acquisition of an Estate called Bromburhe, together with the Advowson of the Church of Clyst-Fomison; for it stands victoriously refuted in the Conveyance-Deed, fortunately preserved in his Register (see p. 50), which shews that he purchased the property of Richard Fomison, the Lord of the Manor, the consideration received being twenty pounds of silver and an Estate called "de la More."

Though the Bishop's activities, as we have seen, were unceasing, there is reason to believe that, physically, he was not a robust man. As early as 1264 we find him excusing his non-attendance at the Parliament held, that year, at St. Alban's,

1 It does not appear that he ever deputed to Suffragans any portion of his work, except once, for a few months, in 1275 (see p. 202). There are no Ordination Lists in his Register; but the dates of his Ordinations – not, I think of all—are recorded; and "Letters-Dimissory," which soon afterwards became so common, were almost unknown during his Episcopate.

on the ground of bodily weakness and ill-health—"adversa corporis valetudine, virium imbecillitate, ac aliis fortune injuriis multipliciter gravati . . . interesse non possumus; de quo dolemus" (see p. 219). And, again, in 1278, about two years before his death, he appointed Ralph de Hengham and John de Pontissara his Proctors in all Causes between the Earl of Cornwall and himself, on account of failing health—"corporis valetudine prepediti" (see p. 254). The last six years of his life, after his return from the Council of Lyons, were spent in his Diocese, save for occasional short visits to London, and to his Manor-Houses in Hants and Surrey. In 1280 we find him in London, for a few days in May—his last visit. He returned to Devonshire between the 27th of that month and the end of June, resting at Horseley and Faringdon on his way. On the 29th of June he was at Clyst, from whence, early in July, he proceeded to Chudleigh, and thence to his House at Radway, in the Parish of Bishopsteignton. The Labourer's task was done. On the 20th, feeling that the end was near, he made the provision for his burial, and for the celebration of his perpetual Obit, to which I have already referred; and on the 22nd—having instituted Walter de Guldeforde to the Rectory of Knowstone and withdrawn the Interdict which he had laid upon the new Abbey of Buckland, "pro eo quod iidem Monachi, in Diocesi nostra, absque auctoritate nostra seu Licencia, Divina celebrare presumpserunt,"—he fell on sleep. His latest act was an act of forgiveness and reconciliation.

He rests under the beautiful Tomb which serves as a Screen between the Lady-Chapel and his own Chapel of St. Gabriel, immediately opposite the Tomb of Bishop Edmund de Stafford, which, also, serves as a Screen under the corresponding arch on the north side. His effigy and the slab which supports it are of early date, and were probably erected immediately after his death. But the Altar-Tomb and the gorgeous canopy overshadowing it, closely resemble those of Bishop Stafford, and must have been erected early in the Fifteenth Century. His Epitaph is contemporaneous with the Altar-Tomb,—

"Olim sincerus Pater, omni dignus amore,
Primus Walterus magno jacet hic in honore.
Edidit hic plura dignissima laude Statuta,
Que, tanquam jura, servant hic omnia tuta.
Ad hoc, Collegium quod Glasneye plebs vocat omnis
Condidit egregium, pro voce data sibi somnis.
Quot Loca construxit Pietatis, quot bona fecit,

Quam sanctam duxit vitam, vox dicere que scit?
Laudibus immensis jubilet Gens Exoniensis,
Et chorus, et turbe, quia natus in hac fuit Urbe.
Plus si scire velis, Festum statuit Gabrielis,
Gaudeat in Celis, igitur, Pater iste fidelis."

The Righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

The Register of Bishop Quivil, his Successor, is a small Vellum Book, consisting of only twenty-four folios.[1] The writing is minute and close, almost throughout. Here and there the ink is much faded; and towards the end the MS. has been so seriously damaged by the unscrupulous and careless use of galls, that it is scarcely possible to read many of the Entries. Unfortunately, this Register is imperfect, both at the beginning and at the end. From November, 1280, to 18th July, 1281, there are but four Entries; and after 1284 it was very irregularly kept: there are only twenty-two Entries for 1285, sixteen for 1286, three for 1287, and two for 1288. There are no Entries at all for the remainder of Quivil's Episcopate; and it is difficult to avoid the conclusion that his Registrar gradually substituted Rolls, or separate scraps of vellum,[2] for the Book-form, and finally abandoned the latter altogether. Nevertheless, Quivil's Register—what there is of it—is of great interest and value, and, within the dates indicated above, it was carefully and regularly kept.

I have given a facsimile of fol. 112,[b] a fairly representative page, and specially interesting as containing two of Grandisson's Notes.—"Obediencia Decani Sarum." There is a similar Note of his in Bronescombe's Register (fol. 58). And, doubtless, when he made them, he was searching the Records of his Predecessors with a view to dealing with some forgetfulness, on the part of the then Dean, as to the "Obediencia" due to

[1] It was, evidently, intended to number them continuously from the earlier Register. But the figures are no longer Grandisson's, and the work was carelessly done. It runs through Bronescombe's Register, as a duplicate numeration, gaining two folios on the way; and towards the end it leaps from 102 to 109—an unaccountable blunder, for the Text at this point is continuous, shewing that the folios which seem to be missing never existed. Some stray Entries, entitled "Annus Primus Petri Episcopi," were written on fol. 102 of Bronescombe's Register (109[b] of the second numeration); also, on a small piece of vellum, stitched in, and numbered "109," and on both sides of fol 103 (Bronescombe), numbered 110. And Quivil's Register proper begins with fol. 111.

[2] Such as folios 131—133, which are smaller than the "Book," and of different sizes. In the case of two of them, pieces of some old MSS. were utilized—fragments, apparently, of some Office-Book or Theological Treatise (of no value and barely legible). I think Grandisson must have found them lying about and annexed them, as at the foot of each are catch-words, in his handwriting, indicating their order and connection.

himself as Bishop of Exeter; which in the earlier of these instances is thus explained,—"quam Obedienciam Decanus Sarrumensis, qui pro tempore fuerit, facere tenetur, pro Ecclesiis quas dicti Decanus et Capitulum Sarrumense habeant appropriatas in Diocesi Exoniensi."

PETER QUIVIL, our Thirteenth Bishop, like his two immediate Predecessors, was a native of Exeter, a son of Peter and Helewisa Quivil. He was instituted, before Bronescombe's time, to the remote Country Parish of St. Mullion—"Sancti Melani in Kerier,"—about seven miles south-east of Helston, in the Lizard District. The date of his Institution is unknown; but he resigned the Benefice in 1262, and John Quivel,[1] doubtless his kinsman, succeeded him. Immediately afterwards, in 1263, we find him Archdeacon of St. David's, and he retained the Preferment till his Election as Bishop. He was collated by Bishop Bronescombe to a Prebend in the Cathedral, 19 Dec., 1276, as successor to Henry de Montfort. His Register, as I have said, is defective at the beginning, and tells us nothing of his Election and Consecration; but the particulars may be gleaned from other sources. The late Bishop's death was announced to the King by John de Exonia, the Treasurer, and Henry de Bollecte, Archdeacon of Totnes, and License to Elect was granted,[2] 7 August, 1280. The Royal Assent was given, at Lincoln, 7 October, and signified to the Archbishop on the same day.[3] On the 11th the Temporalities were restored[4]; the Primate having informed the King, by Letters dated on the previous day, that he had confirmed the Election.[1] On the 26th the Primate wrote to him, as follows, as to his Consecration,—" Licet munus Consecracionis in instanti Dominica proxima ante Festum Sancti Martini, in Ecclesia Metropolitica Cantuariensi, vobis personaliter impendere voluimus ; tamen, in propria persona aliquantulum impediti, tibi indulgemus ut a quibuscumque Suffraganeis nostris hujusmodi munus recipere valeatis." (Register Peckham, fol. 25). And, accordingly, he was consecrated on the day mentioned (10 Nov.), by Richard Gravesend, Bishop of London.[2]

Dr. Oliver enumerates his principal acts, but with some inaccuracies. He appropriated the Rectories of Paignton and Chudleigh to the Precentors of his Cathedral, 8 July, 1282, (see p. 365); and, 20 April, 1283, he endowed its Chancellor with those of St. Newlyn and Stoke-Gabriel. He founded the office of Sub-Dean and Penitentiary, 7 July, 1284, and endowed it with the Rectory of Egloshayle (see p. 324). He encouraged Sir John Wyger to grant to the Chapter of Exeter the Manor of Thorverton; and, 3 March, 1282-3, he appropriated its Church thereto (see p. 377). He, also, confirmed to the Chapter, 3 Feb., 1283-4, the Donation, by Roger le Rus, of the Church of Widecombe and its Chapel of Spitchwick. And, 21 July, 1287, he appropriated to them the Rectory of St. Constantine and, a year later, the Churches of Broadhembury and Dunsford. In 1285-6 (3 March) he merged in the Parish of St. Paul, Exeter, the impoverished Parish of St. Cuthbert. In April, 1287, he convened a Synod of his Clergy, in the Cathedral City, the acts of which, in fifty-two Chapters, have been printed by Spelman and Wilkins,—

[2] Profession Roll of Canterbury—quoted, in his Episcopal Succession in England, by Bishop Stubbs, who calls him Peter "Wyville." This is an unusual form, and, probably, a misprint. Oliver states, in error, that he was consecrated by Peckham (Lives of the Bishops, p. 47).

In most instances they are simply declaratory of the common Ecclesiastical Law of England. The Synod decrees the Administration of Confirmation shortly after Baptism. It requires that the Marriage-Contract be celebrated publickly, and at the Church door. That every Church should keep a Record of its Endowment at the time of its Consecration, with the date of the Day and Year, and the name of the Consecrating Prelate. That no Parishioner, except the Patron or a Noble Person, should claim a fixed seat in the Church ; but that the first comers were to be at liberty to choose seats for themselves. That no brute animals, whether belonging to the Parson or to others, should be permitted to graze in the Churchyard. That no Priest should presume to celebrate Mass twice on the same day, except on Christmas Day or Easter Sunday, or on the occasion of an Interment in his own Church. And it distinctly lays down this general rule as to Building or Repairing of Churches and Chapels ; viz., that the Building and Repairing of the Chancel of of the Mother-Church appertains to its Rector, and of the Nave to the Parishioners; but as to dependent Parochial Chapels, forasmuch as they were originally licensed for the ease, convenience, and comfort of the distant Parishioners, the whole burden of their erection and maintenance was to rest with those in whose favour they were allowed ; who, nevertheless, were to continue chargeable with assisting towards the repairs, or even the rebuilding, of the Nave of the Mother-Church, according to such equitable proportion as the Archdeacon of the Place should determine."[1]

The Itinerary shews that Quivil spent much of his time in his Diocese, though he frequently paid short visits to London, and other distant places. We find him continually at his Palace, or at one or other of his numerous Manors in Devon and Cornwall. But his Register does not record any regular Visitation of the Diocese. In June, 1282, he was at Glasney, St. Probus, and St. German's, and in the following March at Tywardreath, Penryn, Lanner, Polton, and Lawhitton. In January, 1283-4, he left Exeter for Cornwall, visiting Torrington, Dittisham, St. Probus, Lanner, St. German's, Plympton, Ashburton, Cowick and Kenn, and, of course, many intermediate places. But, with the exception of a few days spent at Lawhitton in May, 1284, there is no further trace of work done in the Far-Western Land during the period covered by his Register. If he dedicated any Churches in either County, there is no record of his having done so. His special interest and work were centred in his Cathedral; but this we learn from the Fabric Rolls, and not from his Register. He died on the 1st[2] of October, 1291, and was buried in the

1 See Additional MSS., No. 24,057 (British Museum).—The Acta occupy 17 folios, and conclude thus,—"Datum Exonie, xvj Kalendas Maii [16 April], feria quarta post Dominicam qua cantatur Quasimodo geniti, Anno Domini Millesimo CC^mo octogesimo septimo, et Consecracionis nostre septimo.—Finita Synodo, gaudente Presule Petro." There follows a sort of Supplement to the Decrees, written by the same hand—on the Ten Commandments, the Seven Deadly Sins, the Sacrament of Penance, etc. ; concluding with the words,– "Orate pro Episcopo Petro, vivo et mortuo ; et quicumque hoc fecerit gaudebit Indulgencia quadraginta dierum. Amen." [F.J.B.]

2 It is stated in Le Neve that "he died, 6 Oct., 1291, at Exeter" ; and in a footnote, that "his death is, also, placed 4 Oct." And Oliver, adopting the later date,

Lady-Chapel of the Cathedral, before its Altar. A Deed of the Chapter, says Oliver, dated 25 Jan., 1299, expressly states that this was the case,—"cujus corpus ante Altare Beate Marie humatum quiescit." The marble slab which covered his grave was removed some two Centuries ago, and laid across the Great West Doorway of the Nave; and the Cross and the Inscription incised upon it had been "by constant friction of feet, nearly obliterated, when the late Mr. John Jones, of Franklyn, induced the Chapter, in Nov., 1820, to restore it to its original place, and the Cross and Letters were re-cut under his superintendence." It is a conspicuous object, now—conspicuous for its simplicity—in the midst of the very beautiful floor of marble and tiles with which the Lady Chapel was paved in the course of the recent Restoration,—a poor monument, indeed, in comparison with the stately Memorials of other Bishops which surround it. It bears no name but the Christian Name, no date; only around the margin this quaintly expressed prayer for the great Bishop's repose—"Petra tegit Petrum: nichil officiat sibi tetrum." Perhaps it was felt that the, even then, glorious Church was, itself, his best and fittest Memorial; for the "Si Monumentum requiris, circumspice," which marks the resting-place of another famous Architect, may fairly be applied to the distinguished Prelate to whose genius and zeal we owe, not only the priceless inheritance of his own actual work, but the inspiration which guided his Successors, one after the other, till Grandisson, loyal to Quivil to the last, completed our Cathedral, as we see it to-day—inferior in height and in size to others, no doubt, but second to none in respect of the surpassing beauty of its details and its singular unity of design and purpose. We owe to Bishop Quivil, as Archdeacon Freeman has shewn, the internal trans-says that it "appears certain." But no authority for these dates is given by either. Among the Exchequer Records, however, are various accounts touching the Temporalities of the different Sees, during vacancies and on other occasions; but only two have been preserved, relating to this Diocese, of earlier date than 30 Henr. VIII. The first belongs to 20 Edw. I. (A.D.1290-1), a Roll of two membranes united at the head, and having Entries on both sides. The heading is, unfortunately, imperfect, but it is easy to supply the missing words,—"Compotus Malculini de Harleghe de Exitibus Episcopatus Exoniensis a primo die Octobris, Anno [xix° Regni Regis Edwardi, quo die bone memorie Dominus Petrus, Episcopus Loci] predicti, obiit, usque secundum diem Decembris, Anno xx°, quo die Rex Temporalia Episcopatus [predicti Domino Thome, Electo et Confirmato Exoniensi, libera]bat." This is both interesting and important; for it proves that Quivil died, neither on the 4th nor on the 6th, but on the 1st of October. The Eschaetor, who had to give an account of the Issues of the vacant See, would, certainly, be an accurate and reliable authority as to the day of the Bishop's death; and it may be added that his date as to the Restitution of the Temporalities coincides exactly with that on the Patent Roll. [F.J.B.]

formation of the great Norman Towers, and of the Lady-Chapel with its immediate surroundings; the Chapels, too, of St. John-Baptist and St. Paul, the Retro-choir, the commencement of the re-construction of the Choir itself, and, probably, of the Eastern Bay of the Nave, as well as "the pattern" for the whole Work; which "won for him the title which the 'Exeter Chronicle' (15th Century) has given him—Fundator Novi Operis."

Of the Acts of Quivil's Successor, THOMAS DE BYTTON, we know but little; for his Register has not come down to us. Oliver states that it has long since perished. And there is evidence to show that nothing of the sort was forthcoming even in 1416, when Bishop Stafford was commanded by the King to search the Registers of the See from A.D. 1199, and certify him as to all Presentations to the Rectory of Stokenham in the interval. Neither Bronescombe nor Quivil (it would seem) instituted anyone to this Parish; and, as Stafford's Return begins with Thomas Nyusom,[1] who was instituted by Stapeldon in 1315, on the resignation of Nicholas Lovetot, who appears to have been instituted by Bytton subsequently[2] to 1302, the Bishop's failure to give the date of his Presentation was, doubtless, due to the fact that this Register could not be found. Possibly it shared the fate of Bronescombe's, when Stapeldon's House was sacked, and was not, also, recovered by Bishop Grandisson.[3] See page vii, note 3.

1 I take this opportunity of mentioning that the name is, undoubtedly, Nyusom. It looks like Nynsom in Stafford's Register, and so I printed it; but I have since found the name in Stapeldon's Register written, plainly, "Neusome."

2 Rot. Pat., 30 Edw. I., m. 10 (see Appendix IV, under BYTTON, 3).

3 The gap in the History of the Administration of the Diocese caused by this default is much to be deplored. But it occurred to me, while working on Stapeldon's Register, that it is not wholly irremediable. For I found therein, in the large number of Licences, Dispensations, etc., granted by that Prelate, not, of course, the dates of Admission but the names of a large number of Incumbents who must have been instituted either in Quivil's last years, or by Bytton; and I found, also, in the Archives of the Cathedral several important Documents belonging to this period. Similar discoveries have been made in the contemporaneous Registers of the Diocese of Winchester and in the Publick Record Office by my learned Friend, Mr. Baigent. And from these authentick and valuable materials I have been able to construct a very respectable "Attempt towards a Register" for Bytton's time, which will, at least, do something to bridge the gap over, and be of much service, I hope, to the Student. I cannot refrain from suggesting a doubt whether any regular Register of the Acts of this Prelate ever existed. He probably, inherited from Quivil that Bishop's later Registrar, and, with him, his irregular habits and obvious carelessness in the performance of this portion of his duties. I have shewn that Quivil's Register was carefully kept for a time; that the Entries, then, became gradually less and less regular and consecutive, and at last quite fragmentary; and that we are indebted to the methodical and business-like Grandisson for the preservation and arrangement of the fragments. It is difficult to avoid coming to the conclusion that the Registrar

THOMAS DE BYTTON, Fourteenth Bishop of Exeter, was born in Gloucestershire. He was the second son of Sir Adam de Bytton, Knt. His parents were buried in the Parish-Church of Bytton, near Bristol, and he built a Chapel there, dedicated to St. Catherine, and founded a Perpetual Chantry therein, Licence having been granted to him by Godfrey Giffard, Bishop of Worcester, 13 May, 1299. At the time of his Election he was Dean of Wells, and Canon of St. Probus (see p. 469); but I find no record of his having been collated to a Prebend in our Cathedral, though his Predecessor may have promoted him in one of the years for which his Register fails us. Quivil's death was announced to the King by two of the Canons, viz., Peter de Insula, Archdeacon of Exeter, and Gilbert de Wulavingtone; and he granted Licence to elect, at Bristol, 8 Oct., 1291.[1] The Royal Assent to his Election was given, at Westminster, 30 Nov., and was signified to the Primate on the same day.[2] The Temporalities were restored[3] 2 Dec.; and Bytton was consecrated, 1 April, 1292.[4]

Dr. Oliver tells us that, in his First Year, he appropriated the Rectory of West Down to the Hospital of St. John at Wells, and that he obtained a Market for Paignton and, also, for Newport, by Barnstaple, in 1294. He appropriated the Church of St. Eval to the Dean and Chapter, 15th Oct., 1297, for the perpetual maintenance of his obit; the Rectory of Burrington to Tavistock Abbey, 26 Aug., 1304; and that of Walkhampton to Buckland Abbey, 31 Dec., 1305. He died 21 Sept., 1307,[5] and was buried in his Cathedral Church, near the High Altar. In Leland's time the Inscription on simply filed the separate records of his Bishop's Acts, and that the system was, unfortunately, continued throughout Bytton's time; after which the methods employed in the Principal Registry were reformed by Stapeldon, whose really splendid Register is a model of the way in which such important Records should always be kept. The Extracts from the Patent and other Rolls will be found in Appendix IV.

Ellacombe; published by the Camden Society, 1874). This most interesting Document throws light on the life and acts of the Bishop, and should be consulted by the Student. Among the very numerous legacies were no less than 39, in sums varying from 30s. to 6d., to Places where Lepers were lodged in Devon and Cornwall. His Executors were Walter de Stapeldon, Thomas de Chutton, John de Bytton, Thomas de Horton, Richard de Hacock, and Geoffrey de Lucy.

his Tomb still survived—Tho·Bytten·Epus·Exon; and Godwin mentions having seen the elaborate Brass of which it was long since despoiled. When the pavement of the Choir was relaid, about a Century ago, his body was discovered, enclosed in a coffin of lead. His Ring, of gold with a large sapphire, and a curious Paten and Chalice, were found therein; and these interesting reliques are preserved in our Chapter House.[1] But Bytton, like his illustrious Predecessor, can have no worthier Monument than the Cathedral itself—the beautiful vaulted roof of the Choir, which he reared, and under which he was buried in Peace and rests in Hope. Quivil designed the "New Work," and made a good beginning. Bytton took it up immediately, and, as Archdeacon Freeman shews, transformed, or rebuilt, the Choir, leaving little for his Successor to do, to complete the work, as we see it to-day, from the Tower-transepts to the Lady-Chapel.

In Appendix I. will be found some interesting Notes on the cruel murder of Precentor Walter de Lecchelade, in Quivil's time, and of the prolonged disputes occasioned by the Election, as Dean of Exeter, of John Pycot, of Wonford, who was accused of being privy to the murder, and not accused only, but cast into prison and convicted. It is not necessary to enter, here, into the particulars of these events, for they are fully set forth in the said Notes, which comprise many contemporaneous Documents[2] never before published, and go far to remove the cloud of mystery in which both events have so long been shrouded.

1 There is an excellent representation of these treasures in the Transactions of our Diocesan Architectural Society, Part III, vol. II (second series).

2 One of these is of remarkable interest,—a Letter addressed by Quivil himself to John de Burthone (Precentor of Salisbury and Guardian of the Spiritualities during the vacancy of that See), in which he gives a full account of the tragedy. "With no little bitterness of heart," he writes, "and with a sorrowful spirit, we apprise you that, on a certain night, not long ago, after the celebration of Matins in our Cathedral-Church, when that discreet man, Master Walter de Lecchelade, the Precentor, was making his way to his own House, with few attendants, relying on the protection of God and of the Church, and wearing his Canonical habit, certain sons of perdition, full of devilish ferocity, whose punishment for such iniquity would scarcely be according to their deserts if fire were to descend from Heaven and consume them, or the Earth and other Elements were to arise against them and swallow them up—choosing for their purpose (as the manner of evil-doers is), the hours of darkness rather than the light, lest their fell deed should be patent to the world—assaulted their victim, furiously, with swords, clubs, axes and all sorts of weapons. They cared nothing for the sanctity of the Place which he had just quitted, for his own person, or for the priestly dignity for which he was conspicuous—though that alone might well have availed to restrain so great madness and fury, but hurried him out of the world with brutal ferocity, and never ceased dragging him to and fro in the mud till day dawned, and the horrible outrage was witnessed by many." He describes the steps which he had taken to punish the murderers, "assembling the Clergy and people of the City within the Cathedral, and publickly pronouncing an Anathema against such satellites of Satan, driving them from the company of the Faithful, together with all their accomplices and abettors, and all who were privy to the crime, or harboured any of them, committing them to the flames of Gehenna, to be tormented therein for ever and ever, unless they should repent of their deeds." The Bishop says that he wore his Pontifical Vestments, and that all was done with fitting solemnity. Moreover he had ordered the like to be done in every Church in the City

In Appendix II. I have printed, in full, a most valuable contemporaneous Copy of that portion of the General Taxation of Pope Nicholas IV. which relates to this Diocese. It is bound up with the two Registers. This Taxation was printed, many years ago, by the Record Commissioners, from a fifteenth Century Copy, of inferior merit, preserved in the Publick Record Office ; and the Exeter portion was reprinted by Dr. Oliver at the end of his Monasticon. He collated the old Edition with our Exeter MS., but failed to correct many of the mistakes. Both Books are, now, rare and difficult of access. The present publication will therefore, be hailed by all who know the great value of this Document to the Student of the early History of the Church in the Diocese of Exeter.

At the end of Bronescombe's Register are copies of the early Charters granted to our Cathedral. They will be found in Appendix III.

Appendix IV. consists of a miscellaneous Collection of Extracts from contemporaneous MSS., illustrative of the contents of these Registers, which came to my hand after the bulk of my Book was printed ; together with a series of Extracts from the Patent and other Rolls, which carry back the Parochial History of our Diocese, in many instances, to a date some sixty years earlier than the commencement of Episcopal Registers.

The Plan of these Indexes I have already fully described in my Preface to Bishop Stafford's Register (p. xiv), and it is not necessary to repeat the explanation here. There remains only the pleasing duty of tendering again my sincere thanks to the many kind Friends who have helped me, and some of them not only by Subscriptions towards the cost of my Books, but by their readiness to work with me, and for me, whenever I have had occasion to consult them on points of difficulty. Especially are thanks due to Mr. B. W. Greenfield,[1] of Southampton, and the Rev. J. Ingle Dredge, Vicar of Buckland-Brewer, who have not shrunk from the labour of revising all the sheets as they passed through the Press ; to Mr. Burch, the courteous Registrar of both the Dioceses comprehended in the antient Diocese of Exeter, and to my Friends in his Office, to whom I am indebted for ready and cheerful attention to my, I fear, often troublesome requirements, and for every facility in the prosecution of my labours that it was in their power to accord to me ; to Sir John Maclean, Knt., the Rev. C. W. Boase, Fellow of Exeter College, Oxford ; the late Mr. E. A. Bond (formerly keeper of the MSS.), and Mr. Edward Scott (the present keeper of the MSS.), of and Diocese, on every Sunday and Festival, with lighted candles and clanging bells, by the Chaplain of each Place, during Mass, when most people come together. But Quivil had been told that some of the criminals belonged to other Dioceses, and he was anxious that the like means should be taken in the Diocese of Salisbury and elsewhere, as the crime might be repeated if it were supposed that so great sacrilege could be committed with impunity, and great injury and wrong would be done to the Clergy and to the Universal Church. He reminded Burthone that like outrages might be committed in the Diocese committed to his care, and entreated him to denounce the murderers in the Cathedral-Church of Salisbury, and in every Conventual and Parish-Church. The Original Letter is printed, at length, on p. 445.

[1] It will be observed that an immense number of footnotes has been rendered necessary by the fact that, in these early Registers, all the Entries, with a solitary exception (see p. 301, note 11), are dated either by "Nones" and "Ides" and "Kalends," or by the Festivals, etc., on, or before, or after which the event recorded took place. My predecessors in work of this sort have, for the most part been content with convenient generalities (e.g, "in the summer" of such a year, or in such a month), avoiding the labour, and the risk of error, which, of course, attend working out, in such a multitude of instances, the precise days. By giving, in footnotes, the exact words of the MS., I have both saved the Student much trouble and enable him to test the accuracy of my figures throughout. But I have to thank Mr. Greenfield for voluntarily undertaking the really great labour of working them all out, after me ; and, barring one or two slips, which, however, are corrected in the List of Errata, the whole series may be relied on as accurate. It is no small comfort to know that our modern method of dating, by the day of the month simply, was, almost as a rule adopted by the Registrars of Bp. Stapeldon and his Successors.

the British Museum; the Rev. W. D. Macray, of the Bodleian; Mr. Winslow Jones, the Rev. W. K. Hampshire, Mr. Brooking-Rowe, the late Mr. Robert Dymond, of Exeter (a shrewd and sound Antiquarian, whose loss will be long felt in this Western Land, the History of which he did so much to illustrate), and Mr. Edmund Bishop, of St. Gregory's Monastery, Downside, to whom I am, especially, indebted for the very useful notes to pp. 261 and 265 which appear on p. 304. To my learned Friend, Mr. Francis Joseph Baigent, of Winchester, I find it difficult to express the thanks which are his due in terms commensurate with the value of his voluntary work. He has thought nothing of going up to London, on my behalf, for days, and even weeks, together, and working for me, all day long, in the Publick Record Office and the British Museum, and at Lambeth; enriching my book with illustrations and facts of the greatest importance, and sharing my labour rather as a colleague than as a contributor. It is scarcely too much to say that, apart from Mr. Baigent's diligent and disinterested work, the important Notes on the Pycot and Lecchelade cases, which have grown with his help into almost the dignity of an "Excursus," would never have been written.

The Register of Bishop Walter Bronescombe is the earliest of the long Series which (with few gaps, happily), extends from his Consecration in 1257-8 to our own time.

We are told by Dr. Oliver (who, however, gives no authority for the statement), that to this Prelate belongs the merit of commencing a regular Register of the Acts of the Bishops, and, at any rate, it seems to be certain that no earlier Register of his Predecessors, if any ever existed, is extant now. It is probable that their Acts were not recorded in a Book, but on separate sheets of vellum or paper, most of which have, long ago, been dispersed or lost; the few which survived being bound up, with a view to their preservation, in the First Volume of the Series. These stray documents were stitched in, here and there (a few being copied on blank spaces in the Register itself), with no attempt at arrangement, and without the slightest reference to the contents of the folios to which they were attached; there are, also, some which belong to a period subsequent to Bishop Bronescombe's death. All are of considerable interest, and will be found arranged in chronological order,—the latter in an Appendix; the former in their proper place in order of time. A few of these documents belong to the Episcopates of Bronescombe and Quivil, and are, of course, dealt with in the General Index.

The South Transept of their Parish Church [Kingston] is still annexed to the Estate, and is commonly called "the Wonewell Chapel ;" it is by far the oldest part of the fabrick : its oak roof and a curious two-light window in the East wall are both of 13th century work.

Anno loco eisdem, die Sabbati proxima post Festum Sancti Luce, Evangeliste [21 Oct., 1273], recepit Magister W. de Capella Literam obligatoriam Domini Wyntoniensis Episcopi de centum libris, in quibus idem Wyntoniensis tenetur Domino Exoniensi. Item, aliam Literam civibus et mercatoribus Florentinis, Parisius commorantibus, de xl s. mutuandis ad opus suum.

Anno loco eisdem, Baione, in crastino Sancti Martini hyemalis [12 Nov., 1273], exivit Litera sub hac forma:—Walterus, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, dilectis amicis suis, sociis Bonivicini Nicholai et Jacobi Bonacursi, civium et mercatorum Florentinorum, Parisius commorantibus, salutem cum dileccione sincera. Ad petendum et recipiendum, nomine nostro, centum et quindecim marcas bonorum novorum et legalium sterlingorum, in quibus nobis tenemini, Petrum de Montagu procuratorem nostrum facimus, ordinamus, et constituimus. In cujus rei testimonium has Literas nostras vobis transmittimus.—Datum Baione, iiij Idus Novembris [10 Nov.], Anno Gracie M° CC° septuagesimo tercio; 53b.—On the same day a similar letter was issued, appointing Robert de la Hallelonde, clerk, the Bishop's proctor in the same business.

Anno, loco eisdem, Baione, in crastino Sancti Nicholai hyemalis [7 Dec., 1273], exivit talis Litera:—Sanctissimo Patri ac Domino nostro, Gregorio, Divina Providencia Sacrosancte Romane et Universalis Ecclesie Summo Pontifici, Walterus, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, salutem, cum humili sui recommendacione, devota pedum oscula beatorum. Venientes ad presenciam meam Walterus et Alanus de Lostwithiel,[1] clerici Exoniensis Diocesis, Literas vestras super defectu Natalium et suscepcione Subdiaconatus et Dyaconatus Ordinum ab Ytalico Episcopo, absque Literis meis commissoriis, et contra Constitucionem felicis recordacionis Clementis, predecessoris vestri, deferentes; in quibus mihi dedistis in mandatis ut cum ipsis clericis super predictis defectu Natalium et Ordinum recepcione, modo et condicionibus appositis, que in predicta vestra Litera plenius continentur, auctoritate vestra misericorditer dispensarem. Ego vero, Mandatum vestrum diligenter exequi volens, ipsos inveni ex Diacono et diversis mulieribus solutis procreatos, et insufficienter litteratos, . . . . . [2] ac eo quod Ordines suos rite eis esse collatos probare non valentes: movet insuper conscienciam meam et momordet, quod vix aliqui hiis diebus Ordines recipiunt ut Deo devote ministrent in eisdem, set pocius ut infelicem suam vitam male vivendo seculariter protrahant, unde ex hiis scandalum nascitur apud populum: item ad supplementum illorum religionis ingressum abhorrent, ac alias eciam condiciones in . . . . [5]exemplo, que conscienciam meam remordebant. Unde ad dispensandum cum predictis in seculo remanentibus conscienciam meam mihi contradicentem onerare formidans, ne ipsa consciencia me in posterum accusaret et veritas racionis non excusaret, ipsos clericos ad Sedem Apostolicam duxi remittendos, ut ubi habundat gracia et plenitudo potestatis eorum suppleatur defectus; 53b.

Cum controversia verteretur inter Dominum Exoniensem et Capitulum suum, ex una parte, et Dominum Cicestrensem et Capitulum suum, ex altera, super subjeccione Ecclesie seu Capellarie de Boseham, quam Ecclesia Cicestrensis sibi lege Diocesana subjectam, sicut et alias Ecclesias Diocesis sue, asserebat; tandem, mediante E[ustachio], Elyensi Episcopo, eadem controversia in hunc modum amicabiliter est sopita. Ecclesia sive Capellaria de Bosham, cum omni populo suo et ministris suis, et possessionibus et pertinenciis suis in Cicestrensi Diocesi constitutis, plene subjecta erit Ecclesie Cicestrensi, lege Diocesana, exceptis solis Canonicis ejusdem Ecclesie, de quibus ita provisum est et ordinatum: Dominus Exoniensis libere Prebendas conferet et Canonicos installabit, non requisito consensu vel autoritate Ecclesie vel Episcopi Cicestrensis. Item Canonici, ex eo quod Canonici caucionem Obediencie non exponent Ecclesie aut Episcopo Cicestrensi, venient tamen ad Sinodum Episcopi Cicestrensis: si quid corrigendum fuerit circa personam alicujus Canonicorum, ad admonicionem Cicestrensis Ecclesie Dominus Exoniensis faciet illud corrigi et emendari. Si vero accio civilis et minime personalis inter eosdem Canonicos invicem mota fuerit, jurisdiccio erit Domini Exoniensis, ita ut si causam illam infra competentem terminum judicialiter sive amicabiliter terminare pretermiserit, Exoniensis jurisdiccio ad Cicestriam pertinebit. Si, vero, Canonicus agat criminaliter adversus Canonicum sine accione in rem, aut quecumque alia persona sive civiliter, sive criminaliter agat adversus Canonicum, jurisdiccio ad Cicestriam spectabit. Si, vero, aliquis Canonicorum ministraverit populo, curam habens animarum, quamdiu sic ministraverit erit obediens Ecclesie Cicestrensi, sicut et alii ministrantes et curam animarum habentes. Pro delicto tercio Canonici suspendi poterit Ecclesia de Boseham autoritate [Episcopi][1] Cicestrensis Ecclesie; set non pro delicto Canonici numerus Canonicorum in senario stabit. Canonicus habens Prebendam suam ex ovencionibus parochie de Boseham semel in anno Archidiaconum Cicestrensem, si eidem Archidiacono placuerit, procurabit. Ad majorem hujus Composicionis firmitatem, Episcopus Cicestrensis et Capitulum suum sigilla sua apposuerunt, una cum sigillo E[ustachio], Elyensis Episcopi,[2] quo mediante pax formata est; 19b.

The Bishop wrote again, "vj. Kalendas Junii (27 May)," in the same year, reciting his former Letter, and extending this permission "ad Quindenam Sancti Michaelis ; 96b.[2] At last, on the 22nd of July, 1280, the Bishop withdrew the Interdict—"Et concedimus quod Abbas et Monachi, Cysterciensis Ordinis, ibidem commorantes Divina ibidem licite celebrare, et que Ordinis Cysterciensis sunt, secundum Regulam Sancti Benedicti, libere exercere valeant imperpetuum ; jure, honore, et dignitate Episcopali et Ecclesie Exoniensis in omnibus semper salvis ; 97.—This was Bishop Bronescombe's last official act. He had previously, on the same day, instituted Walter de Guldeforde to the Rectory of Knowstone ; and then, having bravely worn his harness to the very last, he put it off at his Master's call. William of Worcester tells us that men called him "Walter the Good ;" and, although this Register of his Acts gives us but a bare outline of his work and life, no one can study its contents and mark the stedfast devotion to the duties of his Holy Office, of which it affords ample evidence, without feeling that he had fully earned and richly deserved the honourable title. Fervent in spirit always, he died, as he had lived, still serving the Lord. Will any man refuse to join in the solemn prayer of the epitaph inscribed on his beautiful tomb, in the Chapel which he had prepared, in his lifetime, for his last resting-place,—"Gaudeat in Celis igitur Pater iste fidelis !"

Canonsleigh Priory—"aliter nunc" (Grandisson),—

Hec est amicabilis Composicio facta inter Priorem et Canonicos de Plymtone, ex parte una, et Priorem et Canonicos de Leghe, ex altera parte, super controversiis inter ipsos motis coram Venerabili Patre [S]imone, Dei gracia Exoniensi Episcopo, scilicet cum Prior in Ecclesia de Leghe fuerit eligendus hoc Episcopo Exoniensi debet prenunciari, ut in propria persona per se, vel per aliquem alium quem voluerit loco sui destinare, intersit Eleccioni. Similiter Priori de Plymptone debet nunciari, ut ipse intersit Eleccioni, si voluerit, ita tamen quod non habebit vocem in Eleccione; nec per Episcopum, nec per Priorem impediatur quominus ille Prior constituatur quem eligerint Canonici de Leghe de corpore Ecclesie sue de Leghe. Si, autem, non consenserint in aliquem de gremio Ecclesie sue de Leghe, tunc, priusquam ad aliquam aliam decurratur Ecclesiam, de Ecclesia de Plimptone aliquem sibi eligent in Priorem. Si autem non consenserint—quod absit,—in aliquam personam predictarum Ecclesiarum, de aliqua Conventuali Ecclesia ejusdem Ordinis et Regulari aliquam idoneam personam in Priorem sibi assument. Ex quo, autem, fuerit ibi Prior secundum supradictum modum electus, et per Exoniensem Episcopum confirmatus, habeat plenam potestatem Canonicorum recipiendorum et regendorum, et plenam administracionem omnium ad Ecclesiam de Leghe pertinencium. Preterea Prior de Leghe corriget excessus Canonicorum de Leghe, et alia emendabit que fuerint ibidem emendanda, cum consensu Canonicorum suorum. Si autem tantus et talis fuerit excessus—quod absit,—ut per Priorem et Canonicos de Leghe sine scandalo non valeat emendari, tunc Prior et Canonici de Leghe significabunt Priori de Plimrtone ut caritative ad Domum eorum veniat, consilium eis in corrigendis excessibus impensurus. Et per hanc Composicionem sopita sunt omnia litigia inter eos prius exorta, et omnes exacciones et contenciones hujusmodi sunt remisse. Si non per consilium predictorum excessus in dicta Domo poterint emendari, Exoniensis Episcopus qui pro tempore fuerit eos secundum Deum emendabit.—Acta sunt hec Exonie, iiij[ta] feria post Festum Sancte Trinitatis [5 June], Anno Incarnacionis Domini M° CC° nonodecimo; presente Domino Exoniensi Episcopo, Henrico [de Molesiis], Archidiacono Exonie, S[erlone], Archidiacono Tottonie, Radulpho Archidiacono Barnastapulie, Magistris Ysaac et J., Canonicis Exoniensibus; et multis aliis; 16.

[2] These words are obscure.—I am indebted to the Rev. W. D. Macray, of the Bodleian, for the suggestion that the word "casetallagium," probably, means what the two words of which it is compounded seem to indicate, viz., rent of a house, or of land, paid to the Chief Lord, and that the sentence may be rendered "the whole tithe of the old rented tenements—holdings—which are under crop, 'vasta' (i.e. vesture) being the crop grown on land."

Convocation,—

Anno eodem, ex condicto majoris partis Prelatorum Cantuariensis Provincie, Londonie congregatorum, ad communem defensionem Ecclesie et Regni Anglie, ad singulas Dyoceses quedam Litere emanarunt. Et Dominus Exoniensis scripsit sub hac forma : Walterus, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, dilecto filio Magistro R. Everarde, Officiali nostro, salutem, graciam, et benediccionem. Cum multa fieri prohibeantur que alias utilitatis causa et necessitatis urgentis articulo permittantur, non debet vester animus commoveri si aliqua forsan statuantur que aliquorum judicio duriciam sapiant vel gravamen. Hinc est quod, cum Regnum et Sacerdocium jam diversimode diversis rerum eventibus lesum extiterit et turbatum, ac gravioris lesionis et vehemencioris turbacionis timor et rumor, videlicet de hostili alienigenarum adventu in Regni subversionem et confusionem publicam indigenarum corda tam invaserit, ut audistis, ponderatis periculis que Regnum et incolas universos, nisi a Domino defensore propicio tueatur, circumveniunt et attentis, prejudiciale vel molestum reputari non debet si aliqua ad relevacionem status Ecclesie Anglicane, que in se et suis libertatibus multipliciter et plus solito est depressa, et ad defensionem Patrie, ad quod unumquemque naturale fedus obligat et invitat, a viris Ecclesiasticis de bonis spiritualibus conferantur. Cum igitur, sicuti supradiximus, ut Ecclesia relevetur, et ut contra alienigenarum hostiles incursus qui, cujuscumque condicione rejecta, loco non parcerent nec persone, cum fortitudinis gravitate resisti valeat et virtute, et de consilio Episcoporum Regnique Prelatorum et Cleri, nuper apud Londoniam congregatorum, ordinatum extitit et provisum ut omnes viri Ecclesiastici, Religiosi, et alii de bonis suis Ecclesiasticis decimam partem, secundum taxacionem communem, contribuere debeant, excusacione in contrarium omnino rejecta, devocionem eorum in utilitatem communem et profectum proprium Presentibus excitantes propensius consulendo mandamus quatinus omnium proventuum Ecclesiasticorum decimam partem aliquibus certis personis, per nos auctoritate nostra ad predicta exequenda maturius deputandis, omni rejecto subterfugii obstaculo, assignetis. Insuper, quoniam tempus pro homine interpellat, et de hostium adventu in proximo comminatur, oportetque sibi cum maturitate debita resistatur, expedit, sicuti provisum est, quod predicte decime medietas citra Festum Decollacionis Sancti Johannis Baptiste [29 Aug.] persolvatur. Datum apud Tanrigge, in crastino Sancti Laurencii [11 Aug.] Anno Domini M°CC°lx° quarto, et Consecracionis nostre septimo ; 31b.

Quocirca vobis mandamus in virtute obediencie, firmiter injungentes quatinus, receptis Presentibus, associatis vobis aliquibus personis Ecclesiasticis, prefatum Senescallum moneatis et efficaciter inducatis ut prefatos Clericos taliter incarceratos infra triduum post monicionem vestram liberet, et liberatos in pace dimittat. Alioquin citetis eum peremptorie quod, proximo die juridico post Festum Sancti Michaelis, in Majori Ecclesia Exoniensi, compareat coram nobis vel vices nostras gerente, super dictorum Clericorum capcione et detencione responsurus, facturus et recepturus quod justicia suadebit. Idem quoque Senescallus, sicut ex frequenti clamore subditorum nostrorum auribus nostris insonuit, jura et libertates Ecclesiasticas ausu temerario, in status Ecclesie et Cleri subversionem, impugnare, mutilare, diminuere, infringere, et evertere non formidat, Clericos videlicet et Ecclesiasticas personas, contra sacrorum Canonum statuta, in personalibus accionibus in foro seculari coram se in judicium trahit invitos, mulctas et penas pecuniarias in immensum per exquisitas districciones et excogitatas malicias ab eisdem extorquet ; de testamentis et de bonis defunctorum, matrimoniis, decimis, et jure decimarum, Sacramentorum et Sacramentalium percepcione de facto ordinat, et de eisdem et aliis que ad forum Ecclesiasticum non est dubium pertinere pro sue libito voluntatis disponit, Clericos eciam alios et Ecclesiasticas personas injuriose capit, incarcerat, et a quibusdam eorum gravem extorquet redempcionem. Sacrilegia quoque et alia enormia que conniventibus oculis incorrecta pertransire nolumus, sicuti nec debemus, committit contra Deum et Canonicas sancciones. Quare vobis mandamus in virtute obediencie predicte, firmiter injungentes quatinus memoratum Senescallum citatis peremptorie quod dictis die et loco, coram nobis vel vices nostras gerente compareat, super hiis et aliis sibi obiciendis responsurus, facturus, et recepturus quod juris fuerit et racionis. Quodsi non omnes hiis exequendis interesse poteritis, duo vestrum, vel unus ea nichilominus exequatur. ## — Composicio facta inter Walterum, Episcopum Exoniensem, et Eadmundum, Comitem Cornubie :—

Noverint universi presentes Literas visuri vel audituri quod, cum inter Venerabilem Patrem Dominum Walterum, Exoniensem Episcopum, ex parte una, et nobilem virum Dominum Edmundum, Comitem Cornubie, ex altera, super quibusdam contencionibus et transgressionibus, dicto Episcopo et Ecclesie Exoniensi illatis, suborta fuisset materia questionis, ac dicte Partes in alto et basso arbitrio, ordinacioni, decreto, seu laudo super dictis contencionibus et transgressionibus Venerabilis Patris Domini Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi se submisissent, tandem placuit Partibus memoratis, et inter easdem convenit, amicis communibus intervenientibus, post tractatus varios dictam contencionem per viam composicionis pro bono pacis amicabiliter sopiri in forma subscripta; videlicet, quod dictus Comes vult et concedit quod Ecclesia et ministri Ecclesie pacem habeant in Cornubia et aliis terris et dominiis ipsius Comitis Exoniensis Civitatis et Diocesis, sicut habuerunt tempore Domini Regis Allemannie, patris sui, et suo, usque ad tempus contencionis inter dictum Dominum Episcopum et ipsum mote. Vult eciam et concedit dictus Comes quod pro Maneriis de Poltone et de Penren fiat secta ad duos comitatus et duos turnos Vicecomitis in anno, per quatuor liberos et legales homines tantum de utroque Manerio, sicut fieri consuevit tempore Regis Allemannie predicti et dicti Comitis usque ad tempus dicte contencionis mote; et quod pro Maneriis de Treigaer (sic) et Lawyttone fiat secta per unum liberum et legalem hominem tantum de utroque Manerio, ad duos comitatus et duos turnos Vicecomitis in anno, sicut fieri consuevit tempore dicti Regis Allemannie et ipsius Comitis, usque ad tempus dicte contencionis mote. Item, vult et concedit dictus Comes quod dictus Dominus Episcopus habeat forisfacturam assise panis et cervisie in Maneriis suis de Poltone, Penren, Tregaer, Lawittone et Sancti Germani, sicut habere consuevit tempore dicti Regis Allemannie et ipsius Comitis usque ad tempus dicte contencionis mote. Et quod pillorium et tumberellum liberi burgi de Penren prostratum erigatur, et libertas dicti burgi integre restituatur. Item quod parcus de Gargaul reficiatur infra certum competens tempus. Et quod libertates Manerii de Gargaul plene observentur, sicut in Carta Regis Allemannie snpradicti, super hoc confecta, plenius continetur. Et quod eciam omnes alie libertates in predictis Maneriis Episcopi et aliis lese vel violate restituantur, et in eum statum reducantur sicut fuerunt tempore Regis Allemannie et ipsius Comitis, usque ad tempus dicte contencionis mote. Item, quia diversa dampna et injurie, dicto Domino Episcopo Exoniensi et ejus Ecclesie per diversos malefactores, preter conscienciam Comitis, ut creditur, que idem Comes plane deadvocat, multipliciter sunt illata, promittit Comes bona fide quod contra dictum Dominum Episcopum ad dampna sua recuperanda nullum tuebitur, set ipsum in juris sui prosecucione juvabit. Item, quod terre et tenementa, redditus, et servicia, que per ministeriales dicti Comitis, ad opus ejus, in lesionem et dampnum dicti Episcopi et Ecclesie sue Exoniensis injuste sunt usurpata, a tempore orte turbacionis predicte, restituantur, et in statum in quo prius fuerunt reducantur. Item, concedit dictus Comes quod si Dominus Ricardus de Seyhtone[1], Johannes Goshelm, et alii qui non sunt de Diocesi Exoniensi, aliquid extorserint vel injuste ceperint de hominibus Episcopi, clericis suis, et bonis dicti Episcopi, quod ad predictum Comitem pervenerit, idem Comes illud bona fide restituet. Et si idem Comes hujusmodi extorta non receperit, juvabit Dominum Episcopum, bona fide, quod sibi super hoc a dictis malefactoribus plenarie satisfiet. Ita (sic) vult et concedit Dominus Comes quod dictus Dominus Episcopus habeat plenam restitucionem, seysinam, et possessionem de omnibus libertatibus et aliis supradictis quibus idem Episcopus et sui predecessores usi fuerunt, et eisdem bene et in pace gaudeat, sicut predictum est—salvo eidem Comiti jure suo si inde loqui voluerit, ita quod predicta inviolabiliter, absque impedimento, dicto Episcopo remaneant, donec predictum Comitem jus suum in premissis, si quod habuerit, per legale judicium disracionare contigerit. Premissam, autem, Composicionem Venerabilis Pater, Dominus Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis predictus, pro bono pacis inter Partes memoratas initam, de consilio et consensu Fratrum et Co-episcoporum suorum sibi assidencium, videlicet Dominorum Johannis Londoniensis, Walteri Roffensis, Aniani Assavensis, Episcoporum, et Domini Roberti Electi Bathoniensis et Wellensis, approbavit, laudavit, ratificavit, et confirmavit. Et in hujus rei geste testimonium et perpetuitatis fiduciam pleniorem, predicte Partes huic Scripto, ad modum cyrographi confecto, sigilla sua, una cum sigillo Venerabilis Patris predicti, Domini Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi, et aliorum prenominatorum Episcoporum, et Electi predicti, vicissim apposuerunt, et eam Composicionem bona fide, in omnibus et singulis, in presencia predictorum Prelatorum, observare fideliter promiserunt.—Actum et datum in Capella de Lamchethe, die Jovis proxima post Festum Sancti Gregorii Pape [14 March], Anno Gracie M°. Litera missa Comiti:—

Nobili viro et amico suo in Christo karissimo, Domino Eadmundo, Comiti Cornubie, Walterus, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, salutem et sinceram in Domino dileccionem. Nobilitatis vestre Literas nuper recepimus reverenter, quod vos specialem clericum et nuncium missuri estis in Cornubiam in proximo, ad complendum et perficiendum formam Pacis nuper inter nos ordinatam; de quo gaudemus, quia idem affectamus. Set, ne aliquid intercidat quod dilacionem Pacis merito debeat impedire vel sopita suscitare, placeat Nobilitati vestre ad aliquem locum tutum et insignem, extra Comitatum Cornubie—qui nobis et nostris diversis racionibus merito suspectus existit, sicut scitis—talem clericum mittere qui discordie suscitator non existat, set tranquillitatem vestram et nostram mutua caritate pocius diligat et affectet quam discidiis et Dominorum jacturis impugnari; quod observare proponimus pro viribus ex parte nostra. Sin, autem, utile videtur et expediens quod hujusmodi negocium differatur usque post Pascha, ut, habito adinvicem colloquio personali, forma Pacis inter nos inita de consensu unanimi felicem sorciatur effectum. Super quibus voluntatis vestre beneplacitum per Presencium bajulum nobis, si placet, rescribatis. Diu valeatis in Domino Jesu Christo; 91.

[1] Dominus Episcopus]. These words are in the MS. throughout, but are not repeated below.

[2] St. Breoke.—Was this parish ever called "Lansant"? It was called "Nansant;" and there is, probably, a clerical error here. "Lansant" (or, as some say, "Lausant") is Lezant, near Launceston; and, evidently on the authority of this entry, "Sanctus Briocus" is given by Ecton, quite erroneously, as its dedication. Dr. Oliver, in the Monasticon (pp. 437, 440), has, actually, used the said entry for both parishes! But it is certain that St. Breoke was meant. The Bishop was nowhere near Lezant at the time, but at his Manor of Polton, which is in the parish of St. Breoke; indeed, that parish is frequently called "Polton" in the Registers. He was there on the 23rd, consecrated the Church in question on the 24th, and was at St. Newlyn on the 26th, on his way to Truro. Oliver's "Sept. 25" (p. 440) is a misprint for Sept. 24.

Bishop consecrated it in 1259—a beautiful example of Thirteenth Century work, retaining only the splendid Norman south doorway of the earlier Church which it superseded. Anno eodem [1276] apud Horsle, in Vigilia Pentechostes exivit Litera sub hac forma :—Walterus, Dei gracia Exoniensis Episcopus, dilecto filio Officiali nostro salutem, graciam, et benedicciouem. Eo arciori providentia delinquencium merito punitur audacia, quo eorum appetitus noxius subrepere conatur in vetitum, eosque dilapsos in illicitum cum suis fauctoribus dampnabilius ad Gehenne pertrahit interitum. Sane cum frater Willelmus de Crukerne, Abbas de Forde, Cysterciensis Ordinis, nostre Diocesis, tam per nos, quam per alios, Apostolica et ordinaria auctoritate fretos, propter manifestas offensas et multiplicatas contumacias Majoris Excommunicationis vinculo, exigente justicia, fuerit innodatus, ac eciam auctoritate Canonis simili Sentencia ligatus extiterit et denunciatus taliter involutus, ipseque in malicia sua perseverans maledicciouem bibat ut aquam, et hujusmodi Excommunicacionem diucius sustinuerit animo indurato ; ne Grex Dominicus cure nostre commissus per dicti Abbatis communionem periculosius inficiatur, vobis mandamus, in virtute obediencie, firmiter injungentes quatinus in Cathedrali Ecclesia nostra Exoniensi et in singulis Conventualibus, Collegiatis, et Parochialibus Ecclesiis nostre Civitatis et Diocesis, per vos, et alios quos ad hoc noveritis ydoneos, singulis Diebus Dominicis et Festivis, pulsatis campanis et candelis accensis in terram projectis, prefatum Abbatem sic excommunicatum publice et solempniter denuncietis et denunciari faciatis, monentes canonice et moneri facientes universos Christi Fideles nobis subditos, ut a dicti Abbatis communione, mercando, ministrando, obsequendo, et quolibet alio civili modo inexcusabili adherendo seu favendo se abstineant, quousque ad Ecclesie redierit unitatem, et absolucionis beneficium meruerit obtinere. Cum, igitur, Ecclesia per se ulterius contra sic rebelles et contumaces nequeat procedere, Regiam Majestatem vestram requirimus et rogamus, quatinus ad rebelles et contumaces predictos castigandos auxilium brachii secularis, secundum regni consuetudinem, si placet, adhibere dignemini, ut iidem rebelles, adhibito vestre potestatis auxilio, cicius ad Ecclesie redeant unitatem.—In quorum testimonium excellenti Dominacioni vestre Literas nostras mittimus Patentes.—Datum Londonie, in Festo Pentechostes, Anno Gracie M°. A Writ issued in pursuance of the above Requisition of the Bishop. But the Abbots of the Cistercian Order supported the cause of their Brother, William of Forde, and addressed a Petition to the King in Parliament, at Winchester, after the Feast of St. Hilary, representing that Bishop Bronescombe's proceedings were infringements of the privileges of the Order, and of no effect; and praying that the Royal Writ might be withdrawn[1]:

nulla sit ipso jure, et solas justas et non iniquas Sentencias consequi debeat cohercio Regie Majestatis. Unde, cum Venerabilis Pater, Dominus Walterus, Exoniensis Episcopus, in Abbatem de Forde, et quosdam monachos suos ac servientes eorum, Sentencias Excommunicacionis, contra privilegia sua, injuste promulgaverit, et capcionem Regiam contra eosdem procuraverit, dictam capcionem qualitercumque concessam humiliter petunt revocari.

Item, cum memoratus Dominus Episcopus omnes procuratores et attornatos ac servientes ipsorum Abbatis et Conventus de Forde, ac omnes metentes segetes suas in autumpno, et omnes colentes terras eorum, et molentes in molendinis ipsorum, per se et Officiales suos excommunicaverit, et de die in diem excommunicet, propter quod predicti Abbas et Conventus nullum inveniunt qui ausus sit eos defendere in foro seculari vel ecclesiastico, maxime in Diocesi Exoniensi ; unde magnas in possessionibus et rebus suis injurias paciuntur dampna et jacturas, et nisi cicius remedium adhibeatur maximas passuri sunt in futurum ; petit predictus Abbas per Dominum Regem et ejus Consilium remedium super hiis adhiberi, ne per hujusmodi Excommunicacionis Sentenciam justa defensione juris sui defraudentur, vel terre eorum remaneant inculte et ipsi Religiosi necessario victu suo careant. Non enim aliud intendit Dominus Episcopus predictus, ut videtur, nisi ut dictos Religiosos omnino confundat et Locum eorum destruat et subvertat ; 76.

Quibus in hoc consencientibus, dummodo viri Ecclesiastici essent qui de Spiritualibus tractare possent et scirent, dictus Dominus Rex discretos viros Magistrum Walterum Scamel, Decanum Sarrisburiensem et Magistrum Thomam Beke, Archidiaconum Dorshetie, Juris Civilis et Canonici Professores, eisdem Partibus ad tractandum de pace mediatores nominavit : quod placuit Partibus, et in eos tanquam in pacis mediatores expresse consenserunt. Coram quibus, apud Westmonasterium, vicesimo secundo die Octobris, Anno Gracie M°. [1] Two leaves have been cut out here; but the mischief must have been done at a remote period, for the numbering of the folios by Bishop Grandisson is continuous, and ignores the loss. The first page of what is now folio 37 was evidently left blank by the original scribe, as it was used, as late as the year 1585, by the then Registrar, William Germyn, for the preservation of two documents (See "Staverton" and "Exeter, Deanery of,") dated respectively 1269 and 1225. The next Entry in the regular course (fol. 37[b]) is dated 5 April, 1268; but the page begins with the words, "Anno undecimo Consecracionis," etc., which carries us back to the 10th of March. It was Leap-Year; so we have been deprived of the records of exactly fifteen days. The above Institution was, probably, to Were Giffard, or to Whitchurch, which Pole states were held by Sir Walter Giffard "anno 27 of Kinge Henry 3 [1242-3].

ASHFORD—

This little Parish, called a Chapelry (Capella de Asforde) in the Taxation of Pope Nicholas, and now a Rectory, comprises only 359 acres. It was appropriated to Pilton Priory, close by; and it is evident that the Monks had to be compelled to present a clerk who should serve it regularly; for on the 26th of Aug.,[6] 1269, the Bishop "pronunciavit Vicarium fore apud Esforde"; 43b. He had previously, 12 Jan.,[7] 1264-5,—collated, "jure devoluto," Gilbert de Moltone, chaplain; 32b. And the later entry seems to shew that his authority had been resisted or, at least, disputed.

AXMINSTER, Rectors and Vicars of (and Prebendaries of Grendale, in the Cathedral Church of York)—

Oliver's List begins with Gervase de Prestaller and Matthew, nephew of Simon de Apulia, Bishop of Exeter. [Wm. de Walesby (he says) was adm. to the Vicarage, but in error (see below).

Walter de Aulescumbe, priest, was collated, by lapse, 8 Nov., 1259; 9.—Oliver states that he died A.D. 1265; and adds, apparently on the authority of the Newenham Cartulary, that

Nicholas de Honetone (by whom he was succeeded, and, certainly, before 1265), was the next Vicar, and that "he was collated by Bishop Bronescombe (no date), on Walter's death; but this Collation was cancelled on an appeal to the Metropolitan, and John de Ilminster, according to the Newenham Cartulary, was admitted in the February following." Very little of all this is confirmed by our Register, as the following documents will shew; and Nicholas de Honetone is distinctly called, therein, Rector of Axminster.

Anno eodem, Kalendis Novembris, hoc est die Omnium Sanctorum [1 Nov., 1259], apud Cheddelegh, admisit Dominus Episcopus Magistrum W[illelmum] de Walesby, per Magistrum Radulphum de Stanford, procuratorem suum . . . . ad Porcionem Ecclesie de Axeminster annexam Prebende de Grendale, ad presentacionem Archiepiscopi, Decani, et Capituli Eboraci, salva Ordinacione Vicarie in ipsa Ecclesia: et idem procurator optinuit

Some five years later, the following Entry occurs:—

"Anno, loco, die, eisdem [die Sancti Francisci—4 Oct., 1270], Gilbertus de Tytinge resignavit Ecclesiam de Cheritone, et sic ordinavit Dominus Episcopus, quod tres Capellani reciperent viginti marcas argenteas annuatim in perpetuum [one or two words have been obliterated here] Thome Canonici a predicta Ecclesia, totum residuum perciperet Vicarius residens in eadem; ita quod dicti Capellani celebrent, in Cathedrali Ecclesia Exoniensi, ad altare constructum per predictum Thomam Canonicum."—This entry was made on fol. 45b, and afterwards struck out, the word "vacat" being written at the end. The explanation is given in the margin,—"quia aliter est ordinatum"; and this Incumbent remained there nearly four years longer, and on his resignation (on his promotion to Bridestowe), Sir Peter de Guldeforde, chaplain to the Bishop, was collated, 24 Sept.,[1] 1274; 57b.

CHERITON-FITZPAINE [Churitone Santone,[2] MS.], Rectors of—

John de Burnham, priest, was inst. to the Vicarage, 21 Dec.,[5] 1268; Patrons, the Prior and Monks of Cowick [Couwyke, MS.]; 39.

Sir John de Cristenestowe was the next Vicar (unless, indeed, he was the same as Sir John de Burnham—there is no record of a separate Institution of "de Cristenestowe"); on whose resignation

Sir John de Shiptone, priest, was inst., 1 May,[6] 1280; Patrons, the same; 96.

CHUDLEIGH, Vicars of—

It may be well to mention that the Registers of Bishops Bronescombe and Quivil contain no record of Institutions to this considerable Benefice. "Nicholas (says Oliver, Eccles. Antiq., i. 24) is the first name that I have met with; and I believe is the first Vicar, who bequeathed, in 1303, to the Fabrick of Exeter Cathedral vis. viij*d.*"—He was, probably, instituted by Bishop Bytton.

CHULMLEIGH [Chaumleghe, Caumeleye, Culmeleghe, Cheaumeleghe, MS.], Prebendaries of—

Theobald, a clerk: his Prebend was void "eo quod idem Theobaldus uxoratus est, sicut constat et declaratur per Sentenciam Officialis Exoniensis," and

John de Broclande, clerk, was admitted, 23 April,[7] 1260; Patron, Sir John de Curtenay; 12b.—The Benefice is not named here; but we find by the following Entry (on fol. 13), that a Prebend in Chulmleigh was meant:—"Anno eodem, die Sancti Marci, Evangeliste [25 April], ad presentacionem Domini Johannis de Curtenay, veri Patroni, Dominus Episcopus admisit Willelmum de Stanforde ad Custodiam Prebende que fuit Johannis de

John le Pruz, clerk, inst. 26 April,[1] 1261; Patron, Sir John Cortenai; 18.

Richard de Cyrencestre, was inst., 15 June,[2] 1266; Patron, Sir John de Curtenaye; 34b.

Sir William de Stanford; he was succeeded by

Sir Robert de la Hope (or Hoppe), priest, inst., 21 April,[3] 1277; Patron, Sir Hugh de Corteney; 78. This Prebendary was succeeded by Adam de Segrave, clerk, who was inst. 5 Feb.,[4] 1279-80; Patron, Sir Hugh de Curteney; 95.

CHURCHSTANTON [Cheristontone and Churistantone, MS.], Rector of—

"Anno et die eisdem [19 Oct.,[5] 1258], consolidata erat Vicaria Ecclesie de Cheristontone vacans Parsonatui, dum Rector ejusdem Ecclesie residenciam in ea faciat personalem"; 5.

The first Rector whose name is recorded was

Sir Robert de Cokeleya, chaplain, who was inst. 20 Sept.,[6] 1279; Patron, Sir John de Todeham [Tudenham], Knt.; 93b.—See Inst., Registr. Quivil.

CLANNABOROUGH [Choueneburi, MS.], Rector of—

Nicholas Blundel, chaplain, was inst. 9 Aug.,[7] 1272; Patrons, the Prior and Convent of Taunton; 49b.

CLAYHANGER [Cleyangre, MS.], Rectors of—

Geoffrey de Folam; on whose resignation

Stephen de Herdintone, subdeacon, was inst. 15 June, 1271,—"ad presentacionem Magistri Novi Templi Londoniarum"; 48.

CLAYHYDON [simply "Hydone," MS.], Rector of—

Ralph de Hydone, clerk, was inst. 27 Feb.,[9] 1274-5; Patron, Sir John de Hydone, Knt.; 60. He, probably, resigned and was re-admitted, nearly two years afterwards; for Master Ralph de Hydone, deacon, was inst. 20 Dec.,[10] 1276—ad Ecclesiam . . . racione Concilii vacantem; Patron, the same; 76b.

CLYST FOMISON [Clyst Fomecon and Fomechun, MS., i.e. SOWTON, or CLYST-ST. MICHAEL], Rectors of—

Richard de Grangiis,[11] clerk: he resigned this Benefice (and, also, his Prebend in St. Teath), 11 Oct.,[12] 1278 (fol. 89b), and, on the same day, was inst. to the R. of Wyke St.-Mary, in Cornwall: but we hear nothing of his successor till St. Katherine's Day (25 Nov.), 1279, when

Sir Nicholas, dictus Strange, deacon, (who at the same time resigned the R. of Knowstone), was collated; 94

CLYSTHYDON [Clyst Ydone, etc., MS.], Rectors of—

William de Stanweye, subdeacon, was inst. 16 March,[1] 1258-9 ; 5b.

—Anno, die, et loco eisdem [apud Clist, iij Nonas Septembris—3 Sept., 1268], Dominus Episcopus commendavit Thome de Hydone, Rectori Ecclesie de Hemihoc, Ecclesiam de Clist Hydone, ad sue voluntatis beneplacitum, vel quousque hujusmodi Commendacionem suam duxerit revocandam ; 38b.

Robert de Coctone, subdeacon, appears to have been the next Rector ; he was inst. 8 Jan.,[2] 1274-5 ; Patron, William de Hydone ; 59. In about two year's time, apparently, he resigned, and was again admitted ; for

Robert de Coctone, clerk and deacon, was inst., "ad Ecclesiam de Clyst Hydone, racione Concilii vacantem," 2 Feb.,[3] 1276-7 ; Patron, the same ; 77.

CLYST-ST. GEORGE [Clistwike, MS.], Rectors[4] of—

John de Brimcot ; on whose resignation, one

Vincent, a chaplain, was inst. 29 Aug.,[5] 1259 ; Patrons, the Abbot and Convent "de Valle Sancte Marie, in Normannia—" by their Proctor ; 7.

CLYST-ST. LAURENCE, Rector of—

Robert de Hille, subdeacon, was inst. 25 Sept.,[6] 1261 ; Patron, "hac vice," the Lady Agnes Bauceyn ; 21.

COLEBROOK,—

—There appears to have been a Collation to this Benefice on, or about, the 20th of July, 1280 ; the words "Collacio—Colbroke" appearing in the margin (fol. 97b), by way, no doubt, of Memorandum ; but the particulars were never entered.

COLERIDGE [Colrigge, MS.], Rector (and Vicars) of—Master Henry de Hamtesfort. He resigned, 4 Oct.,[7] 1270,—"de qua [Ecclesia] Dominus sic ordinavit.—quod Vicarii Ecclesie Conventualis (sic) de Criditone reciperent x libras annuas inperpetuum; et residuum, cum domibus et Sanctuario, esset porcio Vicarii in eadem residentis. . . . . Vicars—

Sir John de Pyletone, chaplain, was collated 12 Oct.,[9] 1273, [ad] Vicariam taxandam ; 53b.

The Registrar was, evidently, not best pleased with this irregular proceeding of his Master !

Antiq.*, i, 153. —This statement, however, is inaccurate ; David witnessed a Deed of "Galfridus de Pumeresia, Dominus Capitalis Manerii de Clist Wiche," reciting and confirming Hilary Blund's Deed. The Original, when Oliver wrote, was in the possession of the late Mr. Ralph Barnes, Deputy-Registrar.

COLYTON, [Culitone, and in the margin "Coulitone"], Vicars of—

[Robert de la Hille was admitted (according to Oliver), 23 May, 1237 (Eccles. Antiq., ii., 6). He was required by the Bishop to serve the Church at Gatcombe, in this Parish, thrice a week, according to an agreement made between the Bishop and Robert Hoskyn, concerning the Chantry thereof.]

Richard de Culitone, priest, was collated[3] in 1269).—Dominus Episcopus taxavit Vicariam . . . . assignantes Vicario, nomine Vicarie, totum altalagium Ecclesie de Culitone et Capelle sue de Suthe [hodie Shute], et totam decimam feni de la Wodelonde; et sustinebit omnia onera debita et consueta, et ydoneum Capellanum apud Suthe; et solvet annuatim Decano et Capitulo Exoniensi C s. ad iiij anni Terminos Principales; 46b.

Sir William, R. of St. Martin's, Exeter, was inst., 21 Dec.,[4] 1274; Patrons, the Dean and Chapter of Exeter; 58.—In vol ii of his Ecclesiastical Antiquities, Dr. Oliver asserts that "John de Gatepath succeeded, 22 April, 1280. But in vol. iii he states that this Institution was to Colaton Raleigh, without referring to his former statement. The Dean and Chapter were Patrons of Colyton, and the Dean of Exeter, for the time being, of Colaton-Raleigh. As Gatepathe was presented by Dean Pycot, it seems certain that Colaton Raleigh was intended.

[1] Of Vicars before Bronescombe's Episcopate, Oliver gives William, mentioned in the Chartulary of St. Nicholas' Priory, 1181; and Josceline, witness to a Deed in 1231 (Eccles. Antiq., i, 113.)—The next is, clearly, Rya [i.e. "Rye"] not "Wey," as in Oliver's List.

[2] die Lune in crastino Conversionis Sancti Pauli.

[3] The day of the month is not given. But Dr. Oliver, without referring to this Register, quotes a Document preserved in the Archives of the Dean and Chapter, in which it is stated that the Bishop collated on this occasion, "per lapsum temporis," and "on the Tuesday after the Feast of St. Matthew the Apostle, 1269." He adds that the said Document was "Exhibited to the Consistorial Court of Exeter, 18th April, 1620."

William de Allenestune, priest, was admitted, 7 Aug.,[1] 1260 ; Patron, Matthew de Bauntone ; 14b.

Master John de Esse was collated 23 Aug.,[5] 1274 ; 55b.

CORNWOOD [Cornwode, MS.], Rector of—

Deans :[1]—

On the death of Dean Roger de Toriz [29 April, 1274], the Bishop wrote to the Chapter, on the 22nd of July,[2] acknowledging the receipt of their Petition for Licence to elect a successor, by the hands of John de Exonia and W. de Werpelesdone, two of the Canons, and granted the necessary Licence—"salvo jure nostro, et cujuslibet alterius in Advocacionibus Ecclesiarum de Brauntone, de Tautone, de Landeke, et de Swynbrigge;" 55b.

—There seems to have been some delay in acting upon this Licence; for on the 23rd of August,[3] the Bishop wrote again to the Chapter, stating that he had, indeed, granted to John de Exonia and William de Sumerforde, their proctors, Licence to elect, having been overcome by the pressure put upon him—"instancia diligenti, ne dicamus importuna"; but, forasmuch as it turned out that the right to collate to the Dignity had lapsed to himself, he inhibited them from proceeding in the matter; 56. Accordingly, on the 20th of Sept.,[4] 1274, the Bishop collated

John Nobilis [Noble], Archdeacon of Exeter, by lapse; 57. On whose death John Pycot succeeded (q. v. in Gen. Index).

Precentors :—

Ralph de Hengham,[5] held this Dignity thoughout Bishop Bronescombe's Episcopate, having been collated in 1242 or 1243. He resigned in 1281. He was also known as de Hilstiton (Le Neve). And his name occurs twice in this Register: "Radulpho de Ilstintone [i.e. of Ilsington] Cantori" (fol. 11b) and "Radulphi de Isteltone, Precentoris Exonie (fol. 35).

JOHN, who became Bishop of Exeter in Oct., 1186, and was succeeded by BERNARD, in the same year.
THOMAS, circa 1187.
HENRY occurs in 1205.

WILLIAM BRIWERE (consecrated Bishop of the Diocese in 1224).
ROGER DE BAGETORE occurs 28 Oct., 1224 (Le Neve—omitted by Oliver).
ADAM DE SANCTA BRIGIDA died 21 April, 1232.
PHILIP DE BAGETORE occurs in 1233.
WILLIAM DE ARUNDEL occurs in 1242—Ralph de Hengham's immediate predecessor.

[6] This Dignity was founded by Bishop Briwere, in 1225.

[7] List of his Predecessors, from Le Neve and Oliver,—
HENRY OF WARWICK, who died 28 April, 1227: he is called in the Martyrology of the Church of Exeter "Primus Exoniensis Ecclesie Cancellarius."
RICHARD BLONDY (afterwards Bishop of the Diocese), occurs in 1230, 1233, and 1243.
"ROGER BOSOM succeeded Blondy," says Le Neve; but Oliver omits him.
WALTER LODESWELLE was Chancellor at the time of Bishop Blondy's death, when he must have resigned the Dignity.—On the 19th of March, 1258-9, more than a year after De Wengham's Collation, he is found, with the Bishop, at Buckfast Abbey, and is described in the Register (fol. 5b) as "Cancellarius et Camerarius bone memorie Ricardi, Exoniensis Episcopi defuncti."

[1] Rosewycke.—This is very puzzling; but it seems certain that Grade is meant. "Rosewycke" was a Manor in the adjoining Parish of St. Keverne; but there can be no doubt that, originally, it was of larger extent than the small Estate now called by that name. Grade is well described by the late Rev. John Wallis, in his Cornwall Register, as a "very singular parish," consisting, as it does, of four separated parts. The main portion is cut in two by the parish of St. Ruan-minor, its northern section adjoining St. Keverne; and there are two isolated portions within the limits of the parish of St. Ruan-major. The "Church-town" is in the southern section, which is the farthest removed from St. Keverne and Rosewycke; the Church, according to Oliver, is dedicated to the Holy Cross "and St. Gradus"; but, as usual, he gives no authority for the statement. In Bishop Stafford's Register it is described, in 1409, as "Ecclesia Parochialis Sancte Crucis, alias Grade."

On the 17th of August, 1275 (see Glasney, page 96), the Bishop appropriated this Rectory to the Collegiate-Church of Glasney, and thenceforth the Incumbents were Vicars. There seems to have been no Institution of a Vicar till 1277, on the 20th of August[10] in which year

Sir David de Sancta Beriana, priest, was collated to the "Vicaria Ecclesie de Menstre," (fol. 81).—It will be observed that, before such Appropiation was possible, the Advowson must have passed from the Bozun Family to Bishop Bronescombe; and, accordingly, we find, bound up with this Register, a copy of an undated Charter of Henry de Esse, "filius Domine Johanne Buzim," granting to the Bishop the Third Part of the Manor of "Minstre" (which his Mother, the aforesaid Joan, had given him), together with fifteen acres (English) of Land—also, the gift of his said Mother—and the Capital Mansion-House thereon, and all rents, homages, etc. thereto pertaining.[11] It is clear that this Grant must have been made

[2] This is the first Institution to Lympstone recorded in the Registers. It is omitted in Oliver's List (*Eccles. [7] "Minster" was the name of the Manor; "Manaccan" has reference to the Patron Saint, St. Manaca, one of the many local Saints of Cornwall. This is clearly shewn in Bishop Stapeldon's Register, fol. 39: on the 8th of March, 1308-9, that Prelate collated William de Cusgaran to a Portion "in Ecclesia Sancte Manace in Menstre." This "Portion" was altogether distinct from the Vicarage, to which he collated William de Moughithe on the same day. It was a "Portion" "in Ecclesia (i.e. in the Rectory) Sancte Manace."

[11] In an account of Glasney in the Journal of the Royal Institution of Cornwall, No. III. p. 23, the Manor between the years 1264 and 1275. Thus far there seems to be no difficulty as to the succession of the Rectors and Vicars of this Benefice.

But there was another "Minster" at the other end of the County—the Priory and Rectory of Minster, otherwise Talkarn, in the Deanery of Trigg-minor; and Dr. Oliver, in his Monasticon, includes the above-named Robert de Stormy, among its Priors. He seems to have overlooked this Institution by Bishop Bronescombe; and he quotes, as his authority, an Agreement made on the Sunday next after the Feast of St. Gregory the Pope (March), 1289, with Sir William de Botreux, respecting a Mill 'in terra de Trelaye' (Orig. penes Lord Arundell of Wardour.)" Sir John Maclean, in his account of the Priory in his History of the Deanery of Trigg-minor, appropriates to that "Minstre" the Institution by Bishop Bronescombe in 1265, and not only follows Oliver in his reference to the Deed preserved at Wardour Castle, but states that this Robert occurs as Prior in the Assize Rolls, 15 Edw. I $\left\{\frac{N}{26}\right\}$ 6. m. 20. And, further, "Trelaye" is in the Northern "Minster"; and there is no place so called in Manaccan now, nor can I find any trace of there having been, at any time. There is, clearly, some reason for the opinion arrived at by both writers, that the Institution of 1265 was not to Manaccan. I venture, however, to adopt the opposite conclusion. The Manor of Worthevale, in which Minster Priory stood, belonged during this whole period (and, indeed, for many Centuries) to the Family of Botreaux, and there is no trace of any portion of it having ever belonged to the Bozuns; whereas the Manor of Minstre, in the Parish of Manaccan, as the Charter referred to above conclusively proves, belonged to the Bozun Family till Joan Bozun granted it to her son, Henry de Esse, who presently granted it to Bishop Bronescombe. The first Rector whose name has come down to us, Nicholas Bozun, was, no doubt, a Member of her Family; and, as she was the Patron of a "Minstre" when Robert de Stormy was instituted to one in 1265, it is hard to believe that he was then inst. to the Priory-Rectory. Moreover, the actual Patrons of the said Priory were the Priors of Tywardreath, presenting thereto on behalf of the Abbot and Convent of St. Sergius and St. Bacchus, of Angers, on which this alien Priory of Minster or Talkarn was dependent, as the Priory of Tywardreath also was. This evidence in favour of the Order of Incumbents of Manaccan adopted above is, surely, conclusive. There was an interval of twenty-four years between Stormy's Institution and the date of the Wardour Agreement; and, as curious coincidences of names are not impossible (or even very rare), I am inclined to believe that, at some time between 1265 and 1289, this Clerk may have been transferred from one "Minstre" to the other; or there may have been two Clerks of the same name.

[5] It is worthy of note that the name of this Parish had been written " Moorwinstowe," from time immemorial, until the Institution of the late Vicar, the Rev. R. S. Hawker. He believed that the Church (and " Stowe ") derived its name from Saint Morwenna, and (as he said) restored its antient form—Morwenstowe; for which he was somewhat severely criticised at the time. He seems to have adduced no authority for the change, which was regarded, by many, as fanciful. The early Registers, however, shew that he was right. In Bishop Stafford's Register it was written " Morewenstowe," vol. ii, fol. 100.

[6] The early history of this Collegiate Church is involved in considerable obscurity. At present there is a Rectory (endowed with tithes £225 and glebe 27 acres); and there are three Prebends—Bodmin (tithe £131, glebe 16 acres); Mornays (tithe £134, glebe 22 acres); and Trehaverock (tithe £130, glebe 22 acres). In the Taxation of Pope Nicholas IV. (1288-1291), there is no mention of any "Rectory," but simply of Four "Prebends." These were the Prebend of Sir Pagan de Liskerit (valued at lx s.); of John de Moderet (value the same); of Henry de Moncatone (valued at iiij li. ij s.); and of Sir Reginald (value the same). Of these, the first seems to have been the Prebend of "Marneys," and the second, that of "Trehaverock." Oliver says (Monasticon, p. 17) that the "Medietas," which belonged to the Priory of Bodmin, included the Rectory and a Prebend," and he adds that the Prebend of Trehaverock is described in Grandisson's Reg., iii. 47, as "Porcio non curata." It would seem that all the Prebends were sinecures, except that which was, practically, from the first, and has long been called the Rectory. In the Valor Ecclesiasticus (1536) we find that John Bere was, then, Rector (value of the Benefice £10), and that Thomas Brerewood, William Cavell, and Edward Bednyngfylde held the three Prebends, each valued in £5).

It will be observed that in the first "Certificate" the year of Perer's Collation is stated to have been 1275, and in the second "Certificate" 1265. Both dates are wrong ; and in both cases the Scribe who made this extract for Bishop Stafford was misled by the date at the end of an interpolated document immediately above (see Pomeray—Obligacio, etc.) where 1265, is an obvions clerical error for 1275. It is curious that both Scribes saw that something was wrong, and that both failed to detect the blunder ; the first adding the ten years but failing to notice the interpolation and consequent mistake of a year ; the second adopting the clerical error, as it stood.

[2] I take this opportunity of correcting a mistake, arising from the accidental misplacement of a slip, in the List of Rectors inst. by Bp. Stafford, in my Edition of that Prelate's Register, Page 208. Under William Derwent read "He exchanged, 9 June, 1417, with Stephen Ansteswelle, R. of Bratton Clovelly (fol. 186). Derwent, 8 July, in the same year, exchanged Bratton Clovelly with William Causey, R. of South Perrott (Dioc. Sarum). The Bratton Clovelly List is right, and so are the cross-references throughout. The Rectors of Shobrooke, accordingly, during Stafford's Episcopate, were (1) John Isaak (2) William de Humberston, inst. 22 Jan., 1400-1; (3) William Derwent, 26 Oct., 1404; (4) Stephen Ansteswelle, inst. 9 June, 1417. Since the publication of Stafford's Register, I have been at much pains to verify the Entries anew, and I am thankful to say that this is the only instance I have discovered of the misplacement of one of the many thousands of separate slips which had to be sorted and arranged, to bring the Book into Index form.

[2] I cannot read this word. Oliver says —"Here was a Chapel of the Holy Trinity, in 1269 (Bronesc. Reg. fol. 41"; Monasticon, p. 440). He refers, evidently, to this Entry, which, however, is on fol. 42. But the words are certainly not "Sancte Trinitatis." In the first place, "Sancti" is distinct and the second word begins, plainly, with "Tre," or possibly, "Ter." Perhaps "Ternan," Bishop of the Picts, whose Feast was kept 12 June, is meant.

The first Charter is quoted from "Rot. Pat. 6 Ric. II. per Inspeximus," which, probably, accounts for some of the variations.

[3] Socca: Liberty of exemption from customary payments and imposts. Saccha: A privilege dating from Anglo-Saxon times, which enabled the inferior Lord to hold a Court for the adjudication of Causes between his own vassals. This, however, is also one of the meanings of socca; and, in fact, the exact shades of signification of "sac" and "soc" cannot, perhaps, with any satisfactory degree of accuracy be ascertained.

Tol: A privilege granted by the Sovereign to a Vill or Manor, of holding market, or, in other words, buying and selling on its own ground.

Theam: The right of holding a Court for the taking and examination of warranties vouched in favour of persons found in possession of stolen goods.

Infangenthef: The privilege, or liberty, granted to the Lord of a Manor of judging a thief taken within his demesne. In some instances this privilege extended to all delinquents whatsoever; in others, only to the men, or homagers, belonging to the Manor (Riley's Glossary to the "Liber Custumarum Londoniensis)."

[1] "This Document," I find from Mr. Robert Dymond (of Exeter), "was produced in 1816, at the trial of the action Norris v. Kelly and Savile, which was brought against the defendants, nominally for granting a warrant of distress for poor-rates, but really to establish the claim of Widecombe Parish to include this portion of the Forest of Dartmoor within its boundary. The Judge had considered the plaintiff's case almost conclusive; but the production of this evidence turned the scale in favour of Lydford, to which the disputed district has since been attached."

[1] die Sancti Egidii.

[2] See page 156 (Note 10).—"There is a clerical error," in any case. But it is not quite clear that it is an error in the mode of giving the day of the month: it may be that the Entry is misplaced in the Register, and so included under the wrong year. In this particular part of the Register there is, undoubtedly, some little confusion. As the facsimile shews, the greater part of the page is "Anno Septimo," and immediately above the Moreleigh Entry the New Year of the Bishop begins,—"Anno Consecracionis Domini Episcopi Octavo." This, for 20 March, would be 1264-5, as in my Text: but in that year St. Cuthbert's Day fell on a Friday, not on a Thursday. Many Entries are inserted out of their proper place, having evidently been postponed till a more convenient season, and written in after others of later date (a fact which has given me no small amount of trouble, more than once). In this case the Day is right if the Year be 1263-4 (i.e. Anno Septimo). But it will be observed that William de la Stane is described as, already, Perpetual-Vicar of Sutton, his Institution to which is recorded on fol. 31b, —16 Oct., 1264; and there can be no doubt about the year, as it happens that the Entry immediately above, and one just below, have the year written in full—"Mo. CCo. LXo. quarto." The Moreleigh Entry cannot refer to the March before the Sutton entry, unless the latter, also, be out of place, and these "years" hopelessly confused, which seems scarcely possible. I, therefore, conclude that "die Jovis" is a mistake of the scribe's for "die Veneris."

Concessimus, eciam, eisdem Burgensibus nostris quod cum, ipsis cedentibus vel decedentibus, antedicta burgagia debeantur releviari, pro qualibet acra integra reddant nobis et Successoribus nostris duodecim denarios. Et si in misericordiam nostram, vel Successorum nostrorum, per judicium Curie racionabiliter inciderint, dabunt nobis, vel Successoribus nostris, sex denarios de emenda pro qualibet misericordia ; nisi forte, quod absit, in nos vel in aliquem Ballivorum nostrorum ausu temerario manus injecerint violentas. —Anno eodem, die Sancti Andree [30 Nov., 1259], apud Hambiri [Broad Hembury], admisit Brictius, Canonicus Plimptonie, nomine Prioris et Conventus, correcciones prius traditas in Visitacione ibidem celebrata ; 9b.

—Anno, die, et loco eisdem [5 Oct.,[1] 1261—at Exeter], Dominus Episcopus diffinitive pronunciavit Collacionem Willelmi, quondam Exoniensis Episcopi, factam de Ecclesia de Landeho [St. Kew] non valere, et per consequens dudum postea subsequtam Confirmacionem Capituli Exoniensis, tanquam minus legitimam, non tenere. Item, alia racione, cum condicio et status rei penitus esset immutatus, idem Episcopus pronunciavit dictam Ecclesiam legitimo gubernatore destitutam, et ad Ordinacionem suam seu Collacionem devolutam, ac eam sue Ordinacioni seu Collacioni reservavit. Item, anno, die, et loco eisdem, dictos Priorem et Conventum Ecclesiam de Dene [Dean Prior] viciose et contra justiciam ingressos esse pronunciavit, et eos Ecclesia ipsa per diffinitam [Sentenciam] privavit, Magistro Gervasio de Cridetone eam conferendo, in hec verba :—

Cum Religiosi Viri, Prior et Conventus Plimptonie vocati fuissent ut comparerent coram nobis ex Officii debito procedentibus, jus suum, si quod habent, in Ecclesiis de Ekebokelonde [Eggbuckland], de Landeho, et de Dene, quas detinere dinoscuntur, ostensuri ; dictis Religiosis coram Commissariis nostris certis die et loco comparentibus, ex parte eorum exhibitum fuit quoddam Privilegium bone memorie Alexandri Pape iiijti, super Ecclesia de Ekebokelonde, per quod eis licere dicebant ipsius Ecclesie possessionem ingredi cum eam vacare contingeret per cessionem aut decessum Rectoris ejusdem, consensu Dyocesani minime requisito ; hocque pretextu se dictam Ecclesiam possidere et licite retinere posse dicebant. Set, quia de cessione vel obitu dicti Rectoris nobis non constat, nec Predecessori nostro constitit, nec dicti Privilegii forma, si eis prodesse debeat, est servata, cum jus Dyocesani salvum non fuerit in hac parte, maxime cum ad Vicariam ipsius Ecclesie nobis, aut Predecessori nostro nullus adhuc canonice fuerit presentatus Vicarius, instituendus in ea seu admissus, nos, Walterus, Exoniensis Episcopus, in Nomine Patris etc., Ecclesiam ipsam cum fructibus sequestrari et salvo custodiri precipimus, quousque de ea, vel saltim ejus Vicaria, aliter duxerimus ordinandum. Item, super Ecclesia de Landeho exhibita fuit Litera bone memorie Willelmi, Exoniensis Episcopi, que videtur innuere quod dicta Ecclesia de Landeho, amotis seu decedentibus Clericis seu Canonicis Secularibus ibidem constitutis, Canonicis de Plymptone ab eodem Episcopo, de consensu Capituli sui, canonice, ut dicebant, collata fuit ; introducentes insuper quoad hoc Instrumenta plurium Episcoporum que videntur factum ipsius confirmare. Quia, vero, prefatus W., Episcopus, qui rerum Ecclesie sue procurator erat, non dominus, sine legitimo consensu Capituli sui res sue Ecclesie alienare non potuit, ad hujusmodi Donacionem processit. Preterea, cum appareat Cartam Donacionis predicti W. Episcopi quoad predictam Ecclesiam de Landeho evacuatam esse, pro eo quod, ipso innuente, non vacabat ipsa Ecclesia, set erant ibi Canonici Seculares toto tempore vite ipsius, prout testantur Instrumenta plurium Episcoporum subsequencium, —In Nomine Patris etc., Collacionem dicti W., Episcopi, de dicta Ecclesia de Landeho non valere, et sic, per consequens, subsecutam dudum postea Capituli Exoniensis Confirmacionem, minus legitimam, non tenere pronunciamus. Item, cum status rei, etsi tenuisset Donacio, in Omnipotentis Dei injuriam sit immutatus penitus per Priorem et Conventum de Plymptone, absque consensu et auctoritate Dyocesani, eo quod in Ecclesia de Landeho ab inicio fuerint Canonici Seculares, quibus postea successerunt Regulares, nec modo sit ibi aliquis Secularis, aut Regularis Canonicus, qui juxta Loci condicionem et consuetudinem ac juris exigenciam Deo valeat deservire, et cultus Divinus augeri debeat non diminui, pronunciamus dictam Ecclesiam legitimo gubernatore destitutam, et ad Ordinacionem seu Collacionem nostram esse devolutam, ac eam Ordinacioni seu Collacioni nostre reservamus.

Quantum ad Ecclesiam de Dene ; licet Prior et Conventus Plymptonie, nuper requisitus (sic) super toto jure et possessione quod dicunt se habere in dicta Ecclesia, respondissent se possidere a quodam Italico, nomine firme pro quodam censu annuo, qui ad eorum presentacionem a Predecessore nostro Rector fuerat institutus in eadem ; modo tamen asserunt dictam Ecclesiam in proprios usus suos esse conversam, exhibentes quoad hoc Privilegium felicis recordacionis Domini Alexandri Pape Quarti, de quodam alio Privilegio Celestini faciens mencionem, quorum pretextu in predicta Ecclesia, quo ad proprietatem et possessionem, se dicunt satis esse munitos : verum, cum constet dictos Religiosos, eo tempore quo ingressi sunt dicte Ecclesie possessionem, nullam ab alio quam a seipsis auctoritatem habuisse, quia per Privilegium Celestini se defendere non possunt, eo quod per contrarium actum ab eo recessum fuit omnino, sicque ipsum Privilegium mortificatum fuit et viribus penitus evacuatum ; nec per Privilegium Alexandri, quia, ut apparet ex Litera, ante Datam ipsius Privilegii, fuerant possessionem dicte Ecclesie—nulla tamen superveniente Superioris auctoritate—ingressi, relinquitur eos dictam Ecclesiam viciose esse assecutos vel ingressos. Item, cum constet dicti Alexandri Privilegium in se continere condicionem, videlicet ut, veris existentibus premissis—et falsa sunt pro majori parte, sicque ipsum Privilegium per falsi suggestionem et fallendo Principis conscienciam, et quasi per obrepcionem obtentum ; et mendax precator carere debeat commodo impetratarum, nec eciam ipsi formam dicti Privilegii observarunt—eosdem Priorem et Conventum dictam Ecclesiam de Dene viciose et contra justiciam esse ingressos pronunciamus, et eos dicta Ecclesia, Scriptis presentibus,—In Nomine Patris, etc., per Diffinitam Sentenciam privamus ; Magistro Gervasio de Criditone eam conferentes, intuitu caritatis ; 21.

Universis presentes Literas inspecturis Walterus dictus le Hostiler, Canonicus Plymptonie, Procurator Subprioris et Conventus Plymptonie, salutem in Domino sempiternam.—Noverit Universitas vestra quod, cum inter Venerabilem Patrem, Dominum Walterum, Dei gracia Exoniensem Episcopum, ex parte una, et Conventualem Ecclesiam Plimptonie ex altera, super possessione vel quasi jure patronatus Advocacionis seu Custodie quam idem Episcopus, tempore vacacionis ipsius Ecclesie, se et Predecessores suos habere solere proponit in eadem ; et super Eleccione de Fratre Roberto dicto Blundo, nuper in ejusdem Ecclesie Priorem electo, celebrata, ac quibusdam Excommunicacionis, Suspensionis, et Interdicti Sentenciis, tam per dictum Episcopum, quam per ejus Officiales, diversis temporibus promulgatis ; necnon et aliis Articulis coram diversis Judicibus, tam auctoritate ordinaria quam delegata motis et pendentibus, suborta esset materia questionis ; tandem, honorem et tranquillitatem dictorum Domini Episcopi et Ecclesie Plymptonie utiliter considerans, procuratorio nomine Subprioris et Conventus predictorum, recognosco, concedo, et assencio quod idem Dominus Episcopus in primis habeat pacificam possessionem vel quasi Custodie (sic) Prioratus Plymptonie, ipso vacante, qualem Predecessores sui habere consueverunt, et ea pacifice utatur et quiete. Postmodum, vero, facta renunciacione a Fratre Roberto dicto Blundo super Eleccione in Priorem Plymptonie de se, ut dicit, celebrata, petant Subprior et Conventus predicti ab eodem Episcopo Licenciam eligendi more debito et consueto, qua sine difficultate optenta, idem Conventus ad Eleccionem de predicto Roberto, vel alio de Conventu procedat, et eam dicto Episcopo representet ; et idem Dominus Episcopus quod justum fuerit in hac parte exequatur, cum gracia et favore. Omnia, vero, supradicta, Sentenciam dicti Domini Episcopi et Officialium suorum tangencia, idem Dominus Episcopus sub simili pena se servaturum promittat.—In cujus rei testimonium presentibus Literis sigillum meum appono.—Et idem Episcopus, in testimonium sui consensus signum suum apponi precepit. Hiis testibus,—Dominis Henrico de Tracy, H. de Brattone, Randulpho de Dodescumbe, Johanne de Westone; Magistris Johanne Nobili, Roberto Everarde, Johanne de Bradele, Johanne Wyger, Gervasio de Crydetone, W. de Rale, W. de Cappella, et aliis.—Actum apud Wynkele, xij Kalendas Septembris [21 Aug.], Anno Gracie M°. [1] A Latinized form of the name of the Priory, or Hospital, of Rouncevall (or Roncesvalles), in the Diocese of Pampelona, in Navarre. No doubt, the House mentioned in the Register was the Hospital of St. Mary-Rouncevall, near Charing-Cross. William Mareschall, Earl of Essex, having—among other Estates—given several tenements near Charing-Cross to the abovenamed Priory of Rouncevall, or de Rosida Valle, temp. Henr. III., a Hospital, or Chapel, of St. Mary, which was the chief House in England belonging to that foreign Priory, was erected upon the site. Leland says (Collect., I. 113), that it was suppressed, among the Alien Priories, temp. Henr. V., and restored 15 Edw. IV. And Tanner tells us that the Master, Wardens, Brethren, and Sisters of Rouncevall continued till the General Suppression. Northumberland House was built, in 1614 upon the Site. See Dugd. Monasticon VI. pt. 2, page 677; also, Pat. Roll, 7 Edw. There is nothing about " 40s " in the original ; and not " the whole Sanctuary " is assigned, but all except two acres : moreover " honeste " agrees with " Persone." With the consent of the then Abbot, and of his Convent it was taxed at 15 marks, to be paid in two equal instalments, annually, to the Vicar and his successors; the said Vicar to sustain all the customary burdens. But, in process of time, a vacancy occuring, Dionisius, Abbot of Beaulieu, presented William Porteioye, priest, and (Bishop Bronescombe consenting), assigned to him and to his successors, in lieu of the 15 marks per annum, "totum altalagium, excepta tota decima piscarie; item, domos in quibus Vicarii habitare consueverunt, una cum decimis fabarum et pisorum in antiquis curtillagiis, et tempore presentis Ordinacionis factis, dumtaxat crescencium: decimam, vero, fabarum, pisorum, et aliorum omnium in campis crescencium Abbati et Conventui supradictis in posterum decrevimus remanere. Et Vicarius, quicumque pro tempore fuerit in eadem, sustinebit omnia onera debita et consueta, necnon Librorum et Vestimentorum, et cooperturam Cancelli." All this the Bishop confirmed—"apud Sanctam Neulinam, die Martis proxima post Festum Sancti Laurencii [13 Aug.], Anno Domini M°. CC°. LX° nono, et Consecracionis nostre xij°; 82.

[1] Since the List of Institutions was printed, the Rev. J. Ingle Dredge has kindly sent me the name of an early Rector of this Parish—Thomas de Chimelly. "In the Charter Rolls in the P.R.O. will be found a Charter of King John, dated 1st June, 1203, granting Ecclesiam Sancti Maderni de Rydwori to Thomas de Chimelly, for life.—Rotuli Cartarum, fol. 163. There is, also, a Record, dated 9th March, 1203, which says that it had been determined by the oath of twelve men of the neighbourhood of Runery, in Cornwall, that the Church Sancti Maderi de Runeri, about which there had been a dispute between the King and the Knights Hospitallers, belonged to the latter, having been given to them by the Predecessor of the then Henry de Pomeroy; and the King, therefore, declared that the Right of the Knights of St. John should not be disputed on the death of Thomas de Chimelly, because Thomas had been admitted to that Church, on the King's presentation, at a time when the lands of Runeri, and other lands of Henry de Pomeroy, were in the King's hands." It appears that "John had named Robert de Clifford, but yielded to the claim of the Knights of St. John, in the year 1203."—"Thomas de Chimelly was, perhaps, related to William de Chymeleis, Bishop of Avranches, 1196—8; and he may have become connected with this neighbourhood through the Priory of St. Michael's Mount, the Norman Abbey of that name being in the Diocese of Avranches" (Millett's Parish Registers of Madron page 83).—In "A List of Cornish Manors, mentioned in various Records, the situation of which has not been ascertained (see Lysons' "Cornwall," page 339), I find "Redworye, or Ridwari,—Pomeroy, Ric. II.; L'Ercedekne, Henr. IV." Surely, this was the "Ritwore" of Domesday, held by Earl Harold in the Confessor's Day, and at the time of the Survey by "The King and his Villeins." Lysons suggests (p. lix) "Retire," in Withiel—a mere guess.

On the Vigil of the Assumption [14 Aug.], 1277, the Bishop addressed a Letter to his four Archdeacons, in which the substance of the "Sentencia" referred to above is recited, the Document concluding thus:—

On the 12th of Nov.,[3] 1278, the Bishop appointed Sir Ralph de Hengham and John [de Pontisara], Archdeacon of Exeter, his Proctors, in all Causes between the Earl of Cornwall and himself, assigning as his reason for doing so his failing health—"nos, corporis valetudine prepediti." [1] It is interesting to note that, after the lapse of more than six hundred years, the names of these closes remain, substantially, the same. I learn from the Vicar, the Rev. J. B. Hughes, that "Pollismeede" and "Le Moore" are, now, known as "Paul's Moor" (2 acres of water-meadow), that "Le Lee" is still "The Lee," but no longer "unum clausum;" the extent is 6½ acres, and it is divided into Lee (pasture), Lee Orchard, a second orchard and a garden (with a mill); and that "Maglond" is now known as "Maglend," and comprises "Yonder Maglend," "Maglend Orchard," "Homer Maglend," and "Maglend Meadow,—about 12 acres in all.—An abridged and slightly varied copy of this "Composition" is preserved among the Archives of the Dean and Chapter (No. 1597), bearing the same date.

Tavistock Abbey;—

[On the death of Abbot John de Northampton], some difficulty occurred in the choice of his successor; first one, and then another refused the Office; and the patronage lapsed to the Bishop, who, on the 10th of August,[4] 1259, provided thereto Philip Trencheful, monk of Winchester (St. Swithun's)—"viro utique, sicut a fidedignis recepimus, provido et discreto, ac in temporalibus ac spiritualibus circumspecto." On the same day, the Bishop petitioned the King to restore the temporalities, in the presence of many of the Canons and very many other witnesses, in the Hall at Chidham, "ante horam prandii": this was granted on the 16th of August; 6[b].—He was solemnly blessed as Abbot by the Bishop, at St. German's, on the Sunday after the Feast of St. Denis [12 Oct., 1259]; and, having made profession of Obedience, received Letters of Installation, addressed to the Archdeacon of Totnes; 8.—He died within the year, and Alured, Prior of the Abbey, succeeded him, after a short delay occasioned by some informality at his Election :—

[1] This must have occurred in, or about, 1267 (see page 137); and the Master Richard de Sancto Gorano, who was collated to a Prebend in St. Probus in 1271-2 must have been another man.

Deposicio Johannis Chubbe, Abbatis Tavistochie:—

In Nomine Domini, Amen.—Sicut plantatos in Ecclesia Dei fructificantes decens est et honestum confovere, ut, crescendo dilatati, bonorum operum fructus faciant ampliores, pari videtur racione non minimum expedire arridos (sic) et infructuosos, quos nulla poterit culture diligencia ad fructificandum perducere, ne bonarum arborum locum in vanum occupent, a plantario Domus Divine penitus extirpatos quam procul expellere, in doloribus et angustiis concremandos.—Sane cum nos, Walterus, Dei gracia Exoniensis Episcopus, in vinea Domini prout sollicitudo Pastoralis exigit laborantes, intelleximus quod Johannes, dictus Chubbe, Abbas Tavistokie, ob manifestas offensas et contumacias vinculo Majoris Excommunicacionis per Commissarios nostros esset innodatus, idem Abbas, in spiritu devocionis, ut videbatur, ad nos veniens, reatus suos recognoscens, et statum suum, ut asseruit, cupiens emendari, prestito juramento ab eodem corporali, promiserit quod super premissis contumaciis et offensis ad voluntatem et Ordinacionem nostram, sine strepitu judiciali, satisfaceret ad plenum, Ordinacioni nostre alte et basse se sponte submittendo; volens et concedens quod, si contra premissa, vel aliquo premissorum, ullo unquam tempore veniret, in pristinam ipso facto retruderetur Sentenciam Excommunicacionis; et, hiis factis, ad ejus instanciam ipsum duximus absolvendum. Ipse, vero, Abbas postmodum, animo indurato, quod per juramentum facere promiserat irreverenter adimplere contempsit; propter quod nos ipsum in pristinam retrusimus Excommunicacionis Sentenciam, justicia exigente. Qui, temporis processu, ad spiritum sanioris consilii, ut asseruit, rediens, et notam inobediencie et perjurii per Ecclesiastice Discipline meritum redimere cupiens, Absolucionis Beneficium instanter sibi a nobis impendi petiit iterato. Et, quia ad satisfaccionem condignam premissorum tunc minime sufficiebat, ut dixit, super omnibus premissis contumaciis, offensis, et inobedienciis, ordinacioni, gracie, et voluntati nostre se et statum suum alte et basse secundo submisit absolute; et, inspectis Sacrosanctis Evangeliis, prestito ab eodem Abbate iterato juramento corporali, promisit et se sponte obligavit, sub debito juramenti prestiti, quod super premissis omnibus et singulis nostram voluntatem seu ordinacionem prescise (sic) subiret, servaret, et teneret, nec ullo unquam tempore in aliquo contraveniret; volens, eciam, et concedens quod, si contra premissa, vel aliquod premissorum, quoquo modo veniret, jure et regimine Abbatie predicte esset privatus ipso facto, prout hec omnia in Literis ipsius Abbatis plenius continentur. Unde idem Abbas sub forma predicta Beneficium Absolucionis meruit optinere. Prefatus, vero, Abbas, proprii honoris et salutis immemor, reatum perjurii non formidans, quod per juramentum facere promisit, licet sepius monitus, inobedienter adimplere neglexit. Cumque postmodum de ipso Abbate, una cum premissis, ea nobis frequenter insinuata fuissent que ab honestate regulari nimium dissonabant, frequentibus fidedignorum clamoribus excitati, et per Monachos ejusdem Monasterii instanter interpellati, in dicto Monasterio Tavistokie, associatis nobis viris Religiosis ejusdem Ordinis et aliorum, tum per nos, cum per clericos nostros, diversis vicibus, prima vice eodem Abbate presente, secunda contumaciter absente, de statu dicti Abbatis prout cura Pastoralis Officii requirit, in forma juris inquisivimus et inquiri fecimus diligenter. Unde per deposicionem Monachorum ejusdem Monasterii, necnon per deposicionem aliorum fidedignorum clericorum et laicorum juratorum, qui veritatem rei geste melius cognoverunt, repertum fuit esse probatum quod dictus Abbas est dicti Monasterii bonorum dilapidator intollerabilis et manifestus, Monachalis Discipline regulam, ad quam voto Professionis est astrictus, deserendo; propter quam auctoritate nostra ab administracione temporalium bonorum ejusdem Monasterii fuit suspensus; qui, dicta Suspensione non obstante, Custodem temporalium bonorum dicti Monasterii per nos de consensu Monachorum ibidem deputatum impediens quominus de eisdem ad utilitatem ejusdem Monasterii disponeret, eadem bona ut prius, immo gravius et enormius, dilapidando, et spreta Monastice Regule Constitucionum Regularium disciplina, idem Abbas, spiritum furoris assumens, cum suis complicibus quos secum adduxit in quemdam de Monachis suis Divina celebrantem, sacris vestibus quibus erat indutus violenter exui, et ipsum ab Ecclesia extrahi, et captivum in Cameram suam perduci fecit, et diucius ibidem detineri. Hiis, vero, non contentus, in quosdam de ipsis Monachis, necnon in quosdam de familia eorundem, Dei timore postposito, in suo claustro, hora nocturna, manus injecit temere violentas. In quosdam, autem, Monachos ad Ecclesiam ob sui tuicionem fugientes et in eadem existentes, insultum fecit terribilem et enormem; ostia Monasterii armis ferreis perforando, incendium in predicto claustro commisit; ostia Celerii Ecclesie et Thesaurarie confregit; archam in qua sigillum commune et Carte et instrumenta dicti Monasterii, sub custodia duorum Monachorum ad hoc per Conventum electorum una cum ipso, erant inclusa, ac eciam Cartas, Libros, Calices consecratas, ac alias res varias et plures fecit violenter deferri, et ipsos sigilli Custodes in Ecclesia cum violencia capi, et ad Cameram suam captivos perduci, et ipsos per totam noctem incarceratos fecit detineri, quousque de dicto sigillo et rebus aliis suam plene fecerant voluntatem; aliaque enormia in anime sue periculum, Monasterii dispendium, et scandalum multorum perpetravit. Idem, eciam, Abbas, diversis Excommunicacionis Sentenciis Majoris astrictus, ipsarum Sentenciarum non ignarus, Divinis se immiscuit irreverenter.

Omnibus premissis cum animi suspiriis et cordis angustiis consideratis et diligenter ponderatis, intelligentes secundum Canonicas Sancciones quod magis expedit paucos bonos quam multos malos in Ecclesia Dei habere Ministros, et putridum membrum procul ab Ecclesia Dei fore deiciendum, nos, communicato jurisperitorum consilio, prefatum Johannem Choubbe (sic) Abbatem, legittime citatum et canonice expectatum, prefati Abbatis absenciam Dei replente presencia, tanquam male meritum et predicto Monasterio propter predicta et alia dampnosum, ab administracione prefate Abbatie, jure et regimine ejusdem, per Sentenciam Diffinitivam deponimus, privamus, et totaliter amovemus; et pronunciantes predictum Monasterium regimine Abbatis de jure et de facto vacare. Et, quia ubi magis exceditur ibi severius est vindicandum, prenominatum Johannem Chubbe a Celebracione Divinorum suspendimus per triennium; omnes Monachos dicti Monasterii ab ejusdem obediencia, vassallos quoque, et alios quoscumque sibi, quacumque fide, racione dicti Monasterii prius astrictos, ab ejus fidelitate per eandem Sentenciam absolvimus. Verum, quia idem Johannes notam irregularitatis videtur multipliciter ex diversis causis incurrisse, questiones irregularitatis ipsius plenius examinandas et examine juridico discuciendas nobis et Sedi Exoniensi reservamus.

Datum et Actum in Capitulo Conventuali de Tavistoke, Anno Domini M°. CC°. sexagesimo nono, in crastino Sancti Eduuardi,[1] Regis et Martiris [19 March]; 40.

APPENDIX
TO
BISHOP BRONESCOMBE'S REGISTER.

I.
Letters Dimissory.

It appears that "Letters Dimissory" were very sparingly granted during Bishop Bronescombe's Episcopate. At any rate, only nine instances occur in his Register; viz.,— Bauntone, Walter de 23, Jan. (x Kalendas Februarii), 1279-80; 94b.

Brun, Master William le, 17 Dec. (xvj Kalendas Januarii), 1279; 94.

He appears to have been ordained subdeacon under these Letters; see fol. 94b, where his Institution to Michaelstowe (on Christmas-Day, 1279), is recorded. On the 6th of April (viij Idus Aprilis), Letters were again granted to him—"quod possit ordinari ad Ordinem Diaconatus a quocumque Suffraganeo Cantuariensis Provincie, citra Pascha" [21 April]; 95b.

Coleshulle, John de, 17 Dec. (xvj Kalendas Januarii), 1279; 94.

Fitz-Urse, Philip,—

[Vera Copia[1] Prime ac Secunde Fundacionis Sanctorum Alexii et Johannis Baptiste.[2]]

Memorandum quod circa Annos Domini MCLXX et Regni Regis Henrici, filii Imperatricis, XIJ$^{mum}$, in tempore Bartholomei, Episcopi Exoniensis, Willelmus Prodom, filius Radulphi, Fundator Hospitalis Sancti Alexii retro Monasterium Sancti Nicholai, impetravit terram loci ejusdem Hospitalis ab Abbate Waltero Sancti Martini de Bello et ejus Conventu, olim vocatam Illisbery. Deinde ab Abbate Odone, cum predicto Conventu, habuit confirmacionem dicti loci Hospitalis predicti, ut sit liber et quietus ab omni consuetudine et exaccione; ut patet inferius :—

1 The "Old Style" (the year beginning 25 March) is observed throughout, as in the Register.

2 Election confirmed.

3 The Bishop Elect does homage to the King.

4 Ordained Priest.

5 Consecrated.

6 "Die Veneris proxima ante Palmas" (i.e., in this year, 15 March), but the Scribe adds "hoc est viij Idus Marcii" (viz., 8 March). Either "Palmas" is a mistake for "Dominicam in Passione," or "viij Idus" for "Idus." I suspect, the latter.

7 Enthronization.

8 Certain Acts of the Bishop on June 5, 6, and 23, are recorded out of their proper places. We are not told where the Bishop was,—probably, at Horseley. He may have been at Abingdon on the 23rd; but the Entry is ambiguous.

9 Acts are recorded Sept. 21, 25, 30, and Oct. 19; but the places are not mentioned. No doubt the Bishop was still at Chidham, or in the neighbourhood. There are other like instances of the omission of the customary "ibidem" leaving the exact place in doubt. The nearest attainable approach to accuracy is, however, secured by simply entering the dates, in order, as they occur.

10 Chamerewelle, MS.

11 The Entry in which this date is found (see Paul—Gen. Index) is out of its proper order; having been reserved, apparently (with other like Entries), for the end of the year.

12 There is a gap of more than a month here; and a blank space is left which has not been filled in.

13 In Middlesex—"Bedefunt," MS.

14 Eyppeham," MS. ("Ebeshame alias Epsome"—Ecton).

15 "Duntesfaude," MS.

16 "Maydenhuthe," MS.—Arnold, Dean of St. Buryan, was here on that day, and William de Capella; and, probably, the Bishop, also; but this is not actually stated.

[1] "Londoniis, xj Kalendas Junii," MS. See note (3), infra.

[2] Farrindone, MS.; and, simply, "Anno eodem," and a blank space for the day of the month.

[3] "x Kalendas Junii, apud Peyntone." There must be a clerical error here; for the Bishop is represented as at work in London on 22 May, and at Paignton on the day following. The next date is 25 June, when he was at Exeter; and I have no doubt that the Paignton date should be June 22, i.e. that is, "x Kalendas Julii." A mistake in a single letter is easily made.

[4] Entered on fol. 27b.

[5] There are two other Entries, for this place and day, on fol. 28.

[6] Entered on fol. 26b.

[7] Ashburgtone, MS.

[8] "die Sancti Juliani," MS. But on the next page the Bishop is made to institute to Huntsham, "apud Lawyttone" (in Cornwall) on the same day—"Die Dominica proxima post Festum Sancti Vincencii." He was still at Horseley on the 28th. The Entries are made rather irregularly in this part of the Register.

[9] Entered on fol. 30b.

[10] The place is not mentioned; but apparently the Bishop was then at Horseley.

[11] The Bishop was, almost certainly, there; but it is not expressly stated.

[12] Entered on fol. 32.

[13] In Essex,—"Boreleghe," MS.

[14] "die Lune in crastino Conversionis Sancti Pauli." A clerical error, probably for "die Martis." The Feast itself fell on a Monday in 1265-6.

7 There are no Entries for the month of February, and I have been able to find (and that in a detached Document, bound up with the Register), only one for March. Fol. 35b was left blank, evidently, for their reception; but the intention was never fulfilled, and the space was utilized in 1585, to write in the two Documents belonging to the Episcopates of Bishops Chichester and Marshal, which will be found on page 2.
8 Here, again, occurs a serious gap; there being no Entries for more than a month. The first page of fol. 37 was left blank for their insertion, and was eventually utilized, in 1585, by the Registrar of the day. Some leaves, also, have been cut out here, but before Bishop Grandisson's time, whose numbering of the folios is uninterrupted.

2 see page 126, note (3).

3 These are the only Entries between 24 Sept., 1269, and 6 April, 1270—more than six months; but there is no sign of accidental omission, as in former cases.

4 There is another Entry of this date, out of its proper place, on fol. 45b.

5 The Document dated at Chidham, 5 June (supra), is inserted here, and the next Entry, beginning "Anno, loco, et die eisdem," seems to be continuous ; but, on consideration, I think those words must be intended to refer back to the date at the top of the preceding page, "die Sancti Francisci." Correct, accordingly, p. 172 (Inst.) ST. GORAN (5 June, 1270), and p. 179, ST. TEATH, Prebendaries (6 June, 1270); the first should be 4 Oct. ; the second, 5 Oct., if I am right.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

A.D. 1261, March 23 (page 296),—I found this date in some stray Entry, but have mislaid the reference to the folio; and I have failed to find the "needle" in my "bundle of hay."

A.D. 1272, Jan. 21 (page 300),—There is some difficulty in identifying "Meygham." One of the Friends whom I consulted on the point suggests "Cheam." "I take it," he writes, "to be intended for Cheam, a fair day's journey from London to Horseley, on a winter's day (Jan. 21). It is a little more than midway between London and Horseley. In Domesday-Book it is called Ceiham ; and it was spelt "Kaham," "Cheyham," and "Cheyam," temp. Henr. III. You must make allowance for the Registrar's mis-spelling as regards the first letter" (F. J. B., Winchester). The "M" is quite clear in the MS. ; but a scribe, writing as far away as Exeter, might well have blundered to this extent, if the name of the place were not familiar to him."

ADDITIONAL NOTES TO BISHOP BRONESCOMBE'S REGISTER.

page 13, paragr. 4; "Lugdunense."—Was not this word written in error for "Londinense." There was no Council of Lyons, as far as I can learn, in 1261, but there was a "Concilium Londinense" in that year, commencing on the 16th of May. It will be seen, by the "Itinerary," that the Bishop left Exeter on the 26th of April, rested at Hursley, near Winchester, on the 4th of May, and may very well have been in London by the 16th, for he was, certainly, there on the 19th, 21st, and 23rd.

„ 67, note (8), also, page 191; Woolfardisworthy near Crediton; not the Parish of the same name in the Deanery of Hartland.

„ 99; "Haccombe [Hascumbe, MS.]."—I followed, here, a marginal note of later (but not recent) date; but I am persuaded that "Ashcombe" was meant. Henry de Ascumbe occur as Canon of Crediton before 1280 (see p. 131)

„ 113 (last line); de Flisco. "Fliscus" is the usual Latin form, in 13th-Century Charters and Inscriptions, of the name of the Family referred to here—"Fieschi" (or "Fiesco.")

„ 177; Walter Manclerc was collated to "St. Mylor" temp. Johannis Regis (see p. 290, line 24).

„ 181; South Tawton: is not this a clerical error for North Tawton, of which Osmund de Valletort (q.v.) was, certainly, Rector? He may have held both the Tawtons together; but there would still remain the difficulty of finding room for his Incumbency of South Tawton in the midst of Lungespeye's time.—See below—note to p. 280.

„ 182; Stoke-Fleming does not appear among the "Institutions," there being no record of any in the Register. But see p. 263.

„ 200, line 9 (also, p. 24); "Baddune": herein I followed Dr. Oliver; but is not the name "Raddone"? The MS. is obscure.

„ 237, line 13; "O."—i.e. Ottobone.

„ 249; St. Goran.—The reference in this Taxation to the Cornish "Seine Fishery," at so early a date, is very interesting. The Vicar was to have the whole "altalage" of the Parish, with some few exceptions, which are specified. The tithes on the great nets (sagene) still called "seines," which belonged to the Rector [Glasney College], were reserved (together with the tithes of certain crops), and on all the seine-boats above the number of twelve. This seems to point to the existence, at Goran-Haven, even as early as 1271, of a system closely corresponding to, if not identical with, that which now prevails, and has prevailed from time immemorial, at St. Ives, Penzance, and other great Fishing-Stations on the Cornish Coast,—the boat with its seine representing a share in the "Concern," as the undertaking of each Company is called. The tithe of fish, therefore, would seem to have been, sometimes, levied, not on the fish caught in any given year, but on the shares, or "plant." I do not find the word "sagena" elsewhere in this Register; but a similar system seems to have prevailed in 1269, at Sidmouth, where the Vicar was assigned the tithes of the third part of the Fishery, and of the ships and boats (Piscarie et navium et batellorum), see p. 260. At St. Keverne, also (another Fishing Station), the Vicar was to enjoy the whole "altalage," with certain exceptions; and, first, "excepta tota decima Piscarie" (see pp. 251, 252). In an earlier Taxation of St. Goran, made in 1270 (see page 172), the Vicar had been more liberally dealt with; and, doubtless, the complaints of the "Rector" led to its revision in the following year, and to the careful limitation of his share in the Fishery, referred to above: the Vicar had, at first, the whole "altalage," together with all manner of small tithes, to wit, those of the Fishery (Piscarie), and of apples, beans, and pease, growing in gardens; the tithe of corn and hay only excepted. At Zennor (see page 285) the tithe was of fish caught (piscium).

„ 254, line 40: William de Monkton. He is referred to as "Senescallus Cornubie" in 1282, see Bishop Quivil's Register (fol. 117[b]), and "tunc [1284] Senescallo nostro Cornubie" (fol. 19[d]).

„ 256—St. Winnow. "Broreche" and "Boskeneche" seem to be "Broadoak" and "Boconnoc."

„ 265, line 22; for Tarentesio read Tarentesia. And in the next line, for Tarento read Tarantaise.—The See of Tarantaise was Archiepiscopal up to the French Revolution; but since its revival, in the year 1825, it has been Episcopal (Moutiers). The late Dr. Oliver, in his Lives of the Bishops of Exeter (page 40), refers to this Register, and states that Bronescombe was consecrated "in the presence of Ralph, Archbishop of Tarento." This was a mistake of the learned Doctor's, and I have to confess that I inadvertently followed him therein. Not a Ralph but a Henry—Henry de Cerasole—was Archbishop of Tarento at the time.

„ 280, line 19.—Under "Institutions" (pp. 159, 181), I have given the particulars as to the Incumbents of North Tawton and South Tawton, exactly as they are recorded in the Register; overlooking, until the sheets containing them had been printed, the discrepancy to which reference is made here. It seemed strange, though not, of course, impossible, that Osmund de Valletort should be Rector of South Tawton, apparently in the middle of the Incumbency of Nicholas, Lungespeye. There might have been two Incumbents of that name: but there is no record of the Institution of Osmund, or of a second Nicholas, to this Church. But it will be seen that the said Osmund died Rector of North Tawton in 1274, when he was succeeded by Joel de Valletort, on the presentation of John de Valletort. It is, therefore, exceedingly probable that (as I suggest here) "South" was a clerical error for "North."

„ 281, line 17. Decanus Sedunensis—"Dean of Sion." I do not understand why he is called "de Vodonia," and friends—experts—whom I have consulted are equally at a loss. There can be no doubt, however, that the Dean in question was Peter Grossi du Castelar, or de Châtelard, afterwards (1271-83) Archbishop of Tarantaise. It appears that there are, or were, two Deans, of two Chapters, at Sion—first, the Dean of the Chapter in the Church of the Blessed Virgin, in the Town, and, secondly, the Dean of the Chapter "in arce Valeriæ—in the Château de Valere, on the height above the Town, Both were called, in a general way, Deans of Sion; but the latter was, specially, "Decanus Valeriæ," and such was this "Petrus de Vodonia"; for Aymo de Venthona died Dean of the Town Church, 19 Dec., 1266, and his successor, Mark of Aosta, appears as early as 4 Feb., 1267, and as late as 1283. There was no "Peter" Dean there during Bronescombe's time. But in a document of 1 Feb., 1269, occur "Petrus et Martinus [a slip for 'Marcus'] Decani." This Petrus was "Petrus de Castellario") i.e. Châtelard in the Val d'Aoste): he was the "Decanus Valeriæ"; and we learn from the Gallia Christiana that Rudolfus Grossi du Castelar was Archbishop of Tarantaise in 1248-71, and that he was succeeded in the See by his nephew, Petrus Grossi du Castelar, who, as appears from the Uncle's Will (Gall. Christ. XII., append., col. 397 seqq.) was "Decanus Valeriæ" when the said Will was made. It will be seen that in the Extract from Bronescombe's Register (fol. 25), this "Decanus Sedunensis" is distinctly referred to as "nepos Venerabilis Patris, Domini Tarentasiensis Archiepiscopi" in 1257-8. —See the Abbê Gremaud's Documents relatifs a l'Histoire du Vallais (vol. 29 et seqq. of the Mémoires et Documents publies par la Société deHistoire et d' Archéologie de la Suisse Romande).

I give what remains, after spending hours upon making out the greater part of it: indeed, the whole Entry, seems at first sight quite illegible. The (suggested) words in brackets have been utterly destroyed.

"Petrus, etc., dilecto in Christo filio, Henrico de Lynetone, Rectori Ecclesie de Ridmore [i.e. Ringmore], salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—Ut Cantariam de Lynetone, simplex Beneficium sine cura animarum, fund-[atam pro uno Capellano, pro] anima Andree de Kardinan, in Ecclesia de Auetone, celebrante, una cum Ecclesia de Ridmore [optinere, et in eadem per te, vel] per Presbiterum ydoneum facere celebrari possis, si id paciatur Instituentis voluntas . . laudabile testimonium quod de te redditur et exhibetur, Beneficiorum eorundem, juxta Pastoralem Officii nostri potestatem in simplicibus et minoribus Beneficiis Ecclesiasticis dispensandis, tenore Presencium, quatenus Jura permittunt, misericorditer dispensamus; ita, tamen, quod in Ecclesia tua de Ridmore residenciam facias personalem, et curam tibi commissam regere et gubernare [minime negligas].

parclose-screens were removed, but they have since been, happily, repaired and replaced—not, however, again to enclose the "de Lynetone" Chapel, but as parclose-screens to the Chancel, on either side.

The Chantry-Rolls, unfortunately, afford us but little information:—"The Chauntry there . . . Founded by . . . To fynde a pryste to celebrate in the Parish-Church of Aveton-Giffard. The yerelye value of the lands and possessions, vij li. xiiij*s.*" (Oliver's Monasticon, page 478). So the endowment was a good one.

Robert de Cardinan held two Baronies in Cornwall—Cardinan and Botardel, and was living in 1216. His eldest son, Andrew, was living in 1251; whose daughter and heir, Isolda, became the wife of Thomas de Tracy. To Robert, his younger son, Robert de Cardinan gave his Manor and Church of Alyngton [i.e. "East Allington,") a Parish very near Aveton-Giffard, and, in fact, only separated from it by a narrow strip of the Parish of Loddiswell. By Isolda, or Robert the younger, there can be little doubt, this Chantry was founded for the health of Andrew's soul. I have not been able to trace the connection of this Family with Aveton-Giffard; but (as we have seen) they held considerable estates close at hand, and that there was some connection this Entry abundantly proves. Were the Families of de Lyntone and Cardinan connected? It must have been something more than a coincidence that this Chantry should have been called "de Lynetone" and that Henry de Lynetone (Rector of the adjacent Parish of Ringmore), should have been a very early (and most probably its first) Incumbent.—See Sir John Maclean's History of the Deanery of Trigg-minor; Pedigree of Prideaux; p. 219.

[1] Four leaves have been cut out here, and the depredator has left behind him, as evidence of a happily frustrated intention to purloin this Document also, an incision, two inches in length, made with some sharp instrument ! On one of the fragments may still be traced the words—"The Composicion of Herpford." This MS. has suffered severely from damp, careless folding, and the use of galls. Much of it is very difficult to read, and the words indicated by the blanks have perished.

[6] Kalendis Augusti.

[7] He was barbarously murdered, it was never known by whom. John Pycot, priest (of Exeter), John de Cristinestowe, V. of Heavitree, John de Wolrington, V. of Ottery St. Mary, and Luke de St. Leonard, clerk, were accused of consenting to his death,— " super consensu mortis Magistri Walteri," —but they purged themselves thereof in 1285-6. Letters of Archbishop Peckham and Bishop Quivil addressed to King Edward I. were found in the Tower of London (Nos. 1855-8) by the late Sir T. Duffus Hardy, and prove conclusively that the Precentor was murdered, as Hoker and Isaacke, (his copyist) state. The Register proves that the murder occurred in 1283: the "purgation," not the murder, occurred in 1286. It is strange that the Register should speak only of his " death."

[8] xiiij Kalendas Decembris.

[9] This Entry has been nearly destroyed by the unskilful application of galls, and it was overlooked, in consequence, both by Oliver and Le Neve. The former, simply, says that " he was the next Precentor": the latter that he " was possessed of it in 1297 (Reg. Exon)." I have, however, succeeded in recovering all that is essential. See " Additional Notes."

[10] Mr. Baigent has kindly sent me the following interesting extract from the Register of John de Pontissara, Bishop of Winchester, fol. 62 :—

" Litera pro Archdiacono Exoniensi.— Johannes, permissione Divina Wintoniensis Episcopus, Reverendi Patris Domini Ordonii, Dei gracia Tusculani Episcopi, Cardinalis executoris a Summo Pontifice deputati, Commissarius, discretis viris, . . de Thotenes et . . de Cornubia Archidiaconis, in Ecclesia Exonie, salutem in Domino sempiternam.—Mandatum supradicti Domini Cardinalis recepimus, in hec

Peter de Insula before him, and also after him, stating that he "occurs Aug., 1280," and suggesting that "he may have resigned and accepted the Office again. But 1280 is, undoubtedly, a mistake for 1289.

Canons :—

Sir William de Sancto Martino (See Bronescombe's Register, page 138) was succeeded by Master Thomas de Bodeham, collated 17 Aug.,[1] 1281 ; 112b.

Sir Robert Giffard was collated before Bronescombe's Episcopate, and on his death

Master Andrew de Kilkenny was collated, 22 Nov.,[2] 1282 (to be inducted by the Archdeacon of Totnes and by William de Bysiman and Gilbert de Tytings, both Canons of Exeter) ; 119. On Lecchelade's death[3] (who appears to have been collated to his Prebend before Bronescombe's Episcopate), Sir James de Hyspania "illustris Regine Anglie nepos," was collated, 18 Nov.,[4] 1283 ; 122b.

On the death of Master John de Esse (See page 138),

Master Stephen de Grindcham was collated, 8 July[5], 1284, and the Bishop himself installed him—"ipsumque presencialiter installavit in eadem ;" 125.

Master John de Clyfforde (See page 139),

Master Henry Huse was collated, 10 Oct., 1284, resigning another Prebend, also in the Cathedral, to which he had been collated on the death of

It is not clear whether the Cardinal had himself been appointed Archdeacon, or was only taking up the case of another Ecclesiastick. He is said to have died, at Rome, in 1285. The Roman Curia would have the appointment of Pontissara's successor in the Archdeaconry of Exeter, and this Letter shews plainly that there was some active opposition on the part of the Precentor and others. [F. J. B.]—Had Lecchelade's mysterious murder any connection with these disputes, which occurred just before ? See "Additional Notes."

Its Church was dedicated not to St. Pinnock but to the Blessed Virgin.

The Manor, was, originally, the possession of Baldwin de Ripariis, Earl of Devon, who "gave [it] unto Phillip de Soleigny in marriage with Hawis his daughter, whose daughter Mabil was wief of Jordan de Chambernun : from Chambernun, by the Lady Jane, daughter and heire of Sr Willam Chambernun, it descended by Willington and Beaumont unto Chichester." The "estate" granted to Sir Peter Fissacre by the "Lady Jone" included, evidently, the Advowson of the Church ; which is called, simply, "Ecclesia de Stoke" in the Taxation of Pope Nicolas (1288-91).

Launceston Priory—

The List of the early Priors of Launceston in Oliver's Monasticon is imperfect. After the resignation of Robert Fissacre, Bishop Bronescombe, 17 Oct., 1261, "annulled the election both of Brother Laurence and of Richard de Uppetone, on the ground of informality, and undertook to provide a Prior ; but who was appointed we cannot discover." Oliver found the name of a Prior Richard who "died in the vacancy of the See, between the death of Bp. Bytton and the accession of Bp. Stapeldon," but "the date of his Institution is not given." The following somewhat obscure Entry in Bp. Quivil's Register, fol. 129, probably supplies another name,—"Apud Clist, vj Kalendas Septembris [27 Aug., 1285], cassata Eleccione facta de Fratre Willelmo Teingterer, Canonico Lanstavetonensi, per defectum Eleccionis, Dominus Episcopus, Electi Persone meritis propensius ponderatis, eidem Ecclesie de Pastore de Eleccione ipsius duxit providendum.—The Prior and Convent were Patrons of Linkinhorne ; 127.

[2] The following curious Letter, addressed to the Bishop, and evidently by Wade, has been written in at the end of this Document, in writing most minute and much contracted; it occupies all the blank spaces at the end of the several Entries, including the bottom-margin of the page. Its contents speak for themselves:—"licet, eciam, mihi non liceret tanto Domino et Patri scribere, nec merita et servicia precesserint pro quibus rogandi fiduciam habere debeam, de vestra, tamen, Paternitate et Dominacione, considerans quod se multum exibent liberales, imploro quatinus, si vos Curiam Papalem adire contigerit, caritatis intuitu de me cogitare dignemini inter ceteros: unde, non obstante quod aliter sim beneficiatus ad Ecclesiam Taxe xij marcarum, ut optinere possim Provisionem ad Taxam xx marcarum, vel tante Taxe sed in mea Ecclesia. Et sciatis quod vobis refundam omnes expensas, tam ordinarias quam extraordinarias, quas circa hec mea negocia feceritis in premissis. Et utrum incipere in Jure Civili debeam mihi consulere dignemini. Nec habeatis pro malo quod in propria persona non veni. Quia ego solus sum, legens in tribus Voluminibus Canteb'.; et ideo devillare non potui.

De uno negocio vestram Paternitatem rogarem, si auderem; set audaciam ex liberalitatis vestre experiencia, quam a me et a multis scio expertam—audaciam assumam. Et licet mihi tanto Domino, etc.—quatenus. . . See "Additional Notes."

Torre Abbey,—

The Bishop writes to the Abbot and Convent, touching the Prebend of Ashclist [Aysseclist, MS.] in the Prebendal Church in the Castle of Exeter, of which they were Patrons, and which was vacant by reason of the death of Sir William de Wyreplesdone, who was, also, Canon of Exeter; and, referring to the boundless hospitality exercised by their House, for the maintenance of which, and of the heavy burdens which they had to sustain, their means were insufficient, he confirms to them, for their own use, the said Prebend, with all its rights and appurtenances.—"Datum Exonie, quarto Kalendas Marcii, Anno Domini M°. CC°. octogesimo quarto [26 Feb., 1284-5][1]; 127b.

[1] The whole of the lower part of this page has been sadly injured by the disgracefully reckless use of galls, which were applied to the opposite page with wanton carelessness, the Book having, evidently, been closed before they had dried, so as to smear this page and hopelessly obliterate many words! With great difficulty I have succeeded in deciphering words enough to enable me to reconstruct all essential parts, and the above abstract may be relied on as accurate. Dr. Oliver (Monasticon, p. 181) gives the following List of Charters, Confirmations, etc. from the Cartulary of Torre Abbey, folios 45—47:—

"Carta Roberti de Courtenay de Prebenda de Aysseclist [no date].

"Confirmacio Venerabilis Patris Willelmi, Exoniensis Episcopi, de Prebenda de Aysseclist [Dat. 1237].

"Finalis Concordia facta in Curia Domini Regis inter Abbatem L[aurencium] et R. de Curtenay [22 Edw. I.]

"Carta Abbatis et Conventus de Torre, concessa W. le Muchele, de terra de Storesheye [26 Edw. I.]

"Confirmacio Hugonis de Courtenay de Prebenda de Aysseclyst [Dat. 1276].

"Convencio facta inter Dominum Willelmum de Werpelisdone, Canonicum Exoniensem, et Abbatem et Conventum de Torre [Dat. 1284].

"Confirmacio P[etri], Episcopi Exoniensis, de Prebenda de Aisseclist [Dat. 1284].

It is singular that Oliver did not discover that Werplesdone held this Prebend of Ashclist at the time of his death, as is clearly stated in the above document. In his History of Exeter (p. 204), on the contrary, he tells us that "two Institutions only to this Prebend are noticed after its appropriation to the Abbey," viz. "those of Thomas de Wimundeham who was succeeded, 7 Feb., 1261, by William Stanfer." See ASHCLIST, Prebendaries of page 139.

[1] There are four Entries only between 10 Nov., 1280 (on which day Bishop Quivil was consecrated) and 18 July, 1281, three of which are written on some blank pages at the end of Bishop Bronescombe's Register. The Register proper commences with the words—"REGISTRUM DOMINI PETRI, EXONIENSIS EPISCOPI, A XV KALENDAS AUGUSTI, ANNO DOMINI M°. CC°. OCTOGESIMO PRIMO, ET CONSECRACIONIS SUE PRIMO."—The "Old Style" (the year beginning 25 March) is observed throughout this Itinerary.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

—Under 1281 ; 21 Aug., "Frollestone."—It is difficult to identify this place. Mr. Baigent suggests Isynton (or Eston) in the parish of Froyle, near Alton ("Froyleston"?). It would be on the road from Mainstone to Horseley.

—Under 1284 ; Jan. 17, "Beaumaris," which I suggested in a note page 318, was a mistake. I read the MS. "Beaumis" ; and as the Bishop was there on the 17th of Jan., 1284, and reached Reading on the 19th of Jan., Mr. Baigent is, doubtless, right in suggesting Beams, antiently written "Beaumeys," a Manor near that town. "It is the site," he adds, "of a Manor-House of the De la Beches. In 1338, Nicholas de la Beche had Licence to crenellate the same. Afterwards, it passed to the Stonor Family. In 1347, Lady Margaret de la Beche, then owner of this Castle or Manor-House, was violently carried away a captive, and her brother, Sir Michael de Poynings, was slain in her defence. There is a Commission, and a Denuuciation of this murder and violence in Bishop Edyndon's Register."

ADDITIONAL NOTES, ETC., TO BISHOP QUIVIL'S REGISTER.

I think it expedient to print in extenso the portions of this Register which have been rendered practically illegible by the use of galls. It is no exaggeration to say that both the pages of folio 128 look more like what is commonly called a "Poor Man's Plaster" than anything else, and other portions of the MS. are scarcely less disfigured. Some of the Entries are quite obliterated, and most of them have only been deciphered with the greatest difficulty, in a strong light, and with the help of a powerful glass. Even so, I had to return to many of them, over and over again, before I could read them. It is not probable that any other person will, hereafter, attempt such a task; and, as the condition of these folios is not likely to improve, it would be a pity not to make the most of the almost blinding labour which I have expended upon them—recovering the mutilated record word by word, and often letter by letter. The facts and names which I was able to decipher while my Book was in preparation, I have, of course, included in the "Index"; and while the sheets were passing through the Press I have lost no opportunity of working in any that I was able to recover in time. The others—and they are not very numerous—I must be content to set forth here, together with such further explanatory Notes as may appear to be necessary or useful:—

Page 321 ; Clovelly.—When this page was printed off, I was still in much uncertainty as to the Rector's name, in consequence of the deplorable state of this part of the MS. It is just possible to make out (fol. 130[b]) that one "Walterus de Peingtone" was inst. (in 1286) to some "Ecclesia" or other, on the presentation of Richard Giffard, true Patron thereof, and, probably, in May ; but the date of the month and the name of the Parish have been totally obliterated. On fol. 131 is a memorandum of a Licence of non-residence, granted 25 July, in the same year, to a Rector of "Clofely"—Walter de Peingtone. The name is very obscure ; but careful comparison of the two Entries convinces me that both refer to the same person.

„ 323 ; Cruwys Morchard.—[The reference-figure of the Note (2) has been dropped out of the Text—from the end of line 3]. Folios 128[a], 128[b], and parts of 130[a], 130[b], and 131, are printed above in extenso for the reason there given ; and to this the footnote—"See 'Additional Notes'" always refers when one of the said folios is (as here) indicated in the Text.

„ 335 ; Hyspania, James de.—The Pension of 100s. referred to in the Text was granted in 1282, and it will be seen (p. 344) that in the following year this "illustris Regine Anglie nepos" was collated to a Prebend in the Cathedral. No doubt some pressure was put upon the Bishop, to secure promotion for this scion of the Royal House ; and not upon Bishop Quivil only ; for we find the Archbishop (Reg., fol. 101[b]), writing to the King, 13 May, 1283, complaining that "James de Espaigne is an infant and illegitimate," "enfaunt, nient mulierez,"—and that the recent resignation of the Rectory of Crondall (in the Diocese of Winchester) in this youth's favour was tainted with simony ; and he entreats the King to have nothing to do with promoting so grave a scandal. Writing on the same day to the Bishop of Bath and Wells, he alludes to the matter thus,—"grave scandalum credimus imminere, si Dominus Rex circa factum Ecclesie de Crundale, quam Dominus Wyntoniensis Episcopus contulit bono et honesto viro, Petro de Geldeforde, capellano nostro, procedat sicut eum dicitur processurum. Ipsam, enim, Ecclesiam, Jacobus de Ispania, puer—ut dicitur—inhabilis, prius tenuit occupatam, quam Dominus Rex voluit conferri cuidam Medico, literalem scienciam et linguam Patrie non habenti. Cum, igitur, dictus Jacobus non sit capax Beneficii, tum quia minor annis et illegitimus—ut dicitur,—nec secum sit Auctoritate Apostolica dispensatum, Dominum Regem velitis inducere, propter Deum, ne in hac parte quicquam faciat, aut fieri precipiat, quod possit in dedecus suum aut lesionem Libertatis Ecclesiastice aliquatenus redundare ; quia certum est istud, si aliquod inhonestum fiat, ad Sancte Romane Ecclesie noticiam perventurum, ex quo plurimum offendetur." The Archbishop's remonstrance seems to have availed little ; for, ten days later (23 May), he wrote again to the King, protesting in strong terms against the persecution to which the Bishop of Winchester had been exposed, because he had resisted this unhappy proceeding,—"Nus sumes durement esbayz de duresces ke, sicum nus avum entendu, vus avez comaundees cuntre le Eveske de Wyncestre, les queles passant les bunes de vos Auncestres, e surdent, si cume len dist, de une chose, ke nus tuche, de la Eglise de Crundale, qi fu donee sulum la fraunchise Seynt Thomas a un de nos chapeleyns. En la quele Eglise len ad fet graunt desray, e graunt despit a Deu, cuntre les leys que Jhu Crist livra a Seint Pyerre par Sa beneyte buche. Pur la queu chose, Sire, nus suppleum a vostre Reaute ke vus pur la misericorde Deu suffrez ke en ces choses misericorde e verite gardent le Roy, e adrescent vostre quoer, et ke vus eyes pite de nostre chier Frere, le Esveske de Wyncestre, e del Eveschee, e de nostre chapeleyn, Persone de Crundale, sulum Deu e reysun. E si ne poum nus pas croire ke les duresces avaunt dites viegnent de vous, de ky nus avums veu e oy taunt de buntes, taunt de humilitez, taunt de clemences, les queles nus avums prechees a tut le munde. E pur co, Sire, nus vous prium pur Deu ke vus facez ces choses amender ; e si vous ne fetes, sachez certeinment ke Deus sen curruscera par se costumes ke Il ad escrites e tenues puis le comencement du munde. Sire, pur Dieu, pite vous venke ; tenez Seinte Eglise en le estat en qui vos Auncestres la unt gardee, par amendement, pur le amur mun Seignur Seint Thomas, a qui nus comaundums le cors de vous e lalme. Sire, pur Dieu, ne suffrez pas ke lenteigne pur menteurs ceus ke taunt unt prise vostre bone foy e vostre bone volente." Not content with this, the Archbishop wrote, also on the same day, to the Queen, who had, doubtless, instigated the deed,—"li Seint," says he, "nus enseignent ke femmes natureument sunt plus piteuses e plus devoutes ke ne sunt les hommes, e pur co dist la Escripture, ubi non est mulier, ingemiscit egens. E pur co ke Dieus vous a done honour greyneur ke as autres de vostre Seignurie, il est reysun ke vostre pite passe la pite de tuz iceus e de tutes celes qui sunt en vostre Seignurie. Pur la queu chose nus vous requerrums, pur Dieu e pur Nostre Dame, ke vous le quoer nostre Seignur le Roy voilliez en bonir vers nostre chier Frere, le Eveske de Wyncestre. E sachez, Madame, ke les duresces ke len fet a li la Eglise de Rome tendra pur fetes a soy, e co ne sereyt pas bon au tems ke ore curt. Madame, nus vus requerum, pur Dieu, ke vous facez taunt en ceste partie ke ceus ke dient ke vous metez le Roy a fere duresces pussent voyr e sentir le cuntreire. E si sumes certeins ke Dieus se curruscera a tuz ceus qui en ceste chose ne funt lur partie bone. Madame, pur Dieu, pite vous veynke, e Nostre Sire vous gard le cors e lalme a tuz jurs" (fol. 42). Also, on the same day, the Primate wrote words of comfort and encouragement to his Brother of Winchester (fol. 85[b]).—These Letters are printed, at length, in Mr. C. T. Martin's Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, to which valuable Work I am indebted for the above, and for some other of my extracts from the Archbishop's Register.

„ 337 ; Bigbury.—Some fragments of the "Inquisition" referred to in this Mandate have been recovered from the remains of fol. 128[b] (printed above —page 387).

„ 338 ; Bishop's Tawton (note 3).—I think the resigning Rector's name was "Gorges." But it is doubtful.

„ 339 ; line 16 ; "scuagii et cremagii." After much research and consulting several experts, I have failed to discover the meaning of "cremagium."

—Canonsleigh Priory (note 7).—Archbishop Peckham's Register (folios 45[b] and 125) clearly proves that the Prior did not submit quietly to this violent change. The Archbishop wrote to the King) apparently in 1286-7—there is no date)—"pro Priore et Conventu suo de Leghe, . . . regalis, ut dicitur, patronatus ; . . . supplicamus vobis . . . quatinus ipsis omnibus et singulis concedere dignemini proteccionis Regie tutamentum, ut . . . libere prosequi valeant Ecclesie sue jura . . . . . ut malicia hominum que Sacros Canones offendere non veretur, data nobis potestate Celitus arceatur." And on the 24th of Jan., in the same year, he wrote to Vice-Chancellor William de Hamelton, to ask, for the said Prior, a Writ of Novel Disseisin; complaining that the Prior "de la Leghe" and his Canons, "per falsam suggestionem et injuste a Loco in quo professi fuerant fuisse amotos, . . . . quem [Priorem] jam a carcere Episcopi cum maxima difficultate fecimus eripi." And he claimed for him the Royal protection—"dum saltem prosequitur causam suam ; quia de malicia Episcopi, que ipsum a prosecucione juris sui hactenus impedivit, verisimiliter est timendum ;" adding that—

"multo honestius est servos Dei, juxta intencionem Fundatoris, ad Monasterium suum reducere quam mulierculas inibi, non sine suspicione et scandalo et ipsorum sacerdotum prejudicio, confovere." But, nevertheless, the "mulercule" won the day!

„ 342; add CULMSTOCK.—I find no Institution to this Parish in either of these Registers. But it appears from Archbishop Peckham's Register that Robert Everarde farmed the Church in Bishop Quivil's time. It will be seen, on reference to the Gen. Index, that Bronescombe collated him to Uplyme (by lapse), 21 April, 1259; to a Prebend in the Cathedral, 30 Nov., 1263 (which he resigned in 1270). There is no record of his resigning Uplyme, to which, however, John Lovel was inst. in 1284. But, meanwhile, he had got into trouble, and he was deprived of Culmstock in 1280-1. On the 20th of January the Archbishop wrote to the Official of the Bishop of Exeter (Quivil—whose Register for the beginning of that year is imperfect), informing him that he had, recently, cited Everarde to appear before him, and that he had appeared by his Proctor, Thomas de Honespille, before the Archbishop's Commissaries, Alan de Frestone, Archdeacon of Norfolk, John de Lacy, Canon of Lincoln, Reyner de Florencia, Canon of Lichfield, and Anselm de Estria, clerks. The charges alleged against him were—"quod idem Magister Robertus quondam Ecclesiam de Colmstoke, cum villa ejusdem sibi annexa et pertinenciis utriusque, a Capitulo Exoniensi, ut Canonicus et confrater tunc ejusdem Ecclesie, secundum consuetudinem predicte Ecclesie, ad firmam suscepit, et quod postea, dimisso clero, quandam mulierem duxit in uxorem, cum qua stat matrimonialiter copulatus; Ecclesiam antedictam, cum omnibus juribus et pertinenciis suis, in predicti Capituli prejudicium non modicum, et sue anime periculum, et scandalum plurimorum, predicto conjugio non obstante, nichilominus detinendo." The Case having been heard, the Commissaries condemned Everarde on the 11th of January, and ordered him to make restitution; the Archbishop requiring the aforesaid Official to see that the Church was surrendered, within three days after the receipt of the Monition, and restitution made of the goods of the Church before the First Sunday in Lent (Reg. Peckham, fol. 49[b]).

—DENBURY.—Walter de Bampton was ordained Deacon by Archbishop Peckham, 23 May, 1282, at Chichester, in the Church of the Friars-Minors there: he was, at that time, R. of St. James's, Dover (Reg. Peckham, fol. 103[b]); which Benefice he resigned in 1286 (ibid., fol. 31), on his promotion to Denbury.

Pages 343 (note 10), 350; Pycot, John,—see Appendix I.

Page 345; add GEORGEHAM.—Oliver de Tracy occurs as Rector of "Hamme" in 1261 (see page 93.) His successor was Philip de Pyn, who is mentioned in Abp. Peckham's Register, fol. 199[b], as an Executor of the said Oliver (17 July, 1283). There is no record of this Institution.

„ 357; TALATON.—The following Letter, addressed by Archbishop Peckham to the King's Justices and Vice-Chancellor, on behalf of Richard de Langeforde, and others, who had appealed against Bishop Quivil, will be read with interest:—"Prudentibus viris et discretis, illustris Regis Anglie Justiciariis, ac Domino Willelmo de Hameldone, Domini Regis Vicecancellario, Frater Johannes, permissione Divina Cantuariensis Ecclesie Minister humilis, tocius Anglie Primas, salutem et graciam Salvatoris.—Insinuante nobis Magistro Ricardo de Langeforde, Rectore Ecclesie de Taletone, Exoniensis Diocesis, nuper intelleximus quod Venerabilis Frater, Petrus, Dei gracia Exoniensis Episcopus, in ipsum Ricardum et Dominos Rogerum de Langeforde, Humfredum de Bello Campo, Simonem de Monte Acuto, Gervasium de Raleghe, Milites, Magistrum Robertum le Bole, Arnaldum de Mony, Rectorem Ecclesie de Merhete [Meriet,—Somers.], Johannem de Mortone, capellanum, Dominam Margeriam, uxorem Domini Hugonis Peverel, Thomam Gybbecrake, Walterum Chamberleyn, Johannem Trescut, Robertum Payn, Robertum Tyrel, Johannem Cum, igitur, hujusmodi Capcio procedere non debeat, hujusmodi Appellacionis Causa in nostra pendente Curia indecisa, in Sedis Apostolice et Curie nostre contemptum, super quo ipsum Episcopum responsurum jam fecimus coram vobis ad judicium evocari, vestram rogamus Discrecionem quatinus, ob Sancte Romane et Cantuariensis Ecclesiarum reverenciam, non permittatis hujusmodi procedere Capcionem, ne idem Rector, et ceteri sibi adherentes prenominati, per Capcionem hujusmodi a prosecucione juris sui contra eundem Episcopum, ipso Appellacionis pendente negocio indiscusso, contra jus commune excludantur; revocantes, si placet, quicquid in dictarum Sedium et nostre Jurisdiccionis prejudicium, ad dicti Episcopi importunitatem seu instanciam, contra dictum Rectorem et sibi adherentes prenominatos, de Mandato Regis, in hac parte fuerit demandatum. —Valete in Christo et Virgine Gloriosa.—Datum apud Mortelake, vij Idus Novembris [7 Nov.], Anno Domini M. CC LXXX sexto, Ordinacionis nostre octavo." [Royal Letter, No. 1859, Rec. Office,—printed in Mr. C. T. Martin's Registr. Epistol. Joh. Peckham, iii, 934].

—TOTNES—Chapel at WARLOND: this Entry is nearly obliterated, and a few words are illegible. But see the portion of fol. 131, printed in extenso, above.

„ 359; WHITSTONE (in Cornwall.) See the portion of fol. 130[b], printed above. For some time I despaired of reading the name of the second Rector on this List, but I am, now, satisfied that Walter de Bridewille is meant; doubtless, the man who was inst. to a Prebend in Chulmleigh a few days before (see page 340). The Christian name of his Patron is not, I fear, recoverable: I do not think it is "Roger," and there are some slight traces, apparently, of "Robertus," Roger de Carminow's son and heir.

„ 360; WYKE LANGFORD.—I cannot identify this Rectory with certainty; but I have little doubt that BRADWORTHY with Pancras-Wyke (a Chapelry thereto) is meant. It cannot, I think, be Germans-Wyke, or Wyke-St. Mary (in Cornwall). "S[r] Richard Langford had, alsoe, his mannor in Braworthy, w[ch] hee granted unto Sr Gervais de Horton, anno 34 of Kinge Henry 3. Roger de Langford held 30 part of a fee, anno 24 of Kinge Edw. I, and Thomas Langford, anno 19 of King E. 3" (Pole).

„ 360; Kilkenny, Andrew de.—He was Dean of the Arches: Roger de Rothwelle surrendered the Seal of the Deanery, 9 May, 1282, and on the following day it was delivered to Kilkenny (Registr. Peckham, fol. 103).

„ 362; Lecchelade, Walter de, see Pycot, John.

„ 364; Monketone, William de.—He seems to have been a troublesome person. Archbishop Peckham wrote (22 Dec., 1282) to William [de Capella], Precentor of Crediton, requiring him to demand of William de Moneketone, Rector of Morwenstowe, the fruits of Poundstock, in Cornwall, which had been sequestrated (Reg. Peckham, fol. 192b). Earlier in the year (11th May), the Archbishop had written to John de Esse, Archdeacon of Cornwall, complaining that certain persons had robbed Reginald le Erceveke, R. of Poundstock (ibid. fol. 183b). It appears from the same Register (fol. 100) that the offenders were William Bloyou, William de la Sturte, Luke de la Yalledone, Robert Longe (son of Walter), and Geoffrey Marmiset; against whom, at the instance of the said Reginald, a "Litera Capcionis" issued, 25 June. At last, the Archbishop wrote to Edmund, Earl of Cornwall, whose Steward Monketone was, complaining of the gross misconduct of the latter,—"Nobilitati vestre Presentibus innotescat quod, dum nuper in Exoniensi Diocesi Visitacionis officio fungeremur, Willelmum de Moneketune, Senescallum vestrum Cornubie, super diversis et enormibus criminibus multipliciter invenimus infamatum; qui, licet super hoc coram nobis . . . conventus fuerit, sub umbra, tamen, excusacionis vestre subterfugiendo, hucusque virgam debite correccionis evasit." And the Primate announced his intention of proceeding against the offender, "propter scandala exorta de prefato Willelmo in populo," (4 July, 1282,—ibid., fol. 186b).

—Bloyou, who was, evidently, backed by de Monketone, had actually intruded himself into this Rectory; and, although the Archbishop had personally visited the Parish, and had reinstated the ejected Rector, the intruder had speedily returned, and, having driven out Reginald "vi armata et more hostili," had again taken possession (fol. 100).

—Oratory, at Boswythgy.—"Bodeworgy, Bosworthgy, or Bosworgy, in some old Records called a Manor, belonging for several generations to the Family of Bottreaux, who had a Grant of an annual Fair at this place, for two days, at the Festival of St. Mary Magdalene" (Lysons' Cornwall, page 63).

„ 366; Phillack.—Called "Ecclesia Sancte Felicitatis de Conartone" (see page 222), in Archbishop Peckham's Mandate (30 June, 1281) to the Vicar of Lananta (Lelant) to make payment for the crops which he had purchased when the revenues of Phillack Church were under Sequestration (Reg. Peckham, fol. 175b).

„ 367; Pycot, John. See Appendix.

„ 368 (note 2), line 19 et seqq.; Several words are doubtful: "unde" may be "uno," agreeing with "me" in the line before; "aliter" is, perhaps, "alibi"; "Legens in tribus Voluminibus, etc. is puzzling,—"legens" means "reading" in the sense of lecturing, probably; and Mr. Baigent thinks that Wade "was then engaged in lecturing upon St. Anselm's Works in three volumes, Canterbury's Work being its scholastick designation." The passage is very obscure, and the writing hard to read.

---

I am indebted to Mr. Baigent for the following Copy of a Commission, directed by the Archbishop to the Dean of St. Paul's and others, to try the case of Edmund, Earl of Cornwall, against the Executors of Bishop Bronescombe:—

Commissio facta contra Executores Episcopi Exoniensis,—

Frater Johannes, permissione Divina, etc., discretis viris Decano Sancti Pauli Londoniensis, Archidiacono, et Cancellario in eadem Ecclesia, salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—In Causa quam Nobilis Vir, Dominus Edmundus, Comes Cornubie, coram nobis movet, seu movere intendit, contra Rogerum de Derteford, Reginaldum dictum Archiepiscopum, Hugonem Splot, Gervasium de Criditone, Petrum de Guldeford, et Ricardum de Grangiis, Executores Testamenti Domini Walteri, quondam Exoniensis Episcopi, vobis committimus vices nostras, cum cohercionis canonice potestate ; mandantes ut, vocatis qui fuerint evocandi, dictam Causam auctoritate nostra audiatis, eamque prout canonicum fuerit terminetis, et faciatis quod decreveritis per Censuram Ecclesiasticam firmiter observari. Et si non omnes hiis exequendis interesse poteritis, duo tamen vestrum in dicta Causa procedant, tercio minime expectato.—Datum apud Slyndone, vij Idus Junii [7 June] Anno Gracie M°. CC°. octogesimo secundo, Consecracionis nostre anno quarto.—Regist. Peckham, fol. 147.

It is a very interesting building, with some remains of stained-glass, including the Initials and the Arms of the Prior.

of an Institution in the interval ; 158, 161b. [Bishop Stapeldon had visited the Parish recently, and found the Rectory-House and the other buildings in so ruinous a condition as to be quite unfit for his reception. Makerel was non-resident—"in remotis[1] degens,"—and having turned the produce of his Benefice into money, was said to be squandering the proceeds ; and he had paid no attention to the Bishop's monitions. So the Bishop determined to sequestrate whatever might happen to be then in hand, or due to the Rector, and the whole revenue for the ensuing year (which was estimated at forty marks) ; appointing as sequestrators the Dean of Westwivelschire[2] and Sir Walter [Wyot de Blakemore], Vicar of St. Cleer.[3] They were to collect the money and apply it towards the reparation of the ruinous buildings, the estimated cost of which was no less than a hundred marks. ## The Case of John Pycot and the Murder of Walter de Lecchelade.

The Election of John Pycot to the Deanery of Exeter, and the murder of the Precentor, Walter de Lecchelade, have long been shrouded in mystery. As to the former, Dr. Oliver states, in his Lives of the Bishops of Exeter, page 274, that Pycot "was the next Dean [to John Noble]; but," he adds, "I cannot meet with his Collation in the Episcopal Registers,"—which is not surprising; for the Deans of Exeter were elected by the Chapter, and not collated by the Bishop, except in case of lapse. Unfortunately, Quivil's Register is defective at the beginning, and contains no record of this Election. But it is clear that it was most distasteful to the Bishop and, apparently, to some of the Members of the Chapter. Quivil appealed to the Pope; and in a Letter (dated 26 July, 1281), appointing Proctors to appear on his behalf before the Roman Curia, he states that the representations which his Proctors were instructed to make, as to the "crimina et defectus" of the Election, he believed to be true, and such as he would be able to prove. On the 1st of August, 1281, we find the Archbishop appointing Roger de Derteforde "yconomus" of the revenues of the Deanery, pending the decision of the Curia.[1] That decision was, certainly, given in Pycot's favour; for, on the Tuesday next after the Feast of St. Giles the Abbot (2 Sept.), in the same year, his Election

[1] De Yconomo dato, Decanatu de Exonia vacante.—Kalend. Aug., Anno Domini M°. CC°. octogesimo primo, apud Slyndone, emanavit Litera sub hac forma:—Frater Johannes, etc., dilecto filio Domino Rogero de Dertford, ejusdem Loci Canonico, salutem, graciam, et benediccionem. — Nos inter subditos nostros pacem, concordiam, et quietem fovere, rixas, vecordias, et pericula sedare cupientes, ac unicuique quod suum est tribuere volentes, te Yconomum, de consilio virorum prudencium, ordinamus, facimus, et constituimus; ut, quamdiu questio inter Venerabilem Fratrem nostrum, Petrum, Dei gracia Exoniensem Episcopum, et Dominum Johannem Pycot, in Decanum Exoniensis Ecclesie electum, super Eleccione ipsius pendeat indecisa, obvenciones et fructus Decanatus ejusdem diligenter colligas ac fideliter studeas reservare, eidem reddendos ad quem, ipsa lite finita, debeant pertinere. Et, ut premissa liberius et efficacius possis adimplere, tibi tenore Presencium liberam concedimus facultatem contradictores et rebelles per Censuram Ecclesiasticam, quocumque nomine censeantur, cohercendi, et omnia alia que ad premissorum execucionem et conservacionem proficiant (Regist. Peckham, fol. 58).

was confirmed by the Primate's authority.[1] Quivil, however, again appealed and appointed John de la Wade his Proctor on the 22nd of October. And here, also, the record fails us. But it seems certain that Pycot again won the day; for he is constantly referred to, in Peckham's Register, as "Dean of Exeter," down to 1284. I doubt very much whether Quivil ever recognised him, and there is some curious indirect evidence of this in his Register. In cases of Institutions by the Bishop to Benefices in the gift of the Chapter, we always find the formula—"ad presentacionem Decani et Capituli Exoniensis"; as, for instance, in the Institution to Heavitree, 16 April, 1280, just before Dean Noble's death. If the Deanery was vacant the Benefice was, commonly, said to be in the Gift of the President and Chapter. Now, there were five Institutions to Chapter-Livings between Pycot's Confirmation by the Archbishop and the Election of Dean Andrew de Kilkenny, his successor, viz. Buckerell, in Dec., 1281; Colebrooke, in March, 1282-3; Littleham, in the same month; Branscombe, in Nov., 1283; and St. Mary-Major, Exeter, in Jan., 1283-4. In every instance the Bishop's Registrar wrote simply, and was, probably, directed to write—"ad presentacionem Capituli Exoniensis." No sooner is Pycot removed, however, and the new Dean in Office, than the old formula reappears, in the case of the Institution to Upottery in Nov., 1285. It is hard to believe that this was not done deliberately. Nor are other indications wanting of the Bishop's hostile attitude towards this obnoxious cleric. He was a Canon, of course, and, at one time, I thought that he was Treasurer of the Cathedral; but, on further investigation, I have come to the conclusion that the Treasurer was another man, commonly known as "John of Exeter," against whom Quivil directed a Commission, 27 Nov., 1282, to the Prior of St. Michael's Mount, in Cornwall,—"super pluralitate Beneficiorum que obtinet cum cura animarum, et quibusdam rebus aliis"; hinting at possible Suspension, Excommunication, and Interdict. Pycot, was, certainly, also, a pluralist—Rector of St. John-in-Cornwall, which, however, he resigned on his Institution to Buckerell in 1272; of Merton (though for a short time only); of Affeton, also, in addition to his Cathedral Dignities. We find, moreover, from Peckham's Register, that he was Rector of Tarrant-Gunville,[2] in the Diocese of Salisbury, in 1281, and (fol. 208b) of Heanton-Punchardon, near Barnstaple. At the latter place he was in direct conflict with his Bishop, against whom he was supported by the Primate, and not without reason if his story was true. For thus Peckham writes (26 July, 1284)

[1] Confirmacio Decani Exoniensis.—Apud Lamethe, die Martis—Anno gracie, M°. CC°. octogesimo primo—proxima post Festum Sancti Egidii Abbatis, Confirmatus fuit Dominus Johannes Pycot in Decanum Exonie, per Magistros Alanum de Frestone, Archidiaconum Northfolchie, et Robertum de Lacy, Archiepiscopi Commissarios; ut patet per Acta diei ejusdem in Registro Johannis de Bescles, Publici Notarii (ibid., fol. 51b).

[2] Episcopo Sarumensi, pro Ecclesia de Tarente Gundeville.—Anno Gracie M°. CC°. lxxx primo, xviij Kalendas Septembris [15 Aug.], emanavit Litera sub hac forma:—Frater Johannes, etc., Venerabili Fratri, Domino [Roberto], Dei gracia Sarumensi Episcopo, salutem et sinceram in Domino caritatem—Volentes super quodam facto, quod vos tangit, pleniorem certitudinem obtinere, Fraternitatem vestram requirimus et hortamur in Domino, vobis nichilominus in virtute Obediencie firmiter injungendo, mandantes quatinus distincte et aperte certificetis nos, per vestras Patentes Literas, citra Octabas Sancti Bartholomei proximo venturas [31 Aug.], utrum Ecclesiam de Tarente Gundeville traderitis Domino Johanni Pycot, Electo in Decanum Exonie, ante Congregacionem nostram Radingis, vel post, et quo Titulo recepit eandem. Valete in Christo et Virgine Gloriosa.—Datum apud Suthmallyng, etc. (ibid., fol. 176b).

to William de Sardinia, directing him to cite certain offenders who were charged with burning "Hauntone" Church,—"non sine magna cordis turbacione, conquerente nobis Domino Johanne dicto Pycot, Decano Exoniensi, nuper intelleximus quod, cum ipse Ecclesiam de Hauntone, Exoniensis Diocesis, dudum fuisset canonice assecutus, et ipsam diucius pacifice possedisset, demum Dominus Petrus, Exoniensis Episcopus, ipsam Ecclesiam esse vacantem, cum non esset, pronuncians, juris ordine—ut dicitur—minime observato, denunciavit Patrono ejusdem ut ad eandem Personam idoneam presentaret." This, of course, only meant that Pycot had been deprived; and so the Patron evidently understood the matter. For Peckham proceeds,—"Qui, quidem, Patronus Thomam de Dune, presbiterum, ad procuracionem dicti Domini Episcopi, ad ipsam Ecclesiam presentavit; quem idem Episcopus admisit et instituit in eadem, non obstante Inhibicione nostra, immo pocius vilipensa, dicto Episcopo, ad suggestionem et appellacionem predicti Decani ad Curiam nostram prius interpositam, ex parte ipsius Decani loco et tempore opportunis exhibita et porrecta. Et dictus Thomas, ac Willelmus de Charles, clericus, una cum complicibus suis, manu armata et more hostili, ad predictam Ecclesiam accedentes, sub dissimulacione et connivencia dicti Domini Episcopi—ut refertur,—ipsam Ecclesiam ausu temerario combusserunt, in animarum suarum periculum, ac Universalis Ecclesie contemptum et scandalum plurimorum; quos omnes et singulos, qui hujusmodi facinus perpetrarunt et eisdem in hoc facto prestiterunt opem, operam, aut favorem, non est dubium in Sentenciam Excommunicacionis, in malefactores hujusmodi a Canone latam, ipso facto dampnabiliter incidisse." And he ordered Sardinia to proceed to the Parish without delay, and, having made enquiry on the spot, to take such steps as might be necessary to bring the offenders to justice. He wrote, also, on the day following, to the Bishop of Exeter, citing him to appear before him, wherever he might happen to be, at the time, within the Province (and the Archbishop was then at Llandaff), together with Thomas de Doune, "proxima Die Juridica post Festum Exaltacionis Sancte Crucis" . . . . . responsuri, et facturi et recepturi quod justicia suadebit." On the next day, Peckham wrote, also, to the King, telling him the story with some additional particulars. The Patron was Sir John de Ponchardon, Knt., (shewing that the church was Heanton-Punchardon, and not Highampton, as has been supposed); and Doune is accused of breaking into the Rectory-House, as well as setting the Church on fire—"in qua," he adds, "eciam duo homines dicuntur fuisse combusti." He begs the King to interfere, and to drive out the intruders,—"presertim cum a tempore Norwycensis Incendii non fuerit in Anglia tanta injuria Deo et Sanctis Ejus, ac eciam Universali Ecclesie, irrogata." It is remarkable that there should be no allusion whatever to these stirring scenes in Quivil's Register, though it is perfect and apparently continuous for the period indicated. There is no mention of Pycot's Incumbency or of Doune's Institution to Heanton; though we are told that the latter was collated, in commendam, to Cheriton-Bishop about a year before, and held that Benefice (apparently) till Jan. 1286-7. But it is plain to see that, by this time, this distressing strife had reached a very dangerous pitch, involving deeds of violence, and tending even to greater evils. I find, however, from Bishop Stapeldon's Register (fol. 148), that Doune must have held his ground; for he died Rector of this Parish, "die Veneris in Vigilia Purificacionis Marie" (1 Feb.), 1319-20.

I may mention, here, that in 1284, the Bishop appropriated the Rectory of Egloshayle to the Endowment of the Office of Sub-Dean, which he founded in the Cathedral on the 8th of July in that year (see page 324). It was a very critical period in this history, and the Bishop made the most of his opportunity. Of course, no Dean was present at the Installation, for Pycot was in prison: but the three Archdeacons were there, with other witnesses; and Quivil installed William de Bisiman, "propriis manibus," with great ceremony, as the first Sub-Dean.

These were, indeed, eventful years for our Cathedral and Diocese. But more remains to be told. For Walter de Lecchelade, who had been collated to the Precentorship on the 1st of August, 1282, was brutally murdered, in the Cathedral-Yard, in 1283, and Pycot was accused of being, at least, privy to the crime! The Register is entirely silent as to this tragedy, though the Precentor's death is mentioned more than once; a circumstance which led Dr. Oliver and others to doubt, for a time, the truth of the story as narrated by Hoker. It may be fairly assumed that, however guiltless Pycot may have been, there must have been some plausible reason for suspecting him; and, as it is clear that Lecchelade was the leader of one of the contending parties in the Chapter, it is very probable that he was the most prominent and active opponent of Pycot's claims. In the Letter of Pontissara, Bishop of Winchester, which I have printed above (see page 343), reference is made to a fierce dispute which was raging at the time over the Stall of the Archdeacon of Exeter, the appointment to which, for that turn, lay with the Roman Curia; and it is distinctly stated that Lecchelade was vehemently opposing the man of their choice, and had forcibly possessed himself of the Stall, the House, and the revenues attached to the Dignity. Unhappily the Mandate of the Cardinal Archbishop of Tusculum, quoted by Pontissara, was reduced to a mere "Venerabili Patri, etc.," in the Register; so we do not know the claimant's name[1]; but the Letter was written on the 31st of March, 1283, and the Obituary of the Cathedral fixes the Precentor's death on the 9th of November following, and no doubt correctly, for his successors in the Precentorship and in the Canonry were collated on the 18th. I do not like to suggest that Pycot himself (whose Election as Dean was still being contested) coveted the post, and that this was the excuse for charging him with the murder; but there must have been some reason[2] for so grave an accusation, even if we come to the conclusion that he was simply the victim of a legal process for the extortion of money, and of the vindictive spleen of his opponents, who would be likely to make good use of so sad an occurrence, in order to oust him finally from the Deanship. At any rate, he was tried, and, with others who were supposed to be his accomplices, condemned, and cast into prison. And, eventually, he resigned, or was deprived, for Andrew de Kilkenny was elected Dean on the 13th of March, 1284-5. The immediate result was peace in the long agitated Cathedral Body; and the record of Kilkenny's Election in the Register, is couched in unusual and significant terms,—"unanimiter, necnon concorditer, ab omnibus Concanonicis suis, nemine reclamante, set per omnium inspiracionem; et eodem die Confirmacio fuit ipsius Electi, et eciam Confirmatus fuit protinus installatus," a contrast, indeed, to the turbulent proceedings which had so long disgraced the Chapter!

A Copy of the Commission for trying this murder-case is to be found on the Patent Roll, 12 Edw. I., m. 17. It gives the names of the Justices appointed to hear and determine the case, and what is still more important and interesting, the names of all the persons indicted, twenty-one in number.—6 Februarii, 1283-4.—"Rex dilectis et fidelibus suis N[icholao]

[1] The Register contains, no record of the Collation of John de Pontissara's successor as Archdeacon of Exeter. "Robert de Evesham," Oliver says, "succeeded"—and yet he, erroneously, makes Peter de Insula both precede and succeed him (see above, p. 344)—"We meet with him 20th July, 1284, and again in August, 1287." He is, however, mentioned a little earlier in Quivil's Register, viz. on the 15th of July in the former year (see page 367).

[2] Quivil made the Precentor his Vicar-General, 5 Sept., 1281, only three days after Pycot's Confirmation by the Primate (see p. 363)—a position which must have enabled him to take a leading part in the opposition to this Election. As Precentor, also, he was the chief Dignitary, pending the installation of the Dean.

de Stap[eldone], Ricardo de Boyland, et Willelmo de Braiboef,[1] salutem.—Sciatis quod assignavimus vos ad inquirendum, per sacramentum proborum, etc., de Comitatu Devonie, per quos, etc., qui molestores, etc., nuper Magistrum Walterum de Lecchelade, quondam Canonicum Ecclesie Sancti Petri Exonie, apud Exoniam, noctanter interfecerunt; et qualiter et quo modo, et ad quorum vel cujus procuracionem interfeccio illa facta fuit; et quis vel qui malefactores illos postmodum scienter receptaverunt vel receptavit; et qui vel quis peccuniam seu mercedem aliquam receperunt vel recepit pro concelamento mortis predicte; et a quibus vel a quo, et qualiter et quo modo, et de omnibus Articulis mortem illam contingentibus, et ad transgressionem illam ac appellum quod Johannes de Lecchelade facit, in Comitatu predicto, versus Henricum de Stanweye; Lucam de Sancto Leonardo, clericum; Willelmum le Despenser, de Haddone; Rogerum Tuace, de Cride; Michaelem le Messer; Johannem Picot, de Wonford[2]; Henricum le Messager; Johannem de la Bataille[2]; Thomam de Taulonde; Elyam Poyfide; Godefridum Donecan; Petrum de Melhewyshe; Reginaldum le Erceveske; Walterum le Rous; Johannem de Wolfrington; Johannem de Cristenestowe, vicaire; Aluredum de la Porte; Rogerum Russel, de Exonia; Walterum de Breington; Willelmum Huge, pape, de Exonia; et Willelmum Pycot, vicaire, de morte predicti Magistri Walteri, consanguinei sui; ad terminandum secundum Legem, etc. Et, ideo, vobis mandamus quod ad certos, etc., quos vel duo vestrum ad hoc provideritis, premissa faciatis in forma predicta, facturi, etc. secundum ad Legem, etc. Salvis, etc. etc.—Teste Rege, apud Netleham, vj die Februarii."

There can be no doubt that many—perhaps not all—of these accused persons were convicted. Alured de la Porte was Mayor of Exeter; and Hoker tells us, but gives no authority for the statement, "that, upon an Inquisition, Alphred Duport, late Mayor, and the Porter of Southgate were both indicted, arraigned, found guilty, and executed[3] accordingly, for that the Southgate was, that night, left open, by which means the murderer, escaped."[4] Of the rest eleven, being Clerks, were committed, after con-

[4] At any rate, the Mayor was convicted, as the following Extract "E Rotulo Finium, Anno 14° Edw. I. (m. 17)," clearly shews,—"Pro Edmundo, Comite Cornubie,—Rex Vicecomiti Devonie salutem.—Quia concessimus dilecto Consanguineo et fideli nostro, Edmundo, Comiti Cornubie, annum, diem, et vastum de omnibus terris et tenementis que fuerunt Aluredi de la Porte et Ricardi Stonyng, nuper hominum et tenencium ejusdem viction, to the Bishop's prison. For on the 12th of April, 1284, Archbishop Peckham issued the following Commission, directed to John de Cave and two others, to demand them from the King's Justices :—" Universis Sancte Matris Ecclesie filiis ad quos presens Scriptum pervenerit Frater J[ohannes, permissione Divina Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis, salutem] et pacem in Domino sempiternam.—Noverit Universitas vestra quod nos dilectos in Christo Dominos, Johannem de Cave, Rectorem Ecclesie de Northburge, Johannem de Cestria, Rectorem Ecclesie de Hilleburne, Willelmum, Rectorem Ecclesie de Parva Hillinge, conjunctim et divisim nostros facimus et constituimus Procuratores et Attornatos per Presentes ; et eisdem, et eorum cuilibet, vices nostras committimus, cum cohercionis canonice potestate, ad petendum coram quibuscumque Illustris Regis Anglie Justiciariis, vel aliis locum suum in hac parte tenentibus, cujuscumque status vel condicionis existant, et quocumque nomine censeantur, et recipiendum ab eisdem Dominos Johannem Pycot, Decanum Exonie, Reginaldum dictum Arceweke, Johannem de Cristanestowe, Vicarium Ecclesie Exoniensis, Johannem de Wolfryntone, Willelmum Pycot, Magistrum Lucam de Sancto Leonardo, Henricum de Stonweye, Thomam de Thoulond, Petrum de Melchewysis, Godefridum Dunekan, et Walterum de Wreyntone, clericos, de morte quondam Magistri Walteri de Lychelade, Canonici Exoniensis, citatos seu appellatos, et eorum quemlibet singillatim, quociens opus fuerit, prout dictis Procuratoribus vel Attornatis, et cuilibet ipsorum, et Ecclesie Sancte videbitur expedire ; cum Venerabilis Frater noster, Dominus Petrus, Exoniensis Episcopus, predictorum clericorum Dyocesanus, ut dicitur, sit notorie suspectus eisdem. Ratum habentes et firmum quicquid predicti Procuratores nostri seu Attornati, et eorum quilibet, ad honorem Dei et Ecclesie Sue, duxerint seu duxerit in premissis faciendum.—In cujus rei testimonium has Literas fieri fecimus et sigilli nostri munimine roborari. —Datum apud Wyngeham, ij Idus Aprilis [12 April], Anno Domini M°. CC°. octogesimo quarto, Ordinacionis nostre sexto (Register Peckham, fol. 154).

It appears that at least four of these Clerks, including John Pycot, remained in prison till 1286.

The late Sir T. Duffus Hardy discovered, in the Tower of London, four Letters addressed by the Primate and by Bishop Quivil to the King of which the following are transcripts from the Originals, since transferred to the Publick Record Office (Royal Letters, Nos. 1855 - 1858). Translations are given in Oliver's History of Exeter (pp 67—69) ; but the Letters are of sufficient interest and importance to claim a place, here, in their actual form[1] :—

Comitis, ac eciam bona et catalla eorundem Aluredi et Ricardi, in Balliva tua, que ad nos pertinent, eo quod predicti Aluredus et Ricardus feloniam fecerunt, pro qua suspensi fuerunt ; habenda per appreciacionem coram dilectis et fidelibus nostris, Ricardo de Boylaund et Rogero Luveday, apud Exoniam inde factam, nobis ibidem tunc existentibus ; tibi precipimus quod, si predictus Comes invenerit tibi sufficientem securitatem ad respondendum nobis ad Mandatum nostrum, ad Scaccarium nostrum, de valore annuo, diei, et vasti, et bonorum et catallorum predictorum, juxta appreciacionem predictam, tunc eidem Comiti annum, diem, et vastum, et bona et catalla predicta liberes, per securitatem predictam habenda, sicut predictum est. Teste Rege, apud Exoniam, viij° die Januarii [1285-6]." The latter does not appear in the List, and he was, probably, convicted of some other offence.

[1] The Letters relating to the purgation of the other Clerks appear to be lost. It is fortunate that these four have been preserved, as they form a very important link in the history of this tragedy. The Clerks were able to claim the "Benefit of Clergy" on being convicted, and were handed over to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The convicted Laymen would be left to take their chance at the gallows, unless the Royal pardon was extended to any of them.

[1] He belonged, therefore, to the Diocese of Canterbury. On Ember Saturday in Lent (9 March), 1285-6, Archbishop Peckham held an Ordination in Teynham Church, Kent, and among those ordained as accolites occurs the name of Lucas de Sancto Leonardo. (Regist. fol. 120.) This, it will be observed, was the day before the date of Peckham's Letter to the King.

No. 1858.—Bishop Quivil to the King,—

Serenissimo Principi Domino suo, etc. (as before) . . . . Cum Dominus Johannes de Wolringtone, presbiter, Vicarius de Otery Sancte Marie, nostre Diocesis, de homicidio etc. (and so on to the end, verbatim, as above).

I am, indebted to Mr. Baigent for a copy of the following most interesting Letter,[1] addressed by Bishop Quivil to John de Burthone, Precentor of Salisbury. It contains a detailed account of the murder, and of the steps which our Bishop took for the punishment of the offenders and their accomplices. It occurs in a Volume entitled Formule Literarum Brevium, Obligacionum, Acquietancium, etc., fol. 81 (MS. Royal, 12 D. XI.) The Scribe was thinking only of the "Formula," and did not take the trouble to give the date: but it must have been written after the 14th of May, 1284, on which day Burthone was appointed "Custos Spiritualitatis," and, probably, before the first week of August, when his term of Office expired[2]:—

[Litera petitoria aliquorum excommunicandorum propter delictum commissum,—margin].

"Venerande discrecionis viro, amico suo karissimo, Magistro Johanni [de Burthone], Precentori in Ecclesia Sarumensi, Custodique Spiritualitatis Episcopatus Sarrumensis, Sede vacante, Petrus, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, salutem et sincere caritatis continuum incrementum, paratamque ad beneplacita voluntatem.—Non absque gravi cordis amaritudine et tristi anima vobis referimus per Presentes, quod cum, celebratis quadam nocte, non longo tempore jam transacto, in Ecclesia nostra Exoniensi, more solito Matutinis, discretus vir, Magister Walterus de Lechelade, Precentor in Ecclesia nostra predicta, obinde, cum modica familia, sub proteccione Dei et Ecclesie, in habitu canonicali, ad Larem propriam repedaret, ecce, sicut vos usque hec tempora latere non credimus, quidam perdicionis filii, diabolica feritate repleti, ad quorum iniquitatem puniendam, si ignis missus e Celo eos consumeret, vel terra insurgens cum ceteris elementis subito deglutiret, vix digno judicio punirentur, captata ad hoc, more perverse agencium, hora tenebrarum—ut premittitur—et non lucis, ne mundo pateret eorum malicia, in ipsum cum gladiis, fustibus, et securibus, ac aliis diversis armorum generibus hostiliter irruentes, eundem inhumaniter, nec Loci de quo venerat sanctitati, vel persone sue reverencie, aut sacerdotali dignitati qua pollebat, que, quidem, merito eos compescuisse debuerant a tantis insania et furore, aliqualiter deferentes, ferocitate tyrannica vite presentis exilio deputarunt. [1] And, also, for all the Extracts from the Rolls, and nearly all the Extracts from Abp. Peckham's Register, printed in this Volume.

[2] Walter Scammel received the Royal Assent to his Election as Bishop, 12 July, and the Temporalities 10 Aug., 1284.—The same Volume contains (fol. 85b), a Letter from John de Burthone to Bishop Quivil, permitting him to consecrate Altars in the Diocese of Salisbury; also (fol. 86), a Letter requesting him to bless an Abbot in that Diocese, — "Cum nos nuper Eleccionem de Fratre Philippo de Schireburne, Camerario Ecclesie Conventualis de A[bbatesberie], in Abbatem ejusdem Ecclesie Electo, examinaverimus, ac eandem auctoritate nobis commissa . . . confirmaverimus, vestre Venerande Paternitati attencius supplicamus et devote quod eidem Fratri munus Benediccionis, de vestra gracia speciali, impendere dignemini, quod super hiis ex Officio vestro hujusmodi negocio incumbit benigno favore, si placeat, adimplentes." The King gave his consent to this Election, 27 May, 1284: so this Letter must have been written, probably, in June. There is another Letter (fol. 86b), from Burthone to Bishop Quivil, permitting him to hold Ordinations in the Diocese of Salisbury on 3 June, and (if his authority should be still in force) on 23 Sept., 1284.

videntur a multis. Quamquam, autem, hujusmodi Sathane satellites, convocato quam pluries clero et populo nostre Civitatis in Ecclesia nostra Cathedrali Exoniensi, ipsos tam a participacione Sacramentorum quam Communione Fidelium separantes, cum eorum complicibus, auctoribus, fautoribus, consilium, auxilium, opem, favorem, vel assensum, verbo vel facto, clam vel palam, prestantibus, ac quoslibet receptatores eorundem scienter, mucrone Anathematis percusserimus, mittentes eos in ignem Jehennalem, ibidem, nisi peniteant, eternaliter cruciandos; sicque, tam nostre, quam eciam a Canone late Sentencie, in hujusmodi Dei et Ecclesie inimicos, quam constat eos ipso facto dampnabiliter incurrisse, Pontificalibus induti, cum solempnitate qua decuit, denunciaverimus, et nichilominus in singulis Ecclesiis nostre Civitatis et Dyocesis, singulis Diebus Dominicis et Festivis, candelis accensis, et pulsatis campanis eosdem sacrilegos per Locorum Capellanos, intra Missarum Solempnia, cum major aderat populi multitudo, denunciari fecerimus publice et solempniter subjacere, juxta incumbens nobis Pastoralis sollicitudinis officium requirebat, donec ad cor redeuntes, et de commissis penitenciam condignam agentes in forma juris beneficium absolucionis meruerint optinere. The following Extracts, for which I am indebted to Mr. Baigent's friendly hand, are noteworthy. They refer, chiefly, to Pycot's conviction, and are also illustrative of Entries in both Bronescombe's and Quivil's Registers:—

(2) *Rot. (3) "E Rotulo Finium Anno 14° Edw. I. (m. 17),—"Rex Vicecomiti Devonie salutem.—Cum dilectus et fidelis noster, Radulphus de Hengham, habeat Custodiam terre et heredis Walteri de Bathonia [obiit 4 Edw. Ita quod idem Radulphus nobis inde respondeat ad Mandatum nostrum.—Teste Rege, apud Exoniam, v° die Januarii [1285-6] etc."—Bishop Bronescombe (see page 25, supra) committed this "custodiam et maritagium" to Sir Roger le Arceveske, Knt., 20 July, 1280. There is no record in these Registers of its having been, subsequently committed to Hengham ; but Quivil records that he instituted Henry de Esse to the Rectory of Cornwood, 18 Sept., 1283, on the presentation of Sir R. de Hengam (sic), Guardian of Augustine, son and heir of Walter de Bathonia (see page 341, supra).

sectam pacis nostre que ad nos pertinet pro morte predicta, ac eciam utlagariam in ipsum Johannem ea occasione promulgatum, et firmam pacem nostram ei inde concedimus. Ita, tamen, quod stet recto in Curia nostra si quis eum loqui voluerit de morte predicta.—In cujus, etc.—Teste Rege apud Cantuariam, xvij° die Marcii [1297-8].—Probably, Bataille did not come forward on the former occasion, but deemed it prudent to remain beyond the seas. But now, some fourteen years after the murder, we have the King's pardon granted to him for services in Flanders.

cile it with the character of our English Justinian, King Edward I., to order the execution of Alfred Duport, who stood so high in the estimation of his fellow-citizens as to elect him their Chief Magistrate eight several times." And he adds that he had "seen a Deed, witnessed by this Alfred on the Sunday after the Feast of St. Matthew (late in September, 1285, nearly two years after the alleged murder)—"a fact which, of course, is not inconsistent with the proof afforded by the above Instrument, that he was executed about two years later. Bishop Bronescombe's Register, however, shews that he, and certain other prominent citizens of Exeter, got into serious trouble with that Prelate, as long before as 1272 (see page 75). It should be noted that Hoker's account of the tragedy, so long discredited, is, now, proved to have been singularly accurate.

(13) ibid. m. 7.—De transgressionis audiencia et termino.—Salomon de Roffa et Willelmus de Brayboef, assignati ad inquirendum per sacramentum, etc., de Comitatu Devonie, per quos, etc., qui malefactores, etc., domos Johannis de Exonia, clerici, apud Wonford, Seyntesedefunte et Henedwell, vi et armis fregerunt, dum idem Johannes fuit sub Proteccione Regis et in obsequium Regis in partibus Wallie, et bona et catalla ejusdem Johannis ad valenciam centum librarum, ibidem inventa, ceperunt et asportaverunt, et homines suos, ad custodiam rerum suarum ibidem deputatos, verberaverunt, imprisonaverunt, et maletractaverunt, et alia enormia eis intulerunt, ad grave dampnum ipsius Johannis et hominum suorum, et contra Proteccionem Regis et pacem Regis. Et ad transgressionem illam ad terminum secundum Legem, etc. Et mandatum est eis quod ad certos, etc., Inquisicionem illam facerent, et transgressionem illam audituri, et terminum facturi. Salvis, etc.—Et mandatum est Vicecomiti Devonie quod ad certos, etc., venire faceret, etc.—Teste Rege, apud Rothelane [Rhuddlan], xvj die Augusti [1282].

[The above Entries (10—13) were found after the Sheet containing the others had been printed ; so they have to appear out of the order of the dates : they are too interesting to be omitted. They seem to suggest that, after all, John Pycot and "John de Exonia," the Treasurer, may have been the same man (see p. 439). But the point remains a doubtful one. "Seinte Sydefunte"—"font" or "fount," for "well"—is a curious form of St. Sidwell].

APPENDIX II.

THE TAXATION OF POPE NICHOLAS THE FOURTH.

Sir David Aunsel, or Aunselm, priest, was instituted to East Buckland, 30 May, 1314 (Reg. Stapeldon, fol. 85). He was succeeded in that Benefice, 6 May, 1321, by Sir John de Hengstecote, priest (ibid., fol. 158), having been instituted, 2 April, to Redruth. There is no record of his Institution to Tedburn-St. Mary, which occurred, no doubt, at the close of Bishop Stapeldon's Episcopate, for the last sixteen months of which the Register fails us. I find, however, from Bishop Grandisson's Register, that Sir Robert de Chulmeleghe, priest, was instituted, 4 Feb., 1332, "in Ecclesia Parochiali de Tettebourne, per liberam resignacionem Domini David Anselm, ipsius Ecclesie ultimi Rectoris, vacante."

This "Taxation" was begun in 1288 and completed in 1291. It will be seen, therefore, that it is not at all improbable that Anselm's "Liber" was a contemporaneous copy—at any rate, it must have been nearly so—of the portion relating to the Diocese of Exeter. The printed copies, not excepting Dr. Oliver's (in the supplement to his Monasticon), are full of inaccuracies.

I have given within brackets, the modern names of the several Parishes, and the names of all Lands and Tenements, so far as I could identify them with certainty.

This interesting Deed was formerly in the possession of Mr. Pitman Jones, from whom it descended to his son, Mr. Winslow Jones, who kindly copied it for me, and has since presented it to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter, for preservation in their Muniment-Room. It belongs to the Reign of King John, and was, therefore, executed nearly a Century before the Taxation of Pope Nicholas was made. It is interesting to compare the List of the "Capellæ" of Exeter which it contains with the List in the Taxation. Several of the Chapels disappeared in the interval. St. Mary-the-Little was, probably, St. Mary-Steps, and the other St. Mary, St. Mary-Arches. There were two Chapels dedicated to the Holy Trinity. St. Mary, Magdalene was, doubtless, the Chapel of the Hospital for Lepers.

[1] "Dutton"—(Oliver).

[2] I think it well to give the modern spelling of the name of every Parish, when there is any considerable difference in the spelling. It is true that this will be of no great use to Devon and Cornwall men; though "Eglosros," now called "Philleigh," "Egloscruke"—St.Issey and "Uttenesleghe"—Hittisleigh are not easily recognised. But strangers to the two Counties will find it a great help. They will understand that in every case of omission the antient and modern names are, at least, identical in sound.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

The above Summary occupies the last page, which is so damaged that much of it is almost illegible. The portions within brackets are destroyed, and have been restored from a fifteenth Century Copy of the Taxation in the British Museum (Addit. MS. 24,057—the Gift of Sir W. C. Trevelyan, Bart., in 1861). It is a very interesting and valuable volume, and contains, in addition to the Copy of the Taxation, the Acts of the Synod of, Exeter, in 1287, and of the Consistory Court of Exeter in a suit as to Tithes, by the Abbot and Convent of Tavistock, Impropriators of St. James', Antony, against Thomas Raleghe, R. of St. John in Cornwall, which began 24 March, 1422-3, and terminated, 25 Sept., 1427, in favour of the Convent. There are other copies of the Taxation in the British Museum—viz. Addit. MS. 24,060 (a very fine vellum book, written temp. Edw. III., and purchased at the Savile Sale in 1861), and the Cottonian MS., Tiberius C.X—an early copy. The Record Commissioners printed their Edition from the Exchequer Copy, in the Publick Record Office, which is but a transcript of the fifteenth century. The Original Returns for the Diocese of Exeter are lost (F. J. B.). There is every reason to believe that Anselm's Copy, so happily preserved with Bronescombe's Register, is the earliest extant. It is very full and accurate—much more so than any of the Copies referred to above. That it is a contemporaneous MS. there is internal evidence to shew; e.g. under Chulmleigh (p.464),—John de Broclonde appears as a Prebendary, and someone has written against his name "nunc Fromonde": now, Broclonde was inst. in 1260 (p. 123), and Fromonde in 1293 (see Appendix IV.)

Page 455; Entry 14,—It was suggested to me that the letters "s.o." which appear here and there, in the margin, may be interpreted to mean "sine obvencionibus; but in one instance, I find "sol. o."—Entry 46, —"Combe Coffyn" was the antient name: a later hand has struck out "Coffyn" and substituted "Pyn."

,, 459; Entry 19,—The "erased" Entry;—"Ista Summa, £6, cancellata per quendam Processum habitum in Memorandis Anni Noni Regis Edwardi, Filii Regis Edwardi, inter Recorda de Termino Pasche, quod Prior nichil habet Spirituale" (Oliver). I find, from Stapeldon's Register (fol. 212) that "Doccombe" (hodie Dockham), in the Parish of Moreton-Hampstead, is meant.

,, 466; Entry 10,—Instead of Johannis de Pultone "Oliver has "Radulphi de Botiller;" see p. 130 (and, p. 34, l. 44—for "a Prebend in the Cathedral" read "another Prebend in Crediton."

,, 467; Entry 1,—"Sancti Nansfonteyn" (Oliver); but the Church was dedicated to St. Petrock, and the Parish, antiently called "Nansfonteyn," is now called "Little Petherick" or "St. Petrock-minor."

,, 468; Entry 19,—In the parish of Talland, opposite Looe Island, was a Cell of Benedictine Monks called Lammana, subject to Glastonbury (see Lysons' Cornwall, p. 298).—Entry 20,—"Oliver de Dynaunt, in a Letter to Richard, King of the Romans, expressly states that an obligation was annexed by the Founder [an ancestor of the Cardinham Family, and a contemporary of the Conqueror], for one of the Monks of Tywardreath [Priory, which was dependent on the Abbey of SS. Sergius and Bacchus, at Angers], to serve a Chantry within the Monastick Church of St. Mary de Valle, near Bayeux, and we learn, from a Deed of Prior Theobald, that he granted to Robert de Cardinham, "Domino et Patrono nostro," the services of two of his Monks in the said Conventual Chantry of St. Mary, for that purpose" (Oliver's Monasticon, p. 33).—Entry 21,—Broadoak (or Braddock), see p. 256, line 22.—Entry 22,—St. Nun's Chapel, in the Parish of Pelynt.

,, 469; Entry 14,—Thomas de Bottone (i.e. Buttone, or Byttone), afterwards Bishop of Exeter.

,, 471; Entry 36,—Sancte Julitte, i.e. Lanteglos-by-Camelford (not to be confounded with the neighbouring Parish of St. Juliot's, now a Rectory, but then a Chapelry of St. Gennys.

,, 474; Entry 5,—"Hederlonde," a dependent Chapelry connected with the Manor of Otterton. Was it in Washfield (Stafford's Register, p. 365), in which Parish there is a place now called "Hatherland" and a tradition of a Chapel there?—Entry 18,—I suppose, the Manor of Medland in Cheriton-Bishop: but Oliver has "Chittlehampton."—Entry 22,—Oliver adds—"Idem [Prior de Carswille] habet Tuhingtone, quod estimatur £2: non taxatur, quia in Diocesi Bathoniensi."—Entry 24,—"Wlfrechirche,"—K. John granted Wolford Church, then called Wolferchurch and esteemed a separate Parish (but, now, in the Parish of Dunkeswell), to Dunkeswell Abbey (Lysons, p. 170).

,, 475; Entry 30,—Oliver adds—"Idem [Abbas de Forde] habet apud Cernemue et Neulond, quod estimatur £2 19s. 8d.) apud Wlislond et Hurstenfeg—13s. 4d.; apud Burstok—£3 18s. 4d.; apud Tolre cum Catesclive—£5 15s. 4d." Also "Apud Turnesworth—£4; apud Wyndesore—£3 18s. 4d.; apud Strete, £2 15s.; apud Leghe—£3; apud Othwelle—£3 13s. 4d.,—non taxantur, quia in Diocesi Bathoniensi."

,, 476; Entry 9,—See p. 393, ad finem. Is "Wyke Lageforde" Germansweek after all? The Manor belonged to Frithelstock Priory.

,, 479; Entry 22,—The Rectors of Minster are, still, Lords of this Manor of Polyphant (in Lewannick).—Entry 29,—The Manor of Porthia Prior was situated partly in the Parish of St. Ives, and partly in St. Anthony-in-Meneage, and in other Parishes (Lysons, p. 149.)

APPENDIX III.

The Charters of the Cathedral-Church of Exeter.

These interesting and early copies of our antient Charters were written in at the end of Bronescombe's Register. The first four have been collated with the Originals in the Chapter-House. And it will be observed that in the case of the fourth—the famous Foundation-Charter—the variations are numerous and, some of them, noteworthy. It is claimed for the Chapter-House MS. that it is the very Deed which was laid upon the High Altar of the Cathedral by the Confessor, with his own hand, when Leofric, our first Bishop, was enthroned by the King and Queen in person. This claim has been disputed; and the question has been ably argued in his History of the Cathedral, by Archdeacon Freeman, who believed, and not without reason, that he had "fully refuted every objection alleged against our Charter." I think, however, that he cannot have seen the Bronescombe Copy: for, replying to one of Dr. Hickes' objections — that "Eadsinus, Archbishop of Canterbury, whose signature is attached, resigned in 1043," he shews that "the fact of his resignation, which is, at first sight, fatal to our Charter, turns to a strong testimony to its genuineness. For . . . Eadsinus does not sign as 'Archbishop of Canterbury,' but only as 'Archbishop,' while Ælfric signs as 'Abp. of York';" and he adds that "this exact fitting in of the Charter into the historic facts of the period is beyond the skill of the forger, and may alone be accepted as stamping it as genuine." But it will be observed that in Bronescombe's Copy the Primate's signature is "Ego Eadsinus, Archiepiscopus Christi Ecclesie." Now, according to the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle, Eadsige resigned his See, indeed, in 1043, but resumed it in 1048, and died, 29 Oct., 1050, when he was succeeded by Robert of Jumiéges. There is no difficulty, therefore, on account of the dates; and the only question is, why the words "Christi Ecclesie" are not found in the "Original" Charter, whereas they occur in Bronescombe's Copy. I cling to the Archdeacon's belief that we possess "the very parchment which was laid by the Confessor upon the Altar at Leofric's enthronement," and content myself with directing attention to the above facts, without presuming to discuss their effect on the controversy.

[21] Carta etc.] In Bishop Grandisson's handwriting.—In the margin, in a later hand,—"de quibusdam Ecclesiis Episcopatui spectantibus."
[22] Dr. Oliver (Monasticon, p. 72) reads "Thohon" ; but in error: the final letter is, plainly, "u," and throughout this Charter the letters "u" and "n" are clearly distinguished. He says—"In Cart. 36 Edw. III. m., 12 (which represents the Charter of Henry I. to be only confirmatory of those of prior Kings), this name is stated to be Tohon [?Tohou], (see Dugd. Monasticon, p. 539). As no such Church can be identified among the possessions of the See, is it not, possibly, only an adjunct to the preceding name, and equivalent to Perran Towan, i.e. Perran in the Sands ?" The explanation is purely fanciful: the names are kept well apart, and are separated by stops. I believe that by "Thohou" was meant St. Kew, antiently called "Lanhoho." "Lan" is, of course, a prefix ; and when we have removed it, something very much like "Thohou" remains. Sir John Maclean (in his "Trigg-minor," vol. ii, 84), refers to the early subdivision of this great Manor (which was held by the King at the time of the Domesday Survey), and says that the two carucates held by the King in demesne, together with the Advowson of the Church, were granted by King Henry I. to the Bishop of Exeter." And William Warelwast, who . . . . died 1137, granted the same . . . to the Canons Regular of Plympton." This was before the time of John and of Henry III. But this Church was the subject of disputes till 1307. It will be noted that the Church of Plympton is, also, included in the above Charter. This was, of course, the Church of the Town; there was no Parish-Church of "Plympton-St. Mary" at that time.

[1] "Nota Boseham"—margin (Grandisson).

[2] This "W" is ambiguous. Walter de Gray, Archbishop of York (consecrated in 1216), and William de Blois (consecrated in 1218) and Walter Cantilupe (consecrated in 1237), Bishops of Worcester, were contemporaries, temp. Henr. III. This Charter must therefore have been dated between 1218 and 1255 (in which year the Archbishop died). Walter Giffard became Archbishop temp. Henr. III., but in 1266, after Cantilupe's death.

(2) Warine de Sancto Germano and Stephen de Alternon, Canons of Launceston, having presented to the King the Letters of the Sub-prior and Convent, requesting Licence to elect a successor to Prior Richard, deceased, the King granted their prayer, at Dover, 14 Jan., 1307-8 (1 Edw. II., part 2, m. 28). Subsequently Letters were directed "Waltero de Gloucestria, Escaetori suo citra Trentam," informing him that Fr. Roger de Hortone, one of the Canons, had been elected, and that, the Bishop-Elect (Stapeldon) having confirmed the Election, the Temporalities were to be restored to the said Roger; (6 May, 1308, —ibid., m. 11). See p. 419.

LECHELADE, THOMAS DE.—The King signifies to Godfrey Giffard, Bp. of Worcester, the Election of Robert de Rading by the Chaplains of the House of St. Mark to the Mastership thereof; vacant by the resignation of the said Thomas, 4 Dec., 1286—(15 Edw. I., m. 15). He became Chancellor of Exeter Cathedral in 1303, and Dean in 1307.

LEYTH, WILLIAM.—Royal Letter, P.R.O., No. 1203 -Bp. Bytton to the King, asking him to restore the property of William Leyth, clerk, who had purged himself of theft (10 July, 1305).

PALSTON,—See p. 302, note 6, where I was unable to identify "Pallingestone." Palston, in South Brent, a Grange of Buckfast Abbey, was, doubtless, meant: the Bishop might well have rested there on his journey from Plympton to Chudleigh.

CALSTOCK [Calistoke, MS.].—Henry de Exonia, clerk, on the resignation of James de Berkhamstede, clerk, 13 April, 1302; an exchange for Beckley, near Oxford (30 Edw. I., m. 26). On Henry's resignation Robert de Berkhamstede, clerk, was presented, 30 Dec., 1304 (33 Edw. I., part 1, m. 21).—Master Ralph de Odiham, clerk, had been presented, 28 July, 1303 (31 Edw. I., m. 17); but he could not have been instituted.

CAMBORNE [Camberoun, MS.].—John de Neuband, clerk, on the resignation of Thomas Basset, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Willelmi Basset, defuncti, qui de Rege tenuit in capite," 28 Nov., 1308 (2 Edw. II., part 2, m. 17).—Neuband was inst. by Stapeldon, 10 Jan., 1308-9 (Regist. fol. 37b); we are indebted to the Roll for the name of his predecessor.

CHULMLEIGH; Prebendaries,—Master Robert Fromund, on the death of Adam de Segrave), to the Prebend "de Overeheghene, . . . racione Custodie terre et heredis Hugonis de Corteney, defuncti, qui de Rege tenuit in capite," 5 April, 1293 (21 Edw. I., m. 19).—See pp. 329, 414.

CORNWALL, Archdeacon of (See p. 415).—Le Neve refers to the Patent Roll —1 Edw. II., part 1, m. 2,—and says that Adam de Carletone held this Dignity, 7 Jan., 1307-8." This is, probably, inaccurate; he was presented on that day,—"Rex omnibus, etc.—Sciatis quod dedimus . . . Capellano nostro, Ade de Carletone, Archidiaconatum Cornubiensem in Ecclesia Exonie vacantem, et ad nostram donacionem spectantem racione Episcopatus Exoniensis vacantis."

CREDITON; Canons [Sede vacante]—Hugh de Welles, in succession to Master John de Cardunvilla, 5 Jan., 1207-8 (Rot. Chart., 9 Joh., m. 2.)—Ralph, "clericus Willemi Briwerre," in succession to Master Jordan de Brente, c. 22 April, 1208 (9 Joh. m. 1).—Master Milo, succeeded by John de la Herce, 11 April, 1214 (15 Joh., m. 2).—Rd. de Exonia, in succession to Rd. de Bikeleghe, 7 Jan., 1212-13 (Rot. Claus., 14 Joh. m. 1): repeated, 7 Feb. (Rot. Chart., 14 Joh., m. 2).

DITTISHAM [Dydesham, MS.].—Wm. de Lutegarshale, clerk, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Hugonis de Curtenay, defuncti; qui de Rege tenuit in capite," 7 March, 1296-7 (25 Edw. I., part 1, m. 11).

EGLOSHAYLE,—John de Exonia—Sede vacante,—1 Jan., 1257-8 (42 Henr. III., m. 14). I do not think he was instituted.

EXETER CATHEDRAL [Sede vacante]; Chancellors,—Master Henry de Sumersete occurs 18 Oct., 1294 (22 Edw. I., m. 6d).—This Dignity was granted to Master John de Everdone, 20 May, 1308 (1 Edw. II. part 2, m. 9).

Archdeacon,—Master Richard de Plumstoke, clerk, 10 March 1307-8 (1 Edw. II., part 2, m. 25). The Letters, directed to the D. & C., were renewed, 25 March, to the Bishop-Elect (ibid., m. 16).—See p. 417; there was, in fact, no vacancy.

Canons,—Walter de Gray, "Cancellario nostro" (in succession to Gilbert Basset, late Archdn. of Totnes), 10 May, 1207 (8 Joh., m. 1): presentation repeated, 7 Aug. (9 Joh., m. 5); also, 20 March, 1207-8 (Rot. Chart., 9 Joh., m. 2).—Ralph, "clericus W. de Briwerre," succeeded Jordan de Brente, 22 April, 1208 (9 Joh., m. 1).—Henry de Londone, Archdn. of Stafford, in succession to Master Ralph de Hospitali, 4 Aug., 1207, (ibid m. 5)—Martin Produm; succeeded by Peter Chacepore, 21 Jan., 1244-5 (29 Henr. III., m. 8).—Henry de Wengham, Dean of St. Martin's, London, on the death of Robert de Curtenay (see p. 135), 1 Jan., 1257-8; Wm. de Axemuthe to be inducted, as his Proctor (42 Henr. III., m. 14).—Adam de Carletone, in succession to Robert de Oldelonde ["de Veteri Terra" in the Registers], 17 Feb., 1307-8 (1 Edw. II., part 2, m. 26).

EXMINSTER.—Master Rd. de Plumstoke was "Persona Ecclesie de Exmynestre" as early as 17 Aug., 1305 (Litere de Proteccione . . . ad Curiam Romanam—33 Edw. I., part 2, m. 15).

GLASNEY, the Collegiate Church of,—John de Clerion [ad] Prebendam illam quam Magister Walterus de Monekudyn habuit in Ecclesia Beati Thome, Martiris, de Pe[n]ryn, vacantem per mortem ejusdem Walteri,"—Sede vacante, 8 March, 1307-8 (1 Edw. II., part 2, m. 18). Also, R. of ST. ILLOGAN (q. v.),—There must have been a false report that he was dead; but it is certain that he survived the King's right to grant the Prebend. Bp. Stapeldon (Register fol. 47) visited the Archdeaconry of Cornwall in 1309-10, and finding "quod Magister Walterus de Menecudel, Rector Ecclesie Sancti Yllugani et Canonicus in Ecclesia . . . de Glasneya, . . . extitit et est perpetua egritudine gravatus sensuumque discrecione privatus," he appointed Wm. de Mileborne his Coadjutor, 5 Feb.—Menacudel is in St. Austell, and, probably, Walter de Sancto Austolo (see p. 418) was the same man: if so, he died before 30 March, 1310, when his successor was collated (Regist. Stapeldon, fol. 49).

GOODLEIGH [Godeleghe, MS.],—John de Bayfelde, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Johannis de Mohun, defuncti, qui de Rege tenuit in capite," 4 May, 1283 (11 Edw. I., m. 20 in cedula). Perhaps, his right to present was successfully disputed; for Walter de Fissertone, presented by Mabel Gyffard (see p. 346), was instituted 20 June, 1283.

HATHERLEIGH,—Master Adam, "clericus Willelmi Briwere" . . . . "racione Abbatie de Tavistoke vacantis," 20 April, 1224 (8 Henr. III., part 3, m. 8).

HIGH BICKINGTON- WINKLEIGH [Bekintone—Wimbleghe, MS.],—Master Serlo, "racione quod Abbatia de Theokesbiri est in manu nostra," 15 Oct., 1202 (4 Joh., m. 8).—See KILKHAMPTON.

HOLLACOMBE [Holecumbe, MS.],—Saherus Teutonicus - Sede vacante, 10 Sept., 1215 (15 Joh., part 1, m. 8).

KILKHAMPTON [Kilchamtone, MS.],—Master Serlo (afterwards Archdn. of Exeter, and subsequently Dean); "racione Abbatie de Teokesbiri vacantis," 20 Dec., 1202 (4 Joh., m. 7). His predecessor was Geoffrey Fitz-Theodore (margin).

LAMERTON [Lambertone, MS.],—Ralph le Botiller, "racione Abbatie de Tavistoke vacantis, 1 April, 1270 (54 Henr. III., m. 17).—William de Stikelepathe was collated (by lapse) in 1262 (see p. 148), and "Willelmus" occurs as Vicar in 1285. I was, probably, mistaken in identifying (see p. 347) this William with William de Stikelepath.

LANTEGLOS-BY-CAMELFORD [Nanteglos, MS.],—John de Borham, clerk, 3 Nov., 1301 (29 Edw. I., m. 3).—See p. 419.

LIFTON,—Robert del Estre, chaplain, 28 July, 1293 (21 Edw. I., m. 6).—Thomas de Cantebrug, clerk, 4 Dec., 1293 (22 Edw. I., m. 28),—On whose resignation, Gilbert le Bretun, clerk, was presented 24 April, 1299 (27 Edw. I., m. 29): but he was not inst.; for, this Church being vacant "per resignacionem Thome de Cantebrigge, nuper Persone ejusdem," Adam de Aqua de Cantebrigge, clerk, was presented, 12 March, 1299—1300 (28 Edw. I., m. 25).—Robert de Thorpe 26 April, 1302 (30 Edw. I., m. 24): see p. 420.

LITTLEHAM [by Exmouth],—Nicholas de Hadhame, "racione Abbatie de Sireburne [Sherborne] vacantis . . . salva Rogero de Littlehame Perpetua Vicaria . . . in eadem Ecclesia," 3 June, 1213 (15 Joh., part 1, m. 12).

MERTON,—William Passelewe (see ST. CRANTOCK), "racione Custodie terre et heredis Henrici de Mertone," 17 June, 1246 (30 Henr. III., m. 3).

MORETON-HAMPSTEAD [Moretone, MS.],—Robert de Combe was inst. in 1276 (see p. 157). He resigned and was again presented; or there may have been two Rectors of the same name; for the King presented Master Robert de Combe, chaplain, "racione terrarum que fuerunt Ricardi filii Johannis, defuncti, qui de Rege tenuit in capite," 8 April, 1298 (26 Edw. I., m. 20).

MORCHARD-BISHOP [Morchet, MS.],—Alfred de Torrentone, clerk,—Sede vacante, c. 6 May, 1207 (8 Joh., m. 1). His "Carta" ["Morchet Episcopi," MS.] is dated 20 June (Rot. Chart., 9 Joh., m. 8).

MUSBURY [Capella de Museburi, MS.],—Roger de Hamtone, "clericus de Capella;" "racione terre Matilldis de Cortenei;" c. 27 June, 1204 (6 Joh. m. 10).—Safe-conduct to the said Matilda, to go to the King (from the Thursday before Lammas till Michaelmas),—"Teste Domino Cantuariensi, apud Windesoram,"—28 July, 1204 (ibid.)

LANREATH [Lanraytou, MS.],—Wm. de Suttone, clerk, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Ricardi de Ciriseaus, defuncti," 6 April, 1309 (2 Edw. II., part 1, m. 15).

PAIGNTON,—Michael de Fendles Sede vacante, 21 Jan., 1244-5 (29 Henr. III., m. 8).—"ad Ecclesiam de Pexerntone"—a reading hard to identify; but, as the Bishop was Patron, and the Letters were directed to the Archdn. of Totnes, no doubt Paignton was meant.

PUDDINGTON [Potkyntone, MS.],—Thomas de Cornubia, 24 Aug., 1306 (34 Edw. I., m. 9).—See SOUTHLEIGH, ST. GERRANS, and the next Entry.

ROCHE [de la Roche, MS.],—Thomas de Cornubia, clerk, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Jocei de Dynham, defuncti, qui de Rege tenuit in capite," 22 Jan., 1306-7 (35 Edw. I., m. 40).

ROSEASH—see ST. STEPHEN'S-BY-SALTASH.

ST. BREOKE ["in Manerio de Pawtone," MS.],—Richard de Wy "ad Medietatem Ecclesie."—Sede vacante, 2 March, 1257-8 (42 Henr. III., m. 12).—Bronescombe's Register records only the Collation of two "Vicars," and I hazarded a guess (p. 166, note 11), that Richard Wyche, mentioned in Quivil's Register as R. in 1282, had been inst. before Bronescombe's time: this view the Roll seems to confirm.

ST. BUDOCK,—"Johannes, etc."—Sciatis nos . . de assensu Johannis de Plesseto, Persone Medietatis Ecclesie Sancti Budoci de Triliver, concesissse . . . Johanni Wac, clerico, Perpetuam Vicariam ejusdem Medietatis . . . que ad nostram spectat donacionem racione Episcopatus Exoniensis vacantis, . . . ita quod [etc. as in the case of ST. WENDRON, q.v.]. (28 May, 1208—Rot. Chart., 10 Joh., m. 5).

ST. BURYAN,—Walter de Gray, 12 Feb., 1212-13 (see ST. PROBUS).—W. Prepositus de Sancto Audomaro, 7 Feb., 1213-14—Wm. de Sancto Albino, ad Ecclesiam Sancte Beriane, quam Dominus Legatus Pandulfus ei contulit, nomine Regis," . . Dec., 1220 (Rot. Claus., 5 Henr. III, m. 18).—On the resignation of William de Hameltone, the King granted this Deanery—"Decanatum Libere Capelle nostre Sancte Beriane"—to Ralph de Mantone, clerk, c. 8 Nov., 1301; "et mandatum est Capitulo Capelle predicte quod eundem Radulphum in corporalem possessionem dicti Decanatus . . . inducant, et sibi, tanquam Decano suo et [Capelle] predicte, intendentes sint et respondentes" (29 Edw. I., m. 1).—Again, the King granted this Deanery to Matthew de Boylew, chaplain, 10 March, 1302-3 (31 Edw. I., m. 33). On 28 July, 1303, Letters "de Protecione" were granted to this Matthew and to Richard de Middelhale, till Christmas (ibid., m. 19).—Mathias de Medunta (see p. 422), occurs earlier than 1310, viz. 28 Aug. 1308 (2 Edw. II., part 1, m. 20).

ST. CRANTOCK; Canons,—Nicholas Chapeleyn—William Passelewe.—"Rex Exoniensi Electo salutem,—Sciatis quod ante Confirmacionem vestram contulimus Willelmo Passelewe quandam Prebendam que tunc vacabat in Ecclesia Sancti Karentoci per mortem Nicholai Chapeleyn, quondam Canonici ejusdem Ecclesie; et quia nomen ipsius Nicholai, qui Prebendam illam optinebat, ignorabamus, idem clericus noster nondum missus fuit in corporalem possessionem Prebende. Vobis mandamus quod eum . . . inducatis [17 April, 1245]. (29 Henr. III, m. 7).—On the resignation of Hillary (son of Thomas) Marescall,—Sede vacante—the King presented Wm. de Sancto Gorano, clerk, 10 Feb., 1257-8 (42 Henr. III., m. 13); and on the death of Bartholomew de Welles, John de Colecestre, "Capellanus et Elemosinarius Regis,"—on the same day (ibid).

ST. ERVAN [Sancti Ermetis in Manerio de Poutone, MS.]—Wibertus de Cancia, on the death of Master Laurence,—Sede vacante—16 Feb., 1257-8.—See p. 171. And note that I read an ambiguous contraction of his name, in Bronescombe's Register, "de Cantuaria"—an error which the Roll, happily enables me to correct (42 Henr. III., m. 12).

ST. GERRANS [Sancti Gerendi, MS.],—Thomas de Cornubia, clerk Sede vacante,—c. Feb., 1307-8 (1 Edw. II., part 2, m. 27).—Renewed, at Windsor—"ad Medietatem Ecclesie Sancti Gerendi"—27 March, 1308 (ibid. m. 16).

ST. ILLOGAN [Sancti Elugani, MS.],—Thomas de Nova Haya, clerk, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Willelmi Basset, defuncti, qui de Domino Edwardo quondam Rege Anglie, Patre Regis, tenuit in capite," 4 March, 1307-8,—Letters directed "Custodi Spiritualitatis" (1. Edw. II, part 2, m. 22). Renewed, 13 March, to the Bishop-Elect (ibid., m. 20).—See p. 422; also, GLASNEY.

ST. LUDGVAN [Sancti Ludooni, MS.],—John de Okham, clerk, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Radulphi de Blowyho, defuncti, qui de Rege tenuit in Capite," 1 Jan., 1302-3 (31 Edw. I., m. 43).

St. Madron [de Sancto Maderno, MS.],—Robert de Clatford, "clerico . . . Willelmi Briwerre," 18 April, 1203 (4 Joh., m. 1).—Thomas de Chimelly,—Rex omnibus, etc.—Sciatis quod recognitum fuit in Curia nostra, coram Justiciariis nostris, apud Londonias, per sacramentum xij legalium hominum de visneto de Runeri in Cornubia, quod Ecclesia Sancti Maderi de Runeri, unde contencio fuit inter nos et Fratres Hospitalis Jerusalem, est jus ipsorum Fratrum . . . et ad eorum spectat donacionem. Quam Ecclesiam Henricus de Pomereia eisdem Fratribus concessit et warantizavit, coram predictis Justiciariis in eadem Curia, ut jus eorundem Fratrum ex dono predecessorum ipsius Henrici. Quare, etc., quod idem Fratres et eorum successores habeant et teneant predictam Ecclesiam Sancti Maderi de Runeri, sicut jus suum, cum omnibus pertinenciis et libertatibus suis, bene et in pace, etc. Volumus, eciam, quod non noceat eis, post decessum Thome de Chimelly, quod ipse ad presentacionem nostram admissus fuit ad Ecclesiam illam, dum terra de Runery et alie terre predicti Henrici de Pomereia fuerunt in manu nostra.—Teste Willelmo Briwerre, Petro de Stoke, Simone de Pateshille, Jacobo de Poterne, Radulfo Gernun (9 March, 1205-6,—7 Joh. m. 6).—See p. 252, note 1. The date in Mr. Millett's abstract from the Rolls (1203) must be corrected.—Chimelly was presented by the King to the R. of St. Mary's, Cambridge, 23 March, 1204-5, and to Merrow, Surrey, in Jan., 1207-8 (Rot. Pat. 9 Joh., m. 3).—See, also, the Charter-Roll, 7 Joh., m. 3.

St. Mawgan-in-Kerrier [Sancti Maugani, MS.],—John le Brun, clerk, on the resignation of William le Brun, "racione Custodie terre et heredis Marci le Whalesbrewe, defuncti; per mortem bone memorie Edmundi, quondam Comitis Cornubie, in manu Regis," 3 Jan., 1300-1 (29 Edw. I., m. 32).—See p. 423.

St. Mullion [Sancti Melani, MS.],—Rd. de Potesgrave, chaplain, 21 July, 1308 (2 Edw. II., part 2, m. 25). [Also, presented 8 March, 1308-9, to Heckington (Dioc. Linc.), "racione Abbatie de Bardeneye, vacantis (2 Edw. II, part 1, m. 11].—This Entry, happily, enables us to decide which Parish was intended—"St. Mellion" or "St. Mullion"—both commonly called "Sancti Melani." John de Stokes (see p. 423) first "occurs" as R. of St. Mellion in April, 1309, and he was, probably, inst. by Bytton. I find that St. Mullion was, certainly, vacant (which St. Mellion seems not to have been) in 1309, and that Richard de Brayleghe was admitted thereto ("Sancti Melani in Kirier"), 22 Oct., i.e. a few months after Potesgrave was presented to Heckington.

St. Mylor [Sancti Melori, MS.],—Walter Mauclerc was R. temp. Johan. (see p. 290, l. 24). He was presented by the King, 16 Sept., 1213 (15 Joh., pt. 1, m. 9.)—Alexander de Sabuchteswaith—Sede vacante—7 January, 1223-4 (8 Henr. III., part 3, m. 12).—Wibertus de Kancia, 7 Jan., 1257-8 (42 Henr. III., m. 14): but, 7 Feb., the King revoked the presentation, in favour of Thomas de Windesore,—see p. 176 (ibid m. 13). All Sede vacante.

St. Probus,—St. Buryan ["Ecclesias Sanctorum Probi et Beriane, MS.],—Walter de Gray, Domini Regis Cancellarius" [See Totnes. He became Bp. of Worcester in 1214; Abp. of York in 1216],—12 Feb., 1212-13 (14 Joh., m. 2).—Succeeded in both Benefices by "W., Prepositus de Sancto Audomaro," 7 Feb., 1213-14 (15 Joh., m. 3).—Thomas de Hereford—was presented to the Deanery of this Collegiate Church, 14 Nov., 1223 (8 Hen. III., part 3, m. 12).

St. Ruan [Sancti Romoni de Withientone (Wynyanton), MS.],—Willelmus Pictavensis,—Sede vacante, c. 23 March, 1207-8 (9 Joh., m. 2).

St. Stephens-by-Saltash [Asshe, MS.],—Geoffrey de Stokes, clerk, 11 March, 1300-1 (29 Edw. I., m. 22).—Peter de Skeltone (see page 423), was presented 11 July, 1302 (30 Edw. I., m. 20). [I take this opportunity of saying that the appointment of Henry de Ponte to the Custody of the Church of "Esse", in 1278, may have been to Roseash rather than to Saltash (see p. 178): both places are called "Esse" in the Registers.

St. Wendron [or Eglos-Wendron; here called "Eglosiga"],—In "Bracton's[1]

[1] We are justly proud of the connection of Henry de Brattone (or Bracton, as the name is commonly written) with our Cathedral. Lord Campbell says of him that "he was one of the greatest Jurists who ever lived in any age, or in any country (Lives of the Lord Chief Justices, i. 63); and Sir Travers Twiss says—"As long as the Law of England lives the memory of Bracton will never die (Bracton's De Legibus Anglie Ed. Twiss, ii., p. lxxx).

Note-Book (Ed. F. W. Maitland, vol. iii., p. 514), Michaelmas, 1225, occurs the following,—"Radulphus Lewis summonitus est ad respondendum Domino Regi quo advocato se tenet in Personatu Ecclesie de Eglesago; et Johannes Wac, eodem modo, summonitus ad respondendum quo advocato se tenet in Vicaria ejusdem Ecclesie, etc."—Ralph says the Personatus was given him by Henry Fitzcount, and he only, now, claims a Personatus of two marks.—The King's Counsel say that John de Plesetto was Parson there by presentation of King John, and that John de Plesetto died less than a year ago. Ralph replies that John was not Parson there, but Henry de Marisco was, by gift of Reginald, Earl of Cornwall, and died Parson.—John Wac did not appear, and the Bishop seized his Benefice. No result stated. [C.W.B.]—The above Note is very interesting. It gives a very early Institution to "Eglosiga" in Henry de Marisco, who must have been R. as far back as 1175; for Reginald, E. of Cornwall, who presented him, died in that year. Henry died Rector; and John de Plesseto was his successor, presented by K. John before 1208. He died in 1224; so he must have resigned the Living at an earlier date, for Ralph Lewis was inst., on his resignation, on the presentation of Henry Fitz Count, and, doubtless, between Sept. 1215 (when K. John granted to the said Henry the County of Cornwall, with all the Royal Demesne-Land and Bailiwicks) and 1220, when he surrendered the Earldom and County.—John Wac (i.e. Wake) was inst. to the Mediety (or Vicarage, as it would have been considered at a later date), on presentation of King John [F.J.B.]—"Johannes, etc.—Sciatis nos . . de assensu Johannis de Plesseto, Persone Ecclesie de Eglosiga et Capelle de Ellestone, concessisse . . . Johanni Wac, clerico, Perpetuam Vicariam ejusdem Ecclesie et Capelle de Hellestone . . ita quod idem Johannes Wac eandem Ecclesiam, cum eadem Capella, habeat et teneat integre, cum omnibus pertinenciis et libertatibus suis, in liberam, puram, et perpetuam elemosinam; solvendo inde predicto Johanni de Plesseto et successoribus suis, prefatorum Ecclesie et Capelle Personis, unum bisancium nomine Pensionis" [28 May, 1208, see ST. BUDOCK.] (Rot. Chart., 10 Joh., m. 5).—Rd. de Elmeham, clerk, was presented "ad Ecclesiam de Eglosiga cum Capella Sancti Michaelis de Hellestone" . . que vacat etc., 12 Aug., 1224 (8 Henr. III., m. 4).—I may add that Wake was a great pluralist, and, nevertheless, seems to have been unable to "make the two ends meet." He owed £40 to the King, and, as he failed to pay, the King fell back upon the Bishop, who was, consequently, compelled to sequestrate his Livings. These were Helston and St. Budock, where he was Vicar; St. Mewan, Warleggan, and St. Cleer, all in Cornwall, and Arlington and Bigbury in Devonshire.

The following curious Letter is written, on a fly-leaf, at the end of Quivil's Register. The writing, marvellously crabbed and contracted, is identical with that of the interlined letter on fol. 114$^{b}$ (see p. 368, note 2). I am unable to connect it with our Registers; but Wolvedone is the name of an antient (and now extinct) Cornish Family, long seated at Wolvedone (or Golden) in St. Probus :—

"Venerabili in Christo Patri ac Domino, Domino Ricardo, Dei gracia Dulmenensi Episcopo, suus clericus, si placet tante Dominacioni, Walterus de Wolvedone, salutem et promtum et devotum in omnibus famulatum.—Nil carius diligente reputatur quam si dilecta fortuna prosperatur. Hinc est quod vere dies illuxit, et Paschale gaudium mihi reputo advenisse, a tempore rumoris quo vos ad culmen Pastorale provexit Divina Providencia. Vestram Paternitatem et Dominacionem multipliciter habeo commendatas et senseo fructuosas, quia meam personam vestri gracia, non meis meritis set vestra benivola curialitate, affectuose dilexistis. Hinc est quod, si vestre Dominacioni et Paternitati placeret Regestrarium talem qualem sim in vestra comitiva habere, multum mihi placeret multis de causis, tum quia vos amatis curiositates de quibus alias me intromisi, tum quia me a vobis senseo dilectum, tum quia vester sim patriota. Istis de causis vestram Dominacionem super omnia d . . . certificandam vos esse rogo, ne pro malo habeatis quod sic operas meas ingero, quia malo vestram Dominacionem rimari in persona propria quam per interpositas personas. De voluntate vestra placeat tante Dominacioni per harum latorem me reddere cerciorem.

ADDENDA, ETC.

I find that John Vivian occurs as V. of Axmouth in July, 1299 (Pat. Rot. 27 Edw. I., m. 12d.)

Dittisham; for Jakepenne (p. 415) read Inkepenne.

Lelant; for "Rectors of" (p. 150) read "Rector and Vicars of." It is probable that all in the List were Vicars except, apparently, William de Capella.
